LOWING HERDS ARE WINDING TO SHOW

Via Train, Instead of "Lea," Stock and Stockmen on Way to Portland.

EXPOSITION OPENS MONDAY

With Good Streetcar Service, All Indications Point to Exhibition Being Most Successful—Assistant Manager Here.

Stockmen and livestock from all parts of the territory west of the Rocky Mountains are gathering in Portland today for the opening of the Pacific International Livestock Exposition at the Union Stock Yards next Monday.

Train loads of prize stock have been arriving at the show grounds for the last few days. Fifteen carloads of the best stock displayed at the Lewiston show earlier in the week now are on the way to Portland and will arrive here today.

Some of the fine Guernsey cattle of the University of California arrived yesterday.

John L. Smith, of Spokane, assistant manager of the show, and one of the best-known and most successful livestock men of the Northwest, has arrived in Portland. He looked over the stock already on the grounds and was satisfied.

"The fat stock show will be the biggest and best ever held on the Pacific Coast," he declared.

"It will beat both the Lewis and Clark Fair and the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition.

"Dairy stock is a little slow in coming in but I believe the dairy department will beat both the Portland and Seattle fairs."

Mr. Smith has the reputation among stockmen of being a conservative man of good judgment. It is probable that he will be engaged to assist in judging hogs next week.

A. A. ("Jack") Splawn, president of the Washington State Fair, and Mayor of North Yakima, is expected to arrive today. No stock show in the Northwest would be complete without him. He is a successful stock breeder himself.

Good streetcar service is promised between Portland and the show grounds. Admission will be free and a big attendance is expected.

Mountain Fever Hits Horses.

BAKER, Or., Dec. 5.—(Special.)—Mountain fever has assailed the horses of the James Childers ranch, at Erwin, and several of the animals are now ill. One died this week, bringing the total losses on this ranch up to 12 for the season. Ranchers are at a loss to understand the malady, because although veterinarians diagnose it as mountain fever no horses on neighboring ranches, with virtually the same conditions surrounding them, have been stricken.

SIX ADDED TO FRATERNITY

Oregon Agricultural College Chapter of Honorary Body Elects.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Or., Dec. 4.—(Special.)—The Oregon Agricultural College chapter of Gamma Sigma Delta, the National honorary agricultural fraternity, until this year known as Delta Theta Sigma, has announced the election to membership of six men, L. J. Allen, of Cove; C. L. Hill, of Byrea, Ky.; Joy Scudder, of Seattle, Wash.; Connor Edwards, of Corvallis; J. J. Morse, of San Francisco, and Chester Wilcox, of Portland. President Kerr, of the college, honored these men publicly at convocation today.

L. J. Allen is business manager of the Oregon Agricultural College Barometer; C. L. Hill, president of the Oratory and Debate Association, and college cheer leader, Joy Scudder, president of the Glee Club and prominent in the college Y. M. C. A., and the others of the honored men are active in various forms of undergraduate enterprise.

RAILWAY TO SELL POWER

Portland, Eugene & Eastern Will Supply Newberg Company.

NEWBERG, Or., Dec. 5.—(Special.)—The Yamhill Electric company, of Newberg, which supplies light and power to several outside towns, as well as to Newberg, has arranged to take service from the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railroad as soon as it begins the operation of its line through Newberg. The company has a plant here that has met its needs up to this time, but the increase of business soon will call for additional equipment to the amount of $25,000 or $30,000, and the making use of the railroad service will obviate the necessity of this expenditure.

President Strahorn, of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern; Superintendent D. W. Campbell, of the Southern Pacific; Paul Lebenbaum and Superintendent Evans, of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern, looked over the ground this week.

January 13 is the date set for the installation of the service to Newberg.

WAGNON DRAFTS TAX LAW

Sketch of Graduated Assessment Plan Submitted to State Official.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 5.—(Special.)—H. D. Wagnon, of Portland, has submitted to Secretary of State Olcott, for approval, as to form, a constitutional amendment for a specific graduated tax on all land and natural resources, which he proposes to initiate at the next general election.

The measure provides that all persons holding land or natural resources more than the value of $25,000 shall pay a tax of 50 cents on each $100 up to $50,000; a tax of $1 on each $100 more than $50,000 and up to $75,000; a tax of $2 on each $100 more than $75,000 and up to $100,000, and a tax of $3 on each $100 more than $100,000. Further, the proposed bill provides that land and natural resources upon which the tax is imposed shall not be exempt from regular general or special taxes in the taxing districts. Provision also is made as to the manner of applying the tax in the counties where it is to be collected.

Milwaukee to Condemn Property.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Dec. 5.—(Special.)—Condemnation suits were filed yesterday in the Lewis County Superior Court by the Puget Sound & Willapa Harbor Railway, a branch of the Milwaukee now building through here, to secure right of way from F. T. Camp and wife, the Mutual Oil & Development Company, the Centralia Boulevard Land Company and the Centralia Meat Company, all Centralia individuals and corporations.

Railroad Sold to Bondholders.

COUDERS' POINT, Pa., Dec. 5.—The Buffalo & Susquehanna Railroad was sold at a foreclosure sale here today for $5,000,000 to a protective committee representing the first refunding 4 per cent bonds.
