CAMAS VALLEY

CAMAS VALLEY, June 25.—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eckles, Helen Church and Miss Josephine Smith returned from a three weeks trip to southern California last Tuesday. Fred Walraff, who went with them, will spend the summer with a sister in Los Angeles. John Walraff, who stayed with his sister last winter and went to school, came home to spend the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walraff.

Misses Mildred Dick and Abbie Lawson came from Portland Wednesday to spend a few weeks' vacation here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.W. Dick and Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Lawson.

Edna Brown of Roseburg visited a few days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Story Martindale.

Viola Richter is working in the Albertina Kerr nursery in Portland.

Lawrence Denn brought home a new Ford V-8 pick-up Friday night which he had purchased from the Roseburg dealer.

George Perdon is still improving from a recent injury to his foot.

Berniece Amstein, who works in Roseburg, stayed at her home here for a few days last week while her mother, Mrs. O. R. Amstein, was in Portland taking treatment for her eyes.

Criss McCann spent several days in Albany last week visiting his son, Clinton McCann.

Jesse Cotton and Jack Smith spent the last week-end at the former's home at Gravel Ford, Coos county.

Ralph Richter and Harry Goodell went to Portland Sunday afternoon to transact business.

Miss Josephine Smith left Sunday noon on the bus for Corvallis where she will attend summer school.

Miss Wilma Martindale spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Story Martindale.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Prock and

Most Brilliant

John W. Tukey, of New Bedford, Mass. (above), was graduated summa cum laude from Brown University after winning highest honors in chemistry and taking three commencement prizes. He completed his scholastic course in three years despite the fact he never went to high school.

Mrs. Oscar Olson of Olalla spent Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Standley.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Garrett and small son Jimmy, who have been living at Reedsport for several months, moved back to their home here Sunday. Mr. Garrett has a job at the Johnson logging camp west of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dick spent Sunday night at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Dick, then went on to their home on Coos river early Monday morning. They were just returning from a week-end trip to the Oregon caves and around the loop through Crescent City.

Henry Church came home from the Roseburg hospital Tuesday night. He is somewhat improved from the leg infection from which he has been suffering, but is not able to be around yet.

RESTON

RESTON, June 25 — A number of Reston residents attended the carnival dance at Rowell's hall Saturday night.

J. D. Laird, well known Sitkum resident, visited friends here Friday while en route to Roseburg to visit with his son, L. H. Laird.

Mrs. Anna Nygren and daughter Anna left Wednesday for Portland. Miss Anna will go to Seattle to spend a few days before resuming her work in Roler & Frank's.

G. C. Sellers and Stanley Brint made a business trip to Roseburg Tuesday.

Mrs. Marie Gerty visited with friends at Reston Tuesday.

A. W. Johnson and Miss Agnes Johnson were among those from Reston who attended the salmon bake at Umpqua park Sunday.

Miss Gladys Green of Lookingglass has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gurney for several days.

ATTENTION! Do you know there have been more new Chevrolets sold to people in Roseburg and vicinity than all other low priced cars combined this year.—Adv.

NOTICE OF TIME AND PLACE OF HEARING

L-F 34

Before the Public Utilities Commissioner of Oregon.

In the matter of the application of Coos River Boom Company, a corporation, for a booming company franchise.

To whom it may concern:

Notice is hereby given that hearing on the application of Coos River Boom Company, a corporation, for a franchise as provided in Chapter 5 of Title 61, Oregon Code 1930, authorizing it to build splash dams and otherwise improve the channel of south Coos River above tide water and to drive, splash, transport, and catch logs and other timber products therein and to construct, maintain and use log storage booms and to sort, raft and transport logs and timber products from the head of tide water in the navigable portion of said south Coos River to Coos Bay, will be had and held in the City Hall in the City of Marshfield, Oregon, on Friday, the 24th day of July, 1936, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A. M.

The waters upon which the applicant asks for a franchise are described as follows:

Upon that portion of the south fork of Coos River and its tributaries navigable for log driving from the head of tide water thereof, beginning at approximately the eastern boundary of Lot 1, Section 27, Township 26 South Range 11 West of Willamette Meridian and extending thence upstream to include all of said stream and its tributaries within Townships 25 and 26 of Range 9 West of Willamette Meridian; also extending downstream from the eastern boundary of Lot 1, Section 27 aforesaid to the junction of said river with the north fork of Coos River and thence downstream to Coos Bay on the main channel of Coos River.

The applicant contemplates making certain improvements upon the streams above named for rafting, driving, catching, booming, sorting and holding logs and other timber products as is more fully set out and described in the application herein and upon the map accompanying such application on file in the office of the Public Utilities Commissioner at Salem, Oregon.

By virtue of the statute and the rules of the Public Utilities Commissioner in such cases provided this notice is published once each week for four consecutive weeks (five publications) in the Roseburg News-Review; the date of first publication hereof is June 12, 1936.

Dated at Salem, Oregon, this 8th day of June, 1936.

FRANK C. McCULLOCH,
Commissioner of Public Utilities of Oregon.

Attest:
John J. Hanlon
Secretary.
