CLAIRVOYANTS AND PALMIST.

A Little of Your Time.
PROFESSOR McIVOR TRAVIS,
Occult Scientist.
A little of your time spent in my office will give to you a better understanding as to the remarkable things I do than whole columns of sensational advertising. The day of the fortune-teller is over, but to the inquiring mind a new day is dawning. The unexplored field of occultism, which means prosperity, happiness and health.
I have studied so earnestly in regard to these laws, or these strange forces or powers that surround us, that there is absolutely nothing that I fail to accomplish for my client, where their case is properly understood. Think of something that you would really like to accomplish, then come to me. You and I will have a private and personal talk, which will cost you absolutely nothing but a little of your time. I will prove to you, regardless of your belief or disbelief, that I am master of an unknown force and can read things so accurately concerning your life that will cause you to stop and think.
In my readings I use no globes, cards, dark rooms or cabinets; this alone has brought about a distinction and places me in a class by myself, with no competitors; as well as five years I spent in the orient with that strange race known as the Hagi Alabad Nestors, obtaining from them secrets, being initiated into their sacred and guarded wisdom, which enables me to positively guarantee any special work I undertake within a short time.
I develop mediums, personal magnetism, heal the sick, bring about financial success, tell as to safe and paying investments, unite the separated, settle lover quarrels and hasten marriages; locate mines, lost or absent friends, tell exactly what should be done in each case to insure success; teaching every phase of occult powers.
Call today. Remember the name.
PROFESSOR McIVOR TRAVIS,
