Albany Lad Shows Form

PORTLAND, Aug. 20 (AP) — A [illegible]-pound back from Albany today gave a performance State coach Fred Spiegelberg hopes will set the pattern in Saturday night's All-Star football game here.

The back, Gary Grill broke loose for a [illegible]-yard run as the state squad held its final heavy drill for the All-Star game.

Spiegelberg also singled out for praise Roger Johnson of Marshfield High School in Coos Bay.

Johnson, a 6-2, 190-pound halfback moved four or five yards nearly every time he carried the ball as the team ran through the last of its two-a-day drills.

From now on both squads will run through only one polishing session each day.

Two Linemen Excel

Two state linemen excelled in blocking today, Spiegelberg said. They are Barry Bullard, a 6-4, 220-pound tackle from Marshfield and Neil Plumley of Medford.

While the state squad drilled, three of its members were on the sidelines with injuries. They are McMinnville halfback Jack Temple, Tillamook fullback Al Trotter and Marshfield guard Dale Cardwell.

Spiegelberg said that Trotter may be the only one of the three who will be ready to play Saturday night.

Meland to Back Line

The coach today said that Bruce Meland of Silverton, who has shown well in drills all week will be one of the team's three linebackers.

The Metro squad also had a player sidelined with an injury—halfback Joe Shank of Lincoln High School. But coach Ralph Harper said he probably will be ready to see action in the game.

Quarterback Bob Schloredt today was named the team's punter. Harper said that end Chuck Nolte of St. Helens will boot the punt after touchdown attempts.

Hurley Says No Radio, TV

SEATTLE, Aug. 20 (AP)—Promoter Jack Hurley ruled today that no radio or television station may broadcast details of the heavyweight championship fight Thursday between champion Floyd Patterson and challenger Pete Rademacher while the fight is in progress.

The long, lean Hurley, who has publicly described television as a "monster" and has little more regard for radio, said there would be no change in the ruling regardless of how many tickets are sold for the fight.

The contest Thursday will be the first time since Jack Dempsey held the title that radio has been barred from the ringside of a heavyweight title fight.

He also ruled that no service may send details to radio stations during the fight even though such information would carry an embargo that it could not be broadcast until after the fight.

The stations would use it as soon as they got it, Hurley contended. Besides, the sports writers say the fight will last only a round or two so they don't need any information while the fight is in progress.

Webbs Have Baby Girl

CHICAGO, Aug. 20 (AP)—Spider Webb of Chicago, No. 6 ranking middle weight contender, today became the father of a 7 pound 7½ ounce baby girl.

The girl, named Diana Marie, is the first child for Webb and his wife Mary Ann.

In other games played:

Roger Bowman shut out Hollywood on five singles tonight as he pitched Sacramento to its second straight Pacific Coast League victory 3-0. The Solons profited from homers by Jim Greengrass and Tom Augusta.

San Diego edged Vancouver 2-1, in a Pacific Coast League game. Bill Werle, making his first Padre start since coming here from Portland in a deal last week held the Mounties scoreless until the ninth.

Haywood Sullivan unloaded a grand slam home run that gave the San Francisco Seals a 4-1 Pacific Coast League victory over the Seattle Rainiers.

Big Steve still is one homer off his 1956 pace when he smashed 55. There are 35 games remaining.

Babe Birrer won the opener, fanning eight and walking none. The Angels got a 3-0 jump in the second on base hits by Windy Wade and Birrer. Bob Borkowski hit a two-run homer for Portland in the fourth, followed by another of the same in the fifth by pinch-hitter Luis Marquez to tie the score 4-4.

gave out. Few people know the handicap the Oregon Senior titlist plays under. Marty's legs are near the cripple stage and have been ever since he was a boy. But he still has won three Senior titles in a row, mostly on sheer desire . . .

The SGC championship tourney is in full swing with medalist Walt Cline, Jack Brande and Glen Cushman ranking as favorites to win it. This is the strongest field the club tourney has had for many years and the draw worked out very well with each quarter having one or more real threats in it. For example, defending champ Pat Miklia will have a real battle on his hands in his first match against Col. Fritsch. Ed is a relative newcomer to Salem but he is an experienced hand and looks like he might be a solid match player. He's a very long hitter and a fine putter. If he can find most of his tee shots, he will make Miklia work very hard . . . Pat won the last two tournaments at SGC and must certainly be ranked as a strong contender again.

Another feature match in the title flight puts Elks Meet semi-finalist Bob Albrich against Cushman. Both have been playing very well lately.

