NATIONAL LEAGUE PENNANT RACE MAY BE DECIDED TODAY

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.
Association Press Sports Writer.

The National league pennant race has arrived at the point where it may be settled in one day's play. St. Louis starts its final four game series against Pittsburgh and Chicago clashes with the Cincinnati Reds.

If the league leading Cardinals can win today and the Reds can again assert the supremacy over the Cubs they have held all season, the race will be over.

The Pirates already have knocked the New York Giants out of the pennant race while the Cubs, easy victims in Cincinnati, have done somewhat better against the Reds in Chicago and can be counted on to show their best with the pennant at stake. Yet if St. Louis wins, the best they can hope for is a tie while the Cards need but two victories in four games to clinch the title no matter what the Cubs do.

The rivals of the two leaders clashed yesterday but without giving the fans much chance to see what they may do today. Rain interrupted the game several times and finally halted it in the sixth inning, bringing Pittsburgh a 5 to 1 victory.

Brooklyn's floundering Robins dropped into fourth place as they lost to the last place Phillies. With successive first inning homers by Chuck Klein and Don Hurst as the starting point, the Phils continued to hit hard and won by 6 to 3.

Klein's homer was his 40th of the season.

Another tail-ender, the Boston Red Sox, came out ahead in the only American league game, defeating the second place Washington Senators, 6 to 3.

SACTO LOOMS AS REAL CONTENDER FOR COAST TITLE

By the Associated Press.

The Pacific Coast league may yet develop into a race if the Sacramento team keeps up the pace it set last night in defeating Hollywood, league leader, 6 to 3, and shoving San Francisco from third place by half a game. Vinci held the Stars to one run until the ninth when they put on a rally to score two more. Vinci and Eldred hit homers for the Senators.

San Francisco lost to Portland, 7 to 3, in the first game of their series. Hank McDonald's pitching, plus some timely hitting, helped the Ducks to victory.

The lower division kept coming up at the expense of the leaders as Seattle scored a 3 to 2 win over Los Angeles, which still remains in second place. Louis Almada's homer in the last half of the ninth ended the game. Reuther held the Angels to five singles and a homer by Harper.

The Missions took the Oakland team for an 11 to 7 win last night. Bert Cole pitched for the Reds who piled up an 11 to 1 lead in the first five, six of the runs being made in the first off Pete Daglia. In the eighth, the Oaks whipped four across the plate, and it looked as if the game might have ended differently, but the acorn eaters were unable to keep it up.
