REVOLT OF PEOPLE AGAINST TARIFF

Congressman Bowers of Mississippi Talks of Result of Oregon Election.

DEMOCRATS OF CAPITAL REJOICE OVER OUTCOME

Deduced Majorities Show Trend of Public Sentiment—Partisans Gird Themselves for Winning Fight for Control of House.

(Journal Special Service.)

Washington, June 8.—Congressman Bowers of Mississippi, chairman of the campaign committee of the Democratic congressional committee, today gave out the following statement in relation to the election in Oregon, Monday, and its effect on summer and fall elections of members of the lower house:

"The Oregon election is an indication of the revolt of the people against the stand-pat policy of the Republican party. In 1904 Oregon gave President Roosevelt 42,000 majority out of a total vote of 95,000.

Two years later Oregon returns to office, with an increased majority, Governor George E. Chamberlain, the Democratic incumbent for the past four years, reduces majorities in both congressional districts given Republican candidates, and on a popular vote for United States senator, against the immense majority given President Roosevelt, offers the Republican managers the consolation of a bare 2,500 majority for the Republican nominee, Jonathan Bourne Jr., over the Democratic nominee, John M. Gearin, incumbent.

"The issue of revision of tariff was presented by Oregon Democrats and it was dwelt upon in the utterances of all newspapers which supported the Democratic nominees. Newspapers which supported the Republican ticket made a strong appeal to voters to yield to the party cry and insisted that Republicans vote straight. They also loudly demanded vindication of President Roosevelt by the election of every candidate on their list.

"Inasmuch as the majorities received by the Republican candidates elected were the smallest since the presidential election of 1896, Democrats may take warm comfort from the Oregon outcome, and gird themselves for fighting a winning battle for control of the next house of representatives."

AWARDS AT WHITMAN GIVEN BY PRESIDENT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Whitman College, Walla Walla, June 8.—At the last meeting of the associated students the baseball, track, tennis and debate managers gave reports showing a small gain in the finances of each department with the exception of track, which went behind again this year. The principal feature of the meeting was the awarding of the official 'Varsity "W" to all who have won them this year. All were called before the entire association and the certificate of award presented by the president of the college, Stephen B. L. Penrose. Ten "W's" were awarded to men in football, 10 in baseball, eight in track, four in basketball, two in tennis and six in debate and oratory. The certificate of award also states how many times the recipient has been awarded the emblem in the same department before. Dutcher has the record, having won his letter 11 times, in football, baseball and track.

OLD SUIT ON MAIL CONTRACTS DECIDED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Walla Walla, Wash., June 8.—In the federal court yesterday afternoon a jury in the case of the government versus C. C. McCoy, Thomas Mosgrove, William O'Donnell and D. W. Small, returned a verdict in favor of the government for $5,772.93. McCoy held valuable mail contracts in San Francisco and defaulted in several of them in 1893. Suit was begun against Musgrove, O'Donnell and Small as sureties to collect the full amount of the bonds which amounted to $25,000.

The case has been in the federal courts for a dozen years and has been bitterly contested. The defendants yesterday gave notice that they would appeal to the United States supreme court.

FOR OPENING BOXES.

An Implement Superior to Any Now in Use.

Opening a large box or case with only a hatchet or hammer as accessories would entail considerable labor and time. If a patent nail extractor is used both the time and labor would be reduced. But an implement that reduces the opening of the box to almost a pastime is illustrated below. By inserting the point of the level beneath