Front Side Still Toughest at SGC

Sunday's qualifying round brought out the same old information. For the better player, at least, the first nine proved a bit tougher to score on than the second. Of the 43 shooters who participated Sunday, the average was 39.84 shots on the front nine, and 39.06 on the back. The new fourth hole was in play Sunday and the extra distance added to the fourth and fifth holes made the difference . . . When the course was first opened for play, Erv Kay kept a tally to establish satisfactory handicaps, and the No. 5 hole proved to be the most difficult. But Sunday the boys averaged 4.9 on the fourth hole, to a 4.5 on the fifth . . . The condition of the new No. 4 green may have had something to do with this, however, as the green was on the slick side. Incidentally, the No. 4 green has been pushed back some 20 yards farther than it used to be from the water hazard. Which is mighty helpful to some swingers.

DeMoss Fails In Golf Meet

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Aug. 20 (AP)—Carole Jo Kabler, Roseburg and Sue DeVoe, Medford were the only Oregon gals to survive the third round of play in the National Women's Amateur golf championships here today.

Falling by the wayside were Gracie DeMoss, Corvallis; Elaine Porritt, Eugene and Shirley Segmund, Eugene.

Miss Kabler, former national Junior champion was one under for the 11 holes it took to beat Sue Finkbeiner, Toledo, O., 8 and 7.

Miss DeVoe defeated Leila Fisher, La Jolla, Calif., 4 and 3.

Miss DeMoss, the 1956 Oregon Women's Amateur titlist, was beaten by the Fort Worth, Tex., veteran, Polly Riley, 1 up.

Barbara Romack Porter, the 1954 National champion, had little trouble with Miss Porritt 4 and 3.

Mrs. Ruth Miller, Santa Maria, Calif., whipped Miss Segmund, 3 and 2.

Royal Horse In Easy Win

YORK, England, Aug. 20 (AP) — Queen Elizabeth's Almeria today romped to a six length victory in the one and a half mile Yorkshire Oaks at York.

The Queen missed the race. She is at Balmoral in Scotland recovering from a throat infection.

Jockey Harry Carr booted the royal-owned colt to an easy victory in the field of seven runners. Almeria, a chestnut filly by Alycidon out of Avila, won the first prize of 6,939 pounds ($19,429). She was an 11-10 betting favorite in the race restricted to three-year-olds.

Rademacher Cash Shows in Seattle

SEATTLE, Aug. 20 (AP)—Betting money popped suddenly into sight tonight for the Patterson-Rademacher heavyweight title bout Thursday—but such a mammoth gob of it that ordinary wager-makers choked on the thought.

Leo Leavitt, a public relations man, announced in nearby Tacoma he was bringing a cashier's check for $100,000 to seattle to be wagered on Pete Rademacher at 1 for 10.

Anybody wanting to bet on Patterson will have to pony up one million dollars. "In," said Leavitt, "one chunk."

Forty-four people chipped in to "make up this pot," Leavitt said, adding that he is not one of them.

"If the bet is made my fee will be 10 per cent from the winner."

Saco Hurler Lost For Rest of Year

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Aug. 20 (AP) — Righthander Roger Osenbaugh, workhorse pitcher for the Sacramento Solons, is out of action for the rest of the season because of an operation on his left knee, the club said today.

The surgery was to repair a torn ligament suffered while chasing a fly ball in Portland last week. Osenbaugh's knee is expected to be in a cast for three weeks.

He had a 9 won and 14 lost record.

Sugar Calls Battle Off

Theater TV Said Cause for Calloff

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 (AP) — Middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson today called off his million dollar Sept. 23 title fight with welterweight king Carmen Basilio after a stormy meeting with the promoting International Boxing Club over theater television.

A demand by Robinson that the IBC switch from Theater Network Television, Inc. (TNT) to another organization—Teleprompter — was rejected by IBC President James D. Norris. Robinson walked out of the IBC's office and in a telephone call to the Associated Press said "The fight is off."

Norris said he was "flabbergasted" by Robinson's action but declared "as far as we're concerned the fight is still on until the New York Athletic Commission notifies us that it isn't. Robinson signed commission contracts on July 31."

Julius Helfand, chairman of the Athletic Commission, said that he had not heard from Robinson.

"I have not heard from Robinson and as far as I'm concerned Robinson signed contracts on July 31 and those contracts he is supposed to fulfill," said Helfand when advised of Robinson's statement. "The contracts set forth all the terms and Robinson, acting for himself without a manager, signed them." No other issues were raised at the contract signing.

At Alexandria Bay, N. Y., where Basilio is training, a spokesman for the welterweight champion said Robinson apparently was trying to squeeze "the last drop out of this thing."

