WILLAMETTE THE GREATEST DAIRY SECTION

A letter to the Baker City Herald shows the opinion of a stranger of our valley:

"Oregon is not excelled by any other state in the union in the quality of her dairy products and in the fine dairy cattle. It is doubtful if any other state is our equal in this respect. I regard dairying as the backbone of the state industries.

"I have just returned from a trip up the Willamette valley and I am firmly convinced that it is the greatest dairy section in the world. There is no talk of hard times up that way. The farmers are raising a bumper hay crop this year, one that far exceeds the average yield, and they are sending the hay to market in their milk cans. They realize that at the present high prices for butter, milk and cheese that they can make much more by feeding their blooded stock than by hauling or shipping to Portland.

"I believe that Oregon is destined to be the premier dairy state of the country within a very few years. We already have some of the choicest dairy cattle in the world on our breeding farms and the farmers are building up their herds every year. The quality of the butter fat produced by cows of the Beaver state is far above the average for the United States.

"Holstein, Ayrshires, Jerseys and Guernseys, the four great breeds of dairy cattle are the only kind considered by the dairyman of this state, who pays fancy prices for his dairy herd, but gets back his money with interest by the increased percentage of butter fat his cows produce.

"We now have half a dozen cow-testing associations in the valley. We organized one on this trip at Dayton, Or. I have a man continuously engaged in this work throughout the state. Milking machines are coming into more general use each year. They are considered a success wherever they have been installed."

The readers of this paper will be to be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

EASTERN OREGON MINES BOOMING

If any one thinks that the old Virtue mining district is dead, let him pay a visit there and he will find that he is mistaken and wofully so, for there are things doing that makes a payroll of many thousands of dollars monthly.

At the Virtue the lessees are working a good force of miners and the ten-stamp mill is running night and day with good results.

About two miles east of the Virtue a new ten-stamp mill and hoist is being built at the Dan mine and a force of miners are blocking out ore reserves. Manager Blackmon is impatiently awaiting the installation of the hoist so that deep sinking can go on. It will be two or three months before the mill is ready to drop her stamp, but in the meantime Manager Blackmon will be doing development work so that there will be plenty of ore to keep the mill in full operation for a long time.

Still further east of the Virtue the old White Swan is being put in shape for extensive operations in the near future. Miners are clearing out the drifts and tunnels preparatory to doing development work with the view to the sinking of a new shaft and final starting up of the mill. It is safe to say that the White Swan may yet prove to be one of the biggest gold mines in the west.

Mr. C. C. Nepple, superintendent of the Indiana Mining company, operating at old Camp Carson at the head of the Grand Ronde river, is in the city for a visit with his family. Mr. Nepple says there is considerable activity in mining circles at Camp Carson. The Indiana company has about 35 men on their payroll and the mine and mill is operating in a most satisfactory manner and with bright prospects for the future.

Other mines are being worked with developing forces and looks well.

The old Camp Carson placers are operating and with good results.

La Grande people are attempting to build a road into the camp to divert the trade from Baker City but they will hardly succeed since a good road built by the Indiana people leads to Baker City and this is the much nearer point.

MARLATTE SUGGESTED FOR SUPERINTENDENT

(Eugene Register.)

Superintendent L. R. Alderman is receiving the congratulations of his many friends on being elected to the faculty of the University of Oregon though many regret his having been taken from the superintendency of the city schools, which position he held to the absolute satisfaction of the board and every patron.

His elevation will cause a vacancy and already the board is casting about to find a worthy successor. Among those who have been under consideration are Prof. L. R. Traver of the Monmouth normal, Prof. Marlette, principal of the Salem high school, A. G. Briggs, president of the Drain normal, and several other prominent educators in the east. They will have to take action at once so as to get the new man in harness before school commences.

Over Thirty-five Years.

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's colic, Cholera and Diarrohea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United State and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

TRAINS RACING IN OREGON

(East Oregonian.)

What promises to be a unique and fascinating inter-state sport is occasionally indulged in between trains on the O. R. & N. in Oregon and on the North Bank road across the Columbia river in the state of Washington.

Racing at points where the tracks run close to the Columbia river for long distances is now indulged in by trains on the two roads, and passengers are relieved of the tedium of the journey by these exciting events.

Yesterday a most exciting race between an O. R. & N. and North Bank train took place, but the heavy nine-car train on the O. R. & N. was handicapped in the contest with the three-car train of the Washington road, and after a spurt of speed for about four miles the North Bank train gained so much on the Oregon train that nothing but the smoke encircling the foothills along the Columbia could be seen by the O. R. & N. passengers.

However, O. R. & N. trains are not so badly handicapped in going down hill toward Portland, and the North Bank trains are "given a run for their money" in that direction. Passengers now look forward to these events with much enjoyment.

"E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill. Gentlemen—In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. In the spring of 1902 I bought a bottle of Kodol and the benefit I received all the gold in Georgia could not buy. May you live long and prosper. Yours very truly, C. N. Cornell, Roddin, Ga., Aug. 27, 1906." Sold by all druggists.

Taft has been in conference with the arrangements committee for the notification ceremonies.

"I have been troubled with a terrible headache for the last ten years, the doctors could do me no good. I saw Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills advertised in the Sunday magazine, so I thought I would try a sample. I did so, and they helped me wonderfully. I had headache so badly I could hardly see to work, so I sent to the drug store and got a box. In a couple of hours I was all right. It was the first medicine to do me any good."
