COMMISSION HOLD UP NEW FREIGHT RATE ON HOPS.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—An advance of 25 cents a hundred pounds for the transportation of hops in bales from the North Pacific Coast terminals to Atlantic seaboard points proposed by the transcontinental railroads, was suspended today by the Interstate Commerce Commission until November 9. The suspension affects an immense traffic.

At present the general Pacific Northwest rate to Atlantic seaboard is $1.50 a hundred. If the increase were permitted, the rate would become $1.75 a hundred, which Coast producers believe would seriously affect their market in years when the price is low.

There should be a law passed making it a misdemeanor or crime for a Presidential candidate to carry engraved adjectives, remarks the Eugene Guard.

THE REVIEW GIVES ALL THE NEWS.

The Sacheen Sun says kindly says:

"The Roseburg Daily Review is giving Sacheen more favorable mention in its columns than all the other county papers combined. For some time past it has devoted nearly a half column each week to development work and other matters of interest in Sacheen. Other towns in the county are also being treated most liberally by the Review, which cannot be accused of the narrow policy followed by many of the local papers. The Review believes in giving the news from all the towns in this county and for this reason it is recognized as the leading paper and it is making splendid gains in its circulation. If it's anything worth while you'll see it in the Review."

A WOMAN'S WISDOM.

The worried mother wakes up to hear her baby's heavy breathing—a little cough—perhaps the croup or whooping cough. She does not want to send for the doctor when perhaps the trouble does not amount to much. Finally she thinks of that medical book her father gave her, The Common Sense Medical Adviser, by R. V. Pierce, M. D. She says "just the thing to find out what is the matter with the little dear." Two million households in this country own one—and it's to be had for only $1a. in stamps—1,000 pages in splendid cloth binding. A good family adviser in any emergency. It is for either sex. This is what many women write Dr. Pierce—in respect to his "Favorite Prescription," a remedy which has made thousands of melancholy and miserable women cheerful and happy, by curing the painful womanly diseases which undermine a woman's health and strength.

Mrs. Zimmer and Baby.

"My desire is to write a few lines to let you know what your valuable medicine has done for me," writes Mrs. MARGARET ZIMMER, of 221 S. Bentalou Street, Baltimore, Md. "Before the stork came to our home I was a very sick woman. I wrote you for advice which was kindly given and which made me a different woman in a short time. After taking the first bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' I began improving so that I hardly knew I was in such a condition. I did my own housework—washing and ironing, cooking, sewing, and the care of all around three children who had whooping cough. I hardly knew of the absence my minutes before—so easy was it. The baby is as fat as a butter ball. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine for any woman to take when in this condition. I recommend it to all my friends."

CONVENTION HAPPENINGS.

BRYAN IS APPLAUDED.

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago, June 20.—Exactly four minutes was the duration of the opening session of the third day's session of the Republican National convention. The immense crowd, nearly 15,000 persons, who had fought their way into the hall after an hour or more in line, had only to go out again.

The only business was the prayer and the motion of Watson, of Indiana, to be in session until 4 p. m.

The immediate reason for the recess was the fact that the credentials committee, at work upon the contests affecting the personnel of the convention, had only barely begun its work.

James E. Watson, of Indiana, floor leader for the Taft forces in the convention, announced at 2 p. m. that the credentials committee would not be ready to report at 4 o'clock, and that when the convention reassembled at that hour it would be only to adjourn until tomorrow.

Believing so a report that Colonel Roosevelt would appear at the convention at 4 o'clock and attempt to address the delegates, Mr. Watson said that if the Colonel did appear he would be given an opportunity to speak and the convention would adjourn immediately thereafter.

Harry S. New expressed the belief this afternoon that the convention would be unable to finish its work this week and would have to adjourn over Sunday.

"We will stay with President Taft," said Senator Penrose, when told rumor of rumors that the President would get out of the way to permit the nomination of another candidate.

"So far," the speaker continued, "he is the strongest man suggested, and certainly there can be no reason for dropping him until after the roll call shall have demonstrated the contrary."

This opinion was a fairly accurate reflection of the most "stalwart" leaders.

Some, however, hold the view that in case of the nominating of Colonel Roosevelt by a rolling convention, some candidate other than Taft might more effectively hold the radical wing of the party in hand.

The names of Hadley, Hughes, Cummins and La Follette were canvassed in possible combines.

