NINETY THOUSAND BOXES OF APPLES

Now in the Hands of Grande Ronde Valley Fruit Growers. Present Value $54,000

A careful estimate places the number of packed apples, still in the hands of the Grand Ronde Valley growers, at 150 car loads or 90,000 boxes, which at the present price 60cts per box offered means $54,000. Very little stock is or has been moved, not to exceed 25 cars of this season's packing has been shipped, owing to the fact that the the growers and buyers could not agree on prices.

As Grand Ronde apples are noted throughout the wide world for their keeping qualities, the growers, if they so desire, can hold their fruit 60 or 90 days yet.

This county is today with possibly one exception (Jackson county) the largest apple producing county in the state and is increasing each year. This is an ideal apple county. We can grow any variety and as heretofore stated no fruit section excells our stock for its long keeping qualities. It requires only a few years for an orchard to average five boxes to the tree, which nets the grower a clean profit of $150 per acre.

Prize Fruit Pack

The Fruit Pack of the Oregon Produce Co. Received the Honor

A A Gust, of the Oregon Produce Co. of this city returned yesterday morning from San Francisco where the pack of his establishment in competition with packers Colorado, California, Washington and Idaho was awarded first honors by a committee of over fifty commission men and dealers in San Francisco. While there was fruit from other sections that was fully equal to ours, still they were not so skillfully packed That is, were not so packed that upon their arrival and upon leaving cold storage, did not open up in such an attractive and tempting manner as did the fruit packed out o our La Grande warehouse. This means much for the Oregon Produce Co. and Union county fruit.

A popularity in the fruit buying centers is valuable beyond compulation.

Laws Do Not Apply

Washington, Dec 28—An opinion rendered today by Frank L Campbell assistant Attorney general of the Interior Department, held that the laws of the United States do not apply to the Panama Canal Zone. He held the canal zone is not an organized territory of the United States and there is no provision in the treaty with Panama making the United States laws applicable. The question at issue was whether a patent or trade mark law extends to the zone.

Music

R P Tait the pioneer music teacher of Grande Ronde Valley is still in the king. During my vacation I made it my business as well as pleasure to attend concerts, opera, and in fact everything in my line of business and I found that I as a teacher and interpreter of music and still in the front rank. Pupils who do not wish the full conservatory course may take the popular piano course. This places the pupil in position to play the popular music of the day, Church and Sunday School music.

The Violin popular course places the pupil in position to play all kinds of dance music as well as light overtures. Quite a number of musicians who have been under my instruction are now making good money as teachers and soloists. Pupils who are under my care will be thoroughly instructed in music.

Party Last Night

Misses Margaret Porter and Edna Schlike entertained the members of the 401 Club and a number of invited friends at the home of the latter last evening. They entertained at whist, Miss Mollie Froebstel and Dr. A L Richardson winning first prizes and Miss Rohan and Mr. N Biever second.

The house was decorated in mistletoe and smilax and the ladies were given a piece of music the gentlemen having the words to correspond being the partner for whist. A dainty luncheon was served, and the entire evening's program was carried out in a novel and enjoyable way reflecting much credit on these young ladies.

The next party will be given in two weeks.
