LOOK HERE!

TUESDAY. We sell a Packard piano mahogany case, large size, a best style at that two; and only charge what it always sells for, and pay $100 of the price ourselves.

WEDNESDAY. We make the same offer for one day only on a Steck piano, mahogany case.

THURSDAY. The finest style of the renowned Everett piano goes at a "$100 on us" discount. Its in a walnut case.

FRIDAY. Will be a lucky day for the one that calls on that day for a Fisher piano. It is a special order for this sale.

SATURDAY. We quit losing money on introduction sales by offering a Ludwig piano. Only one piano of each make will be sold; at such a discount; but if you prefer some other style of of any one of these makes, or want some other case, you have the privilege of ordering same.

After making a rush sale of one instrument of each make a day "without profit" "to introduce it," and after Saturday Nov. 5th, we will sell at our fixed "same to all" Portland figure.

You can positively save $100 on any one of these this week, avail yourself of this opportunity by letter or 'phone if you cannot come in person. As we intend to stay permanently in Roseburg, it is very important that we secure several sales of our best instruments at once and we can easily afford to lose our profits on five of them to bring that result about at the very start off.

We want a young lady of ability and good character as a permanent assistant, as our Southern Oregon salesman J. M. Ward will be absent part of the time.
