GILBERT & PATTERSON,

Dealers in Groceries, Crockery, Glassware, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Windowglass, Etc. Sole Agents for Epicure Tea and Dig Can Baking Powder.

GOOD MAN APPOINTED.—The committee appointed by the board of trade Monday night—W. H. Wilde, W. H. Downing and John G. Wright—have selected Alfred Savage to represent the interests of Salem and Marion county at Portland. This is a good selection. Mr. Savage came here in 1846 at the age of 13 years, and has been a farmer in this part of the valley ever since. He knows what these lands can do if properly tilled; he is not anxious for settlers for the purpose of personal gain, but for the intention of seeing the valley peopled with the right kind of progressive citizens. His knowledge of the soil and its capabilities will be given honestly and fairly, and cannot fail to produce beneficial effect. No immigrant can question his judgment or experience; and no matter what locality the inquirer is after in the the valley, Mr. Savage can post him fully. The appointment of Mr. Savage meets general approbation.

LET THEM ALONE.—There is much complaint from residents of the city who have an eye for decoration. They have set out ornamental trees, shrubs and roses in front of their residences and have found them wantonly destroyed by passers-by. Walnut trees growing nicely are made the victims of the young man's pocket knife; rose bushes are shorn of their blooms by members of both sexes, whose ideas cannot be the admiration of flowers or they would respect their ownership. This spirit of destruction, which is largely thoughtless, has discouraged some of our most tastey decorators, and if it is not discontinued the city authorities will be requested to take the matter in hand and have the offenders punished. While there is no city ordinance directly covering this particular offense, there is a general law which fits the case exactly and individuals would be wise to exercise respect for other folks' improvements.

FINE ENTERTAINMENT.—Fowler's Tableau d'Art company appeared before a good audience last night at Reed's opera house, and succeeded in entertaining the crowd to its full satisfaction. The musical performances were fine, Miss Lawrence, on the Xylophone, captivating all present. Miss Jehu, as a reader, is excellent and Miss Roma is one of the best singers that has appeared before a Salem audience. There was the utmost pleasure to those in attendance and the company created great popularity. Messrs. Guy Hirsch and Hal Patton, who brought the company here, deserve credit for their judgment and good management.

CANVASS OPENING.—Governor Sylvester Pennoyer and State Treasurer Geo. W. Webb, started out this morning to open the political campaign from a democratic standpoint. Their first appointment is at Mo'alla corners this afternoon, and some uncharitable wretch on the depot platform suggested that they made their appointment so they could first practice their speeches on the trees in that neighborhood. Governor Pennoyer expressed absolute confidence in his election and another uncharitable fellow was heard to soliloquize: "What a rude awakening there will be with that good man on June 3rd!"

NEW FREIGHT DEPOT.—The vacation of the alley through block 46 removes the only obstruction claimed by the Southern Pacific Railway company to have existed as a preventative against the building of a good and sufficient freight depot. In conversation with an official of the road to-day, a JOURNAL representative learned that the probabilities are largely in our favor for the immediate commencement of the work, and when the company once undertakes it, the building will be a good one—such as will be commensurate with the immense freight business done at this city.

AN EPIDEMIC.—The real estate fever is growing into an epidemic in Salem. So many people making a "good thing" off a little investment naturally sets their neighbors to thinking, and the result is every man who can furnish the cash will have some Salem dirt. It takes money to buy the stuff and will soon take more.

WARRANTED.—Smith & Angell's fast black hosiery is warranted by Bridges & Rezorth, agents. tf.

FOR SALEM.

The Board of Trade Sends a First-Class Man to Work at Portland.

"Your business will be to look after Salem interests exclusively to the best of your ability," said President Wright to Alfred Savage, as he handed him his commission to go to the great centers of immigration, as Portland, and labor to secure a share of the inflowing tide for the Capital city.

"That expresses the sentiment of the people of Salem" says a prominent real estate man, commenting on the instructions given Mr. Savage. A man who has been a dealer in agricultural implements and a prominent politician can direct people here, where they naturally and easily come anyhow, in large numbers. Mr. Savage is a man of pleasing address and there are more gentlemen of the same kind of talent here who will look after the land seekers when they arrive.

Mr. Savage is a man who has faith in Oregon, and who has traveled all over the United States and knows what he is talking about. He was East last year and has spent a good deal of his time in Portland, knows the depots and hotels well and thoroughly understands his business. He is the man for the place, has a splendid equipment for his duties and Salem expects him to perform them well.

IN A NEW PLACE.—John A. Rotan, the furniture dealer and undertaker, has to-day the largest part of his big stock removed to the south room of the building recently vacated by J. C. Brown & Co. near Bush's bank. Mr. Rotan has a fine selection of articles need d to form a home and sells them at such prices as will save money to all who think they can do better in the large cities. Just look over his store and you will find him ready to meet all your wants, in kinds and prices.

ON THE MEND.—Gen. John Miller has a force of carpenters at work remodeling his large barn on the rear of the postoffice lot. He is also making room to erect a two-story brick building at the back of the postoffice to accommodate the demand for more buildings which is so rapidly growing in the capital city.

