HUN PROPAGANDA NOT ENDED

America will be given time now on with literature denying German outrages in the war. In fact, wartime has already been passed from Washington that societies are being formed for the extension of such propaganda, so the Salem Journal declares.

It was inevitable that Germans as well as the pro-German element in this country should take this course in the hope of influencing public opinion favorably.

We have, unfortunately for Germany, too great a cloud of reliable witnesses against her. Brand Whitlock, for example, and the various representatives of the Red Cross in France and Belgium, while of authentic testimony there are volumes.

Germany can neither palliate nor deny her bloody crimes. The fact that she can hope in that the fault will not be paid.

There should be no weakening in any respect of the just horror with which she is regarded. The conclusion of an armistice or peace cannot alter the facts, and should in no way influence the cool judgment of the world against which Germany has so grevously sinned, and to which she must make what recompense she can.

CANAL VALLEY YOUNG MAN DIED IN PORTLAND.

Walter Amstein, of Canal Valley, died of pneumonia, resulting from influenza, at the Multnomah general in Portland after an illness of only a few days. He was 21 years old and was employed in the Portland shipyards. He leaves five sisters and two brothers to mourn his loss. They are: Mrs. Mabel Casey, of Milton, Wash.; Mrs. Clara Sifer and Miss Anna Clark, of San Francisco; Mrs. Helen Woodfield and Miss Grace Amstein, of Roseburg. One brother who resides on the Amstein homestead in Canal Valley, and George Amstein, who was until recently employed in the Portland shipyards but is now ill with the influenza at the Multnomah hospital. He is thought to be seriously ill.

Walter's death is the fifth one in the Amstein family. Mr. Amstein, senior and Nellie, who died several years ago, and Mrs. Amstein, who died five years ago.

The body was brought to Roseburg and from there taken to Canal Valley, where it was laid to rest beside the other dear ones who have passed on before.

Walter Amstein is the first Canal Valley resident that influenza has claimed as its victim, and the bereaved family has the unique sympathy of their many friends.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist cemetery at Canal Valley, Monday, Nov. 11, at 2 p. m. The Reinhart minister of Roseburg conducted the services. X.

GIRLS! HAVE WAVY, THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Save Your Hair! Double Its Beauty In a Few Moments—Try This!

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and luxurious, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair; besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff, you cannot have nice, fluffy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive germ robs the hair of its luster, its strength and in very time, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, weaken and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, parched or too oily, get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents; apply a little as directed and few minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must get Knowlton's Danderine. If unsatisfied—why not now? (Adv.)
