GENERAL NEWS.

The tongues of railroad station agents in Missouri may be loosened if a bill introduced in the state legislature by Representative Floyd Tuggle is passed. The bill provides a fine of $25 to $50 for any agent who refuses to answer any questions put by travelers. Mr. Tuggle said years of rebuffs by country agents of whom he had inquired if the trains were on time, but aroused in him a burning longing to get back at the "sphinx behind the window."

Helen F. James was granted a divorce from Jesse F. James, son of Jesse James, the famous bandit, in the Circuit Court in Kansas City, Mo., Wednesday. James made no effort to contest the suit. Mrs. James was given the custody of four children and $100 a month alimony. Mrs. James testified that she and her husband had separated three times since their marriage 11 years ago. She said the last separation had lasted six months and that it was impossible for them to be reconciled.

Thomas Frank Healy, for 17 years an inmate of the Government hospital for the insane at Washington, D. C., is heir to $200,000 left him by his brother, he may never be able to use any of it. The probate court was informed that when the news of his brother's death was imparted to Healy he gave no sign of understanding the message.

Isaac Nevins, a rancher of Goleta, Calif., hovers between life and death as a result of a sting by a common yellow-jacket. Its stinger pierced a vein of his ear and the result was soon apparent in the action of his heart. A local physician was called and worked with the man for hours before he recovered consciousness.

For three hours a handful of insurrectos—18 men—held at bay a force of Mexican government troops, numbering 175, on the bank of the Rio Grande, opposite Comstock, Tex., Thursday. The revolutionists were surprised by the government force but they immediately occupied a strategic position in the trail and coolly poured a deadly fire into the enemy. The total dead in the engagement, which continued hotly until darkness fell, was 20, of which two were of the valiant band of rebels. Twice the government force, comprising 75 rurales and 100 regular infantrymen, charged the insurrectos, but the latter, drawn up in the craigs, fired so frequently and so accurately that the government soldiers were forced to retreat.

Solves a Deep Mystery.

"I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart," wrote C. B. Rader, of Lewisburg, W. Va., "for the wonderful benefit I got from Electric Bitters, in curing me of both a severe case of stomach trouble and of rheumatism, from which I had been an almost helpless sufferer for ten years. It suited my case as though just made for me." For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters has no equal. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50c at all druggists.

Booster Chapman Asks Legislature to Equip Exhibit Cars for Eastern States.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 12.—C. C. Chapman, manager of the Portland Commercial Club, was at the Capitol today conferring with Governor West and the legislators in regard to bills which he believes will result in materially aiding the interests of Oregon.

Among these is a bill to establish a statistical bureau; a bill providing for the publication of a state pamphlet; a bill providing for the equipment of two exhibition cars, and a bill creating an immigration bureau.

All of these are measures which the Oregon Development League favors, and considerable pressure will probably be brought to bear in an effort to secure their passage. Appropriations will be necessary for the first three bills suggested, but it is believed in relation to the third that funds for the creation of the bureau may be secured from business men and that its work may be carried on in this manner.

Mr. Chapman is urging the use of the exhibition cars, and if appropriations can be secured for their equipment they will be sent through the Middle Western and Eastern states and also touch at various state fairs, land shows and apple shows, where thousands of people may inspect them.

Foley's Kidney Pills.

Are tonic in action, quick in results. A special medicine for all kidney and bladder disorders. Mary C. Abbott, Wolfeboro, N. H., says: "I was afflicted with a bad case of rheumatism, due to uric acid that my kidneys had failed to clear out of my blood. I was so lame in my feet, joints and back that it was an agony for me to step. I used Foley's Kidney Pills for three days when I was able to get up and move about and the pains were all gone. This great change in condition I owe to Foley's Kidney Pills, and recommend them to anyone suffering as I have." Marsters Drug Co.

LEON L. VIAL'S WIFE SUES HIM FOR DIVORCE.

Former Roseburg Man Alleged to Have Driven Spouse Into Street in Night Clothing.

PORTLAND, Or., Jan. 12.—Leon L. Vial, a wealthy restaurant manager of this city, is being sued for divorce by Anna H. Vial. Although they have been married only 1 year, she alleges he has pointed a revolver at her and threatened to kill her and that while they were in Tacoma he roused her in the middle of the night, abused her and finally drove her out of the house in her night clothing. She says he would not permit her to return and that she fled to her parents' house, where he followed, kicking and cuffing her.

Mrs. Vial says her husband is rich and owns a quarter interest in the northeast corner at Sixth and Washington streets, valued at $450,000. She also lists other property which she says he owns.

Mr. and Mrs. Vial were married in Tacoma, December 29, 1909. She says his alleged cruel treatment began soon afterwards and continued up to until a few days ago when she says she had to leave him in fear of her life.

Mrs. Vial says she is without means to prosecute her divorce suit and asks the court to award her $2000 attorney's fees and $150 a month temporary alimony. She says Vial has an income of at least $320 a month.

Vial is a well known former resident of Roseburg. The woman who is suing him for divorce is his second wife. His first wife was Adeo Blakeley Vial, the estimable young lady who was drowned at Winchester last May. He served a term in the penitentiary for shooting Mrs. L. G. Dumbleton at Winchester. Booze and bulldogs occupied most of his time and he was so irresponsible that a guardian was appointed over him to prevent the dissipation of his estate in the city of Portland.
