Antelope News.

Married, on Wednesday last, at the Union House, Rev. John Leach officiating, Miss Della Neil and George Dodd, both of Antelope. The parties are well and favorably known in this community, where they have resided for some time, and their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy life of connubial bliss.

Levi Robinson of Portland has opened a stock of dry goods in the building known as Hotel De Scott, adding another store to the business of Antelope.

At the annual school meeting Monday W. Bolton was re-elected director and Frank Irvine clerk. The vote was practically unanimous, there being no other nominations. The clerk's report showed the district to be in good financial condition, the floating debt and a part of the bonded debt having been paid during the past year, a nine-months school, with two teachers, maintained, and a balance of $375 cash on hand. The teachers' report showed an enrollment of eighty, with an unusually good attendance, nearly perfect deportment, a high standing in scholarship, with twelve pursuing high school studies. Several ladies attended the meeting.

Judge Liebe of The Dalles spent several days in Antelope this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oneal, who have been in Antelope during the winter sending their grandchildren to school, returned to Muddy this week.

The storm on March 2d was the worst of the season, and considerable fear was felt for stock; but all came through in good shape, except a few scattering losses, which were very light.

G. H. Dunn, who has been prinicipal of the Antelope schools for the past three years, sold his residence property here to George Patterson, and will remove to Petaluma, California, at the close of the present term in May.

If there is any one thing that needs to be purified, it is politics, so the reformer says, and many agree thereto. But blood tells, and as a blood purifier and liver corrector Simmons Liver Regulator is the best medicine. "I use it in preference to any other."—So wrote Mr. S. H. Hysell, of Middleport, Ohio. And Dr. D. S. Russell, of Farmville, Va., writes, "It fulfills all you promise for it."

You hear it almost everywhere, and read it in the newspapers, that Simmons Liver Regulator is the best liver remedy, and the best Spring medicine, and the best blood medicine. "The only medicine of any consequence that I use is Simmons Liver Regulator."—So wrote Mr. R. A. Cobb, of Morgantown, N. C. And W. F. Park, M. D., of Tracy City, Tenn, writes: "Simmons Liver Regulator is the best."