QUESTION.—Did you know that Mrs. Scott-Siddons, the greatest female elocutionist in the world, is to give her entertainment at Reed's opera house to-night, commencing at a quarter past eight? It is and you would better secure your tickets at once at Dearborn's book store.

SOLID SALEM.—What gives the United States so much confidence in Salem is the fact that its residents all believe in their own town. Every man in it either owns or expects to own a slice of real estate here. It is good property and getting better every day.

GOT OFF.—Mr. J. S. Graff, who has been employed as laundryman at the asylum, paid off the attachments of Steiner and Salem Truck & Dray Co., late last night and shipped his household goods on the early morning boat. Several merchants are short on account of the expeditious shipment.

SUPERB.—The lover of elocution in its best presentation will have a feast to-night in hearing Mrs. Scott-Siddons at Reed's opera house. Those who miss it will have something to regret. Go to Dearborn's book store and get a seat.

PROBATE COURT.—In the matter of the estate of M. G. Lane, deceased, Seth R. Hammer, administrator, petitions the court for an order to sell personal property and petition is granted.

The Court street jeweler is a practical watchmaker in a true sense of the word, having had twenty-three years continuous experience at the business.

The Sunnyside tract of farm lands was first put on the market in February last, and nearly all of the 650 acres which comprise it are sold. A few 10-acre tracts remain, and nothing more desirable to the settler of limited means is to be found around Salem. A small fruit farm in Sunnyside will soon be claimed as valuable property.

Too lovely for anything, but just the thing for you—our new style glass sets, w... mean. J. G. Wright.

The Court street jeweler is the workingman's friend, doing first class work on watches and jewelry at reasonable prices.

An investment in one of the Oregon Land Co's Highland addition lots is entirely free from risks, and will pay big interest. This favorite addition is being rapidly built up, and is destined to be the most popular residence locality in Salem. The street cars run past its doors.

J. E. Adcock, the Court street jeweler, is prepared to do any work on watches that can be done East. Corner Court and Liberty.

What a Pity

To see a woman's lovely features marred by unsightly pimples and blotches. Young woman, defective nutrition is the cause of your blemishes and the sooner you take a faithful course of Dr. Hiller's Hydrastine Restorative the sooner you will cease to be an object of pity. For sale at D. J. Fry's.

SIDDONS TO-NIGHT.—The "Colonist" Victoria, B. C., says: "Mrs. Scott-Siddons, the justly famous tragic elocutionist, in no way disappointed those who were present in the Victoria last evening to listen to her readings. Her dramatic power has lost none of its old time force, her voice retains its sweetness and adaptability to the expression of every phase of passion, and her stage presence is just as majestic as when she first astonished the world with her ability to interpret the thoughts of the greatest dramatists the world has known." At Reed's opera house to-night for the benefit of the M. E. church. Seats at Dearborn's.

The Court street jeweler makes rings to order from old gold and repairs all kinds of jewelry in neat manner.

LECTURE.—Rev. Hou... of Grace church, lectured la... and yesterday afternoon on ... croft's history, to the university students.

BROKE HIS QUEUE.—A celestial engaged in polishing the fixtures in J. C. Brown & Co's new store yesterday fell from a high step-ladder and seriously injured his leg. He is about to-day, however, but has his Q tied up.

A BLAZE.—One of the outhouses on the rear of the university campus was burned last night about 1 o'clock. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The Court street jeweler does not have fancy prices for repairing watches and jewelry. Charges only for work actually done.

BIRTHDAY.—Miss Grace Babcock entertains a party of young friends this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in honor of her ninth birthday.

The Spring Medicine.

The popularity which Hood's Sarsaparilla has gained as a spring medicine is wonderful. It possesses just those elements of health-giving, blood-purifying and appetite-restoring which everybody seems to need at this season. Do not continue in a dull, tired, unsatisfactory condition when you may be so much benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood and makes the weak strong.

The Laundry Queen

Has come, and it will put away the wash-board forever.

Housekeepers of Salem,

We invite your attention to the following interesting facts: First.—You are greatly in need of some process that will reduce the dread of washdays within the limits of your strength and time. The washboard is a "back-breaker," destructive to health, time and clothes. In principle, it is a contemptible fraud to science in cleaning clothes.

Second.—We are not bombastic in the statement that the Laundry Queen is the only washer constructed upon the correct principle known to science that will thoroughly cleanse clothes, and we are here to prove it.

Third.—We come before you knowing that if our machine fills a demand and supplies a want, will do the work and do it well, comes within a woman's strength to use it, is well made and durable, the people will buy it; otherwise they will not. Upon its merits it must stand or fail. We will meet all other processes of cleaning clothes upon the issues of drudgery, time and wear of clothes, and cordially extend to all a free and critical trial of the washer. Do not let prejudice stand in the way of reason, nor let your past failures interfere with your present and future welfare. It is of greater interest to you to accept this opportunity offered to try the Queen than it is for us to offer it. To you it is a lifetime benefit. A trial will cost you nothing.
