LONG & McKINNEY

Isn't it about time that "Jane Smith" commenced writing letters for the Booth press?

Brother McNary will contend there is nothing in the numeral 13, while Judge Benson has every reason to believe that it is the unluckiest number in the alphabet.

The Oregonian appears to be straining its editorial gun this year, as usual, in contending "that this is a republican year." If there is any reader of the Oregonian for a term of years who hasn't read that same stuff every campaign we would like to resurrect him and have his eyes tested by some eminent oculist.

Mrs. L. H. Shirley and children are guests of relatives at Newberg.

E. J. Thomas, of Beaverton, was a city visitor the first of the week.

Frank Lichty, of Cedar Mill, was a city caller Tuesday morning.

Geo. W. Kelley and C. A. Peterson, of Buxton, were in the city yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. M. E. Ballard, of Hillsboro, is convalescing at one of the Portland hospitals, after an operation by Dr. Robb.

Andreas Bendler, of North Plains, went down to the big Holstein cattle sale at Portland, yesterday.

Mrs. Ed. Mizen, of Shady Brook, was in the city yesterday. She will go to Tillamook, next week, for a two or three days stay.

Married: Geo. C. Whitmore and Miss Helen Louise Carow were united in marriage in Hillsboro, Ore., June 9, 1914, Judge W. D. Smith officiating.

Alfred Taylor Olson and Bertha Weise were united in marriage June 7, 1914, at the home of Mrs. August Wiese, Rev. Hubert Adams officiating.

Herbert Hazlitt and Bertha Baker were married at the home of M. J. Baker, near Forest Grove, June 6, 1914, Rev. J. M. Barber officiating.

G. S. Woldridge, of Timber, smashed a finger one day last week, and later broke a leg—some hard luck. Dr. F. H. Smith reduced the fracture.

J. M. Miller, of the Third street restaurant, and Geo. Moyes, of the Adams shop, are at St. Martins, this week, taking a course of baths.

C. E. Shirley, of Centralia, Wash., was the guest of his brother, L. H. Shirley, the first of the week, leaving Tuesday for a visit to Glasgow, Ky.

Henry Miller, of Witch Hazel, was in town yesterday. His school district will build a new school house at Witch Hazel, this summer, advertisement for bids appearing in another column.

John Sinclair, of near Orenco, was in yesterday. He says that the rains have revived hopvine growth wonderfully, but that the crop could still stand more moisture, and a little warm weather.

Dr. F. A. Bailey, Worthy Patron of the Star, W. J. Gregg, Master of the Masonic lodge, and Mrs. C. E. Deichman, Mrs. J. P. Magruder, Mrs. L. L. Moore, and Mrs. H. G. Guild are visitors at the Grand Lodge at Portland this week.

Geo. Tews, a son of August Tews and wife, was mixed up in an auto accident, at Albany, Sunday, sustaining a wound in in the head that required eleven stitches. Mr. Tews went to Albany, Tuesday, to see how the son was getting along, and found him recovering nicely.

Miss Clara Derrick, of Walla Walla, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Collier, at Scholls. Miss Derrick will remain several weeks, and then go on to California. She is teaching at Attalia, on the Columbia River, where they grow fruit to perfection.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Brisbane, of Moro, Ore., departed this morning for Seaside, where they will visit for a few days prior to their return to their Sherman County home. Mr. Brisbane, who came down the last of the week to join his wife, says that wheat never looked better in his district, and there is promise of a bumper crop. Mrs. Brisbine has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. S. E. Hoover, since Memorial day.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals for the erection of a frame school building to be erected at Witch Hazel, School Dist. No. 79, Washington Co., Oregon, will be received by the Board of Directors of said district, up to and including June 25, 1914. All bids must be accompanied by a certified check of an amount equal to ten per cent of the amount of bid, which shall be forfeited to the school board of said district upon failure of the successful bidder to sign contract and furnish bond within five days from the awarding of contract.

Plans and specifications can be seen at the residence of the undersigned or at the architect's office, 525 Lumber Exchange Bldg., Portland, Ore.

The right is reserved to accept or reject any or all bids or to waive any informalities therein.

Henry Miller, Clerk School Dist. No. 79, R. 2, Hillsboro, Ore.

WAGNER—WOOD

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Shannon, Oak street, at three o'clock, Thursday, June 11, 1914, when Ralph Wagner, of Pocatello, Idaho, was united in marriage to Miss Nellie Wood, of this city, Rev. F. E. Fisher, of the Evangelical church officiating. The bride is a well known and popular young lady, and has held a position here as primary teacher in the public schools the past year. Mrs. Wagner has made many friends during her sojourn in Hillsboro. The marriage came as a surprise as she had been retained by the school board for another term, her work being eminently satisfactory. The groom is a well known railway man on the O. W. R. & N., and at present is on the dispatcher's force at Pocatello, where they will reside.

A number of friends tendered the bride a shower at the Shannon home last evening, Helen Connell and Margaret Long bearing the presents. Those present were: Mesdames Shannon, Thos. Connell, John Connell, W. D. Wood, M. C. Case, Bride, T. H. Brown, John Dennis, E. L. Moore, C. E. Lytle, Max Crandall, L. A. Long, and the Misses Tennessee Weatherred, Grace Deichman and Edith Brogden.

Hillsboro's Fourth of July committee are authority for the statement that this will be one of the most successful celebrations for years. The free dancing during the daytime, and the free moving pictures will prove a drawing card, and the committee will see to it that there is a splendid program of races and field sports. There will be plenty of eating places on the grounds, and many will have basket dinners. If you want a good time you are invited to Hillsboro.

The Northwest Door Company's plant burned in Portland one day last week, with a loss of about $135,000. There was $60,000 insurance, and the net loss is about $75,000. Richard and Samuel Connell, brothers of Thos. and J. W. Connell and Mrs. W. D. Wood, were both heavily interested in the plant. Oscar Bantz, son of Geo. W. Bantz, of Shady Brook, also had stock in the concern. They expect to rebuild.

Mrs. F. M. Morse and daughter, of Creswell, passed through the last of the week, enroute to Banks to visit the railway agent at that place.

Mrs. Mary Sabin departed yesterday for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Greenup, at Darby, Montana.

Mrs. Sarah Farnham and Miss Anna Sias will leave for Rockaway, the last of the week, where they will occupy the Cornell cottage.

Miss Rhea Wilkes, Ward and Clair Wilkes, Henry Danneel and Con Archbold returned home the last of the week from Corvallis, where they attended O. A. C.

J. H. Cornelius, the pioneer carpenter of Cornelius, was down to the county seat this morning.

Mrs. Willard Tupper is quite ill at her home in South Hillsboro.