The only welcoming applause this morning was for William Jennings Bryan, who is reporting the convention for a number of newspapers.

As Mr. Bryan moved to his seat in the press section of the platform, several persons in the gallery cried: "Speech, speech."

Mr. Bryan smiled.

After the noon adjournment Mr. Bryan held an informal reception over the rail of the press section.

Scarcely any notice was taken of the arrival of Chairman Hull, who stood for a moment the target for a battery of photographers.

The game fell a few minutes after noon. The crowd became quite unruly. Yesterday it took 15 minutes to secure order. Rev. Dean Walter Sumner of the Cathedral St. Peter and St. Paul, offered prayer. There was applause at the conclusion of the prayer.

Floor Leader Watson, of the Taft forces, secured recognition immediately. He explained that the credentials committee was not ready to report and moved that a recess be taken until 4 o'clock. The motion prevailed without objection and the thousands who still were perspiring from the exertion required to get in at once began to scramble to get out.

When the convention took its recess the report was current everywhere about the coliseum that Colonel Roosevelt would come to the convention at 4 o'clock and make or try to make a speech. Nobody really knew whether it was true, but it added to the excitement.

Hundreds of people sat down in the hall to wait until 4 p. m.

People waited in a long line to shake hands with Mr. Bryan, who arose his umbrella for anybody who requested it.

At 3 o'clock it began to shower. Rain came through the skylights and west windows. Umbrellas were open all over the hall.

When the doors of the coliseum were again thrown open at 3 p. m. with still two hours to spare before the panel should fall, the people began to pour in capable of seat 1000 more than for their seats at all. No man or woman who went through this struggle for admission this morning could face without a pang the prospect of repeating it in the same day. So there was a good deal of sadness all through the long wait to hear the band. When, in the lull that lay between the last flags on the north wall, entranced the crowd with popular music.

The heat and humidity of the hot afternoon after hour and hour began to take their toll. This for the first time gave the convention an earthly coolness, contrasting most favorably with the smothering humidity of the last few days of Republican conventions held four years ago. To the affection were in the end not unmixed a considerable.

A Remedy No Family Should Do Without

No matter how healthy a human being may be, it is safe to say that not many months are passed without some obstruction of the bowels, in other words, constipation, even if only temporary. The morning, the dull feeling may start after the evening meal. If a laxative is not taken that night, it is certain that sleep will not be sound, and you will awaken unrefreshed.

Hence, it is important for you and for all the members of your family that a good, reliable laxative be always kept in the house for just such emergencies. It is sure to be needed, and when needed you want it at hand. No family that is careful of its health can do without such a remedy. But the question of which remedy to have on hand is also of vast importance.

The laxative most highly recommended by the majority of intelligent Americans as being best for habits and drawings is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a liquid laxative-tonic, mild and never griping, is effective on constipation and can be given with safety to an infant. Children like it because of its gentle qualities and because it is pleasant to the taste.

It is the best all-around remedy you can have in the house for any disorder of the stomach, liver and bowels, and many people like Mr. W. J. Wigner, Alma, Colo., and Mrs. Albert E. Guest, Mason, Conn., say they would as soon be without the necessities as without Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC TO BUILD COOS TO EUREKA

Supplementary Articles of Incorporation Filed—Will Be Part of Through Line.

By the filing of supplementary articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State at Salem on June 14, the plans of the Willamette Pacific Railroad Co., under which name the Southern Pacific Company is building the Eugene-Coos Bay branch to extend the line southerly to Eureka, Cal., were revealed. The original articles of incorporation of the company called for the construction of a line from Eugene to a point near the mouth of the Siuslaw River and thence to Marshfield, but the supplementary articles announce the company to build down the coast to the California city. At that point the line will connect with a road already built by the Southern Pacific Company up the California coast from San Francisco, making another through line between Portland and San Francisco by way of Eugene and Coos Bay. In the supplementary articles filed at Salem the distance between Eugene and Eureka is given as 312 miles.

While there is no information at hand from the officials of the Southern Pacific Company it is understood by the intention to extend the road on down the coast as soon as it is built between Eugene and Marshfield. It has been known that for two or three years past the Southern Pacific Company has had crews of surveyors on the coast between Eugene and Coos Bay and it is believed that by this time a good route for the proposed road has been viewed out and surveyed. Right of way men are said to have been working south of Coos Bay ever since the Southern Pacific Company announced the Eugene-Marshfield line.
