FIRST FLOWER FETE

SATURDAY IS FLORAL DAY AT PUBLIC SCHOOL.

Program Arranged by Professor Conklin Last Spring. Will Be Carried Out This Week—Pupils and Patrons of Schools Will Exhibit Flowers—Prizes Will Be Given and Program Rendered in Evening.

The teachers of the public schools met yesterday evening, after school dismissed, to arrange for the first flower fete, to be held in the schools of this city, on next Saturday afternoon and evening at Assembly Hall.

This unique and artistic idea was introduced by Professor E. B. Conklin, when he distributed flower seeds among the pupils with the intention of making a display of the beauty on the opening of school this fall.

The women's club also distributed flower seed, and offered prizes for the best display of collections and individual flowers, and the entertainment next Saturday will be one of the most attractive and artistic ever given by the public school.

Asters were to have been the reigning flower, but owing to the advanced season, and the fact that some of the most magnificent specimens of this flower are gone there will be an indiscriminate collection of every species of flower growing in the city.

Prizes will be given for all varieties, and the teachers hope to have the assistance of all the patrons of the school in making the event a success. Committees from the high school will assist the teachers, and the literary and musical program will be highly entertaining.

The afternoon will be devoted to the entertainment of the lower grades, and the evening meeting will be in the nature of a public reception to which everyone is invited. The high school orchestra will furnish the music, and a selected literary program will be rendered.

The following committees from the high school and public school teachers have been named to have charge of the event:

General decoration—Miss Mary Ritner, Miss Rozene Epple, Miss Patsy Murphy, Miss Loretta Starr, Roy Conklin and a committee of high school pupils.

Program—Miss Jessie Shepherd, Roy Conklin, and committee from the high school.

General care of flowers—Miss Wills, Miss Wood, Miss Froome, Miss Rita Howland, Miss Carrie Epple, Miss Marple, Mr. Henning, Miss Effie Smith, assisted by committee from the high school.

General committee—Le Masters, Miss Agnes Shepherd, Mrs. Rinearson, Miss Lingenfelter, Miss Lucretia Conklin and committee from the high school.

On sale of flowers—Miss Scott, Miss Gertrude Sheridan, Miss Eva Turner, Miss Bertha Alexander, Miss Mabel Reynolds, Miss Helen Cranston.

On reception—Miss Lane, Miss Jessie Shepherd, Miss Wood, Miss Conklin, Miss Baum, Miss Ewan and committee from the high school.

The patrons and friends of the schools are kindly requested to bring their flowers and assist in making this a regular event in the public schools, hereafter. The teachers, women's clubs and friends have made an excellent start, in the direction of cultivating domestic pride and home beautifying, among the pupils, and it is the desire to continue the work from year to year until the flower fete will be an annual event in the schools. It is the intention of the teachers to offer a handsome prize next year to the best-kept lawn and flowers, kept by a pupil of the public school.

No admission will be charged for the entertainment, and all are cordially invited to attend and lend encouragement to the pupils and teachers in their labor of art and civic improvement.
