Play More This Fall But Pay Less

I wonder where the idea ever started that November was a bleak, cheerless time. As a matter of fact it is a splendid month to enjoy out-of-door life as there is none of the enervating heat of summer, or the biting cold of later months.

But one must have the right clothes for hikes thru crackling leaves or walks in the rain. Not expensive clothes, but warm, comfortable and—thank goodness—mudish togs. Drop in to our store some afternoon soon, and see how very, very little they cost.

Let's make this an out-of-doors Fall and Winter. It will be a much healthier and happier one if you do.

MAKING A SURVEY

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

PENDLETON, Ore., Nov. 16.—W. G. Ide, of the Portland Chamber of Commerce and C. C. Gignoux, assistant supervisor of agriculture for the Union Pacific, are in the Stanfield district today obtaining information on the utilization of McKay irrigation waters. The work is being done for Dr. Elwood Mead of the bureau of reclamation. This request of Dr. Mead's follows conferences with Senator Frederick Steiwer and Congressman N. J. Sinnott urging a definite plan for development of irrigation in the west end of Umatilla county.

In the name of the state of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of plaintiff filed against you in the above entitled court and cause on or before four weeks from the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint, plaintiff for want thereof will apply to the court for the relief demanded in said complaint, a succinct statement of which is as follows:

For judgment against the defendant Melrose Orchard Land Company in the sum of $3052.82 with interest on $1631.47 of said amount at six per cent per annum from April 11, 1927, and the further sum of $389.74 with interest thereon at six per cent per annum from February 16, 1926, and the further sum of $628.74 with interest thereon at six per cent per annum from September 2, 1926; and the further sum of $261.98 with interest thereon at six per cent per annum from April 4, 1927; and the further sum of $17.50; and for the further sum of $300.00 attorneys' fees or such part thereof as the court may adjudge reasonable; and for the costs and disbursements of this suit; and for a decree of this court that the mortgage given by the defendant Melrose Orchard Land Company to plaintiff on the 13th day of April, 1914, on the following described real property, to-wit:

Lots one (1), four (4), five (5), nine (9), all of lot thirty-three (33), except the north twelve (12) acres thereof, thirty-six (36), thirty-seven (37), thirty-nine (39), forty (40), forty-one (41), forty-four (44), forty-five (45), forty-six (46), forty-eight (48) to sixty-six (66), both inclusive, seventy (70), seventy-one (71), seventy-three (73), and seventy-five (75) to eighty-seven (87) both inclusive, Platted and known as "Eden Orchards" located in parts of sections 33, 34 and 35, Township 29 south of range 7 west, W. M., and in parts of sections 2, 3 and 4, township 30 south of range 7 west, W. M., in Douglas County, Oregon, is a first lien upon said premises and that the same be foreclosed and said premises sold in the manner provided by law for the sale of real property upon execution, and the proceeds applied to the payment of the costs and expenses of said sale, and of said suit including attorneys' fees, and to the payment of the amount due plaintiff upon said mortgage; and that all right, title or interest of you or either of you in or to said premises or any part thereof be decreed to be subsequent, inferior and subject to the lien of plaintiff, and that you and each of you and all the defendants in said suit be forever barred and foreclosed from all right, title and interest in and to said premises except the right of redemption provided by statute, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof for a period of once each week for four consecutive weeks in the Roseburg News-Review, a newspaper of general circulation published and issued at Roseburg, Douglas county, Oregon, by order of the Hon. J. W. Hamilton, judge of the above entitled court, made on the 13th day of October, 1927, and you are hereby required to appear and answer said complaint on or before four weeks from the date of the first publication hereof, which is the 20th day of October, 1927.
