These Awards Cost you nothing. Here is the way you can get one of these Beautiful and Luxurous Gifts

We will issue trade certificates with every purchase at our store. These certificates represent ONE VOTE for each ONE CENT of purchase and the person holding certificates representing the Largest Number of Votes at the end of the contest, will receive this beautiful instrument, Absolutely Free of Cost. The certificates are transferable and if you are not interested in securing the Grafonola yourself, you can assist a friend. Our object is to interest you in our store. We want a chance to show you that you can do better here than elsewhere. We do not expect to recover the heavy expense of this contest through a greater percentage of profit, but through the difference in volume of business—we expect the increase to more than repay us and in the future we shall endeavor to give you even more for your money than we have in the past. We solicit your patronage solely through the merits of our goods and Lower Prices.

OREGON NEWS.

A. F. Hofer, one of the most widely known publicity men in the state, member of the State Immigration Commission and for four years secretary of the Board of Trade, died in Salem Sunday. He was a brother of Col. E. Hofer, with whom he formerly owned the Salem Capital Journal.

John Osborne, a contractor, aged 45 years, living in Medford for many years, committed suicide Saturday by jumping from the roof of the Medford Hotel. Temporarily insane caused by an unprecedented drinking liquor, prompted the act. Recently an order of the County Court was issued upon the request of relatives and friends of the dead man asking that he be committed for the use of liquor. This proved to be his ruin and coupled with other worries brought him to an irresponsible condition.

Kate O'Connor of Marshfield, a junior student in the University of Oregon, Willamette University and Oregon Agricultural College, was drowned Friday afternoon in the Mary's River.

The 50th anniversary celebration of the Grand Army of the Republic, department of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, will be held in Portland August 5, 6, 7 and 8. Elaborate preparations are being made for the reception of veterans from all parts of the country. The Oregon Journal of Commerce says: Portland will be the home for the reception of veterans of the Civil War and will close its doors to the veterans of the Civil War will be given food and shelter while in the camp. Those who prefer will be comfortable as they earned their right to be in the camp. The camp will be located on the Multnomah Field, and will close July 31. Arrangements are being made for the reception of