Basilio, who called Robinson "arrogant and greedy" after the official signing July 31, said he would continue training and planned to step into the ring Sept. 23.

Sugar Ray said Norris told him that he had an offer from Nat Halpern, President of TNT, for Theater Television promising 250,000 seats in theaters.

"I told Mr. Norris that this was not agreeable to me," said Robinson. "I told him I had an offer which was better. I made arrangements to see him Monday but I couldn't. Then today I brought in a representative of Teleprompter with a guarantee of 400,000 seats."

This is 150,000 seats more than Halpern could offer and in money it would amount to about $270,000 more.

Asked if he would change his mind about fighting if the IBC met his terms, Robinson replied: "It would have to be darn quick. I can't interrupt my training and pick it up again."

Norris said the fight had been a cinch to gross at least $750,000 and with Theater TV figured to go over the million mark.

"Now?"

The ticket sale will continue, said Norris. "What will happen I don't know."

Keegan Tosses 'No-No' at Nats

(Continued from preceding page) Aaron's single gave the Braves two runs in the ninth and brought Warren Spahn a 13-8 record.

The Cards, who have won four in a row, hammered four homers, two by Stan Musial, who was 5-for-U and upped his league leading bat average to .339. Ed Kasko's first Major League homer, a two-run shot, won the opener as Sam Jones gained his 10th victory. Bonus Kid Von McDaniel gained a 7-3 record in the nightcap, with Musial's 28th homer bringing the Cards from behind against loser Johnny Antonelli.

Don Drysdale won the Brooklyn nightcap for an 11-7 record as three Brook pitchers combined for 14 strikeouts.

Don Mossi won his 10th with Early Wynn's relief in the ninth for the Indians as Gene Woodling drove in two runs with a homer, double and two singles. Tom Brewer lost it for a 14-10 record.

Jim Bunning won his 15th for the Tigers, striking out 10 and walking none in a seven-hitter.

Calls Title Bout Off

NEW YORK, Aug. 20—World's middleweight boxing champion Sugar Ray Robinson points here tonight to contract covering his title defense against welterweight champion Carmen Basilio as he announced he is calling off the fight. Bout was scheduled for Yankee Stadium in New York on Sept. 23. Ray gave as his reason that Jim Norris, president of International Boxing Club, sponsor of fight, failed to fulfill his promises as to television and radio commitments. (AP Wirephoto)

Training Concluded For Heavyweight Go

(Cont'd. from preceding page) who won the Olympic Games Gold Medal last winter and then picked none other than the king of the professionals for his first fight as a pro, remained calm and amazingly confident that a miracle will take place Thursday night in the local baseball park.

The 28-year-old one-time farm boy from Washington, now an adopted son of Columbus, Ga., quietly observed:

"I'm in the best condition of my life. I feel confident about my chances. Otherwise I would not have gone for this match."

Patterson, the 22-year-old stylish hitter from New York, took things easy at his camp at suburban Kent. He completed his serious work yesterday.

His manager, cautious Cus D'Amato, said his tiger was in top form and added that Floyd always is in perfect shape for a fight.

"We certainly won't take any chances with Rademacher. You can't take any with a heavy hitter."

"It may take 10 rounds—or 10 seconds—but we'll get him," crew-top Cus declared.

D'Amato preferred not to discuss Patterson's future plans. But he claims he has two $250,000 offers for title matches. He would not name names or sites.

In his suburban retreat at Issaquah, which in Indian means small river, Rademacher and his small but valiant band of backers held forth.

Pete explained that in amateur tournaments, such as the Olympics in Australia, a boxer is confronted with all manner of "unknowns and unpredictables"—such as a wide variety of styles, rule interpretations and the like.

At Belbourne, where he disposed of the Russian hero, Lev Moukhine, in the finals, Pete said the United States team was trained "to stand off, not to bob or weave."

The main difference between pro and amateur competition?

"You fight a good fighter and you look good. You fight a bum and you look like a bum," he said with a slow grin.

Vast Minor Shift Seen

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 20 (AP) —Cedric Tallis, general manager of the Vancouver Mounties, today predicted a "vast realignment" throughout the minor leagues but said it would not mean the end of baseball here.

Tallis said the shift of the New York Giants to San Francisco will touch off the minor league shift, but it was inevitable anyway because of changing conditions.

He said, however, the Mounties are making plans for 1958 and "we have every assurance that we'll have an even better club next year."

Tallis planned to leave tonight for Baltimore to discuss continuing the Mounties' working agreement with the Orioles of the American League.

Ati Bourbij bettered the 100-meter butterfly record in 1 minute 10 seconds, thus beating her previous world mark of 1:10.5.
