Sheriff Fires Six Aides Who Worked For His Opponent

PORTLAND, Nov. 4 — (AP)— Sheriff Martin T. Pratt today fired six deputies, including the chief of the criminal division, because, he said, they had worked for the election of his opponent.

Pratt today held a lead of 57,032 to 52,742 over his Democratic opponent, M. L. Elliott.

The sheriff fired Holger Christoffersen, chief of the criminal division since 1917; Office Manager W. S. Whiting, Capt. M. L. Tillman, Capt. J. E. Stanley, Deputy J. D. McMillan, and Assistant Jailer Paul Hinkley.

Pratt asserted that the men had violated the Civil Service regulations by working for the election of Elliott.

All six immediately denied the charge, and said they would demand a hearing before the Civil Service Commission. The commission is authorized under law to hear such cases.

About 12 per cent of the 250,000 cases of total blindness in the U. S. are due to the eye disease glaucoma.

For either a period or modern decor, several of these sofa pillows will delight the heart of someone on your gift list.

Made extra mild or rich and strong,
The flavor's right...you can't go wrong

1. Each year we search the world to find the finest crops for M.J.B's richer blend. On each plantation, coffee quality varies from season to season—but only the top crops come to M.J.B.

2. "Individual roasting" coaxes out all the secret goodness locked in every bean of M.J.B's top-of-the-crop coffees. (These subtle flavors are lost by ordinary roasting methods.)

3. Highest-vacuum pack seals in every whiff of M.J.B's fragrant goodness till it reaches your cup. Try M.J.B today and you'll agree—you can't make a bad cup of M.J.B.
