Oregon News.

The woollen mill at Eugene is to be moved to Hood river.

Albany's population is given officially as 3528 in the city limits. There is claimed to be 2000 in the suburbs.

During the spring 36 dogs have been poisoned in Albany, the heart of the Chinese pheasant center of Oregon Many of the poisoned dogs were registered and valued highly. Efforts to apprehend the poisoners have proved fruitless.

Peter Graber, an old and respected citizen of Salem, committed suicide Friday by hanging himself in a barn. Worry over the death of his wife, which occurred four years ago, was the cause of the act.

Tells of Nevada Klondike.

Goldfield, Nevada, which with Tonapah, 27 miles north, and Bull Frog, 80 miles south, is attracting the attention of the whole country at the present time on account of the newly discovered gold mines in that section, is turning out ores of phenomenal value, according to the statement of Horace J. Pullen, a mining engineer, formerly of Roseburg, and who is in the city today. Mr. Pullen is now located at Goldfields, where he is interested in some valuable mining property.

"Some of the ores yielded by the mines range in value from $1,000 to as high as $60,000 per ton," said Mr. Pullen, speaking of Goldfields, particularly. "The higher grade ores are so rich that they are shipped to the smelter at Salt Lake by express and under heavy guard. Thousands of dollars worth of the lower grade ores are piled up on the dumps awaiting reduction by the milling process. So rich is one claim in particular that the owners had to build an 8-foot fence around it to keep the public from carrying away a fortune in samples alone. Even the fence represents a goodly sum, lumber being worth $110 per thousand at Goldfields, and an area of 3½ acres is enclosed.

"Goldfield, although only a year old, now has a population of about 13,000 people, nearly double its population last January. The railroad is being extended there from Tonapah, which is now in the third year of its existence and has a population of 6,000. Bull Frog is three months old and has a population of about 3,000 and this number is being increased daily."

Mr. Pullen advises people without capital to stay away from the new Klondike. "The opportunity for the many without money in the three great Nevada camps is past, because every available locality has been thoroughly staked out," explained Mr. Pullen. "But the man with capital has all the chances in the world. One claim near Goldfields which recently sold for $3,400, has since yielded $300,000 worth of ore."

Mr. Pullen says the reports of the recent epidemic of typhoid-pneumonia at Tonapah were greatly exaggerated. Accompanied by his wife Mr. Pullen leaves for Goldfields this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fendel Beatty, of Grangeville, Idaho, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Sutherlin, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Beatty are former residents of Oakland, Douglas county. They have been spending the winter in California.

A Soul For Women.

Upon a time it was declared
That woman had soul.
But time went on and she prepared,
To call the man a fool.

If that's the case she then announced,
Your children have no souls.
Therefore your doctrine is pronounced
A theory of fools.

If souls we have in this our time
'Tis strange we could not see,
That woman had a soul sublime
And sacred liberty.

Awake, you men of modern times,
And see what woman's done.
And hear the harmony that chimes,
With daughter and with son.

A precious boon the woman is,
A holy gift to man.
God claims them both, and they are his,
And so his works they scan.

Williams and Lauth to Hang.

SALEM, Or., April 28.—By Supreme court decisions delivered at noon today, Norman Williams, murderer of Alma Nesbitt, in Wasco county, and George Lauth, murderer of Loretta B. Jones, at Oregon City, must hang.

Williams was convicted of one of the most atrocious crimes in the history of the state, and was sentenced to death by the circuit court for Wasco county, June 1, 1904. Evidence showed that he killed Miss Alma Nesbitt and her mother, Mrs. Louisa J. Nesbitt, in a most cold-blooded and brutal manner, on his homestead ranch, about 20 miles from Hood River, on the night of March 8, 1900, for the purpose of securing possession of a homestead claim taken by Miss Nesbitt, adjoining his, and to cover up other crimes which he is alleged to have committed against the latter.

Lauth was convicted in the circuit court of Clackamas county for the murder of Loretta B. Jones in September of last year, in a fit of jealous rage because she had abandoned him.

(Lauth's victim was formerly a resident of Roseburg.)

The Property Called Health

runs down or improves, just depends on how it is cared for. It is the most valuable property we have, and should receive the most consideration. It helps you in business, helps good looks, helps make friends, helps get situations and helps you hold them, and always makes happiness. Property like this, at the first indication of being out of repair, should be looked after and a remedy applied at once. There are any number of signs that show repairs are needed. Bilious spells, indigestion dyspepsia, belching, dizziness, sick-headache, sallow complexion, pimples and liver-spots on the face, a drowsy feeling after meals, sour stomach, etc. These symptoms all show loss of health.
