Mail Order Wife Becoming Popular

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 10.—Hundreds of men are picking their wives from mail order catalogues, it was revealed here today.

Love brokers, the fat and be-whiskered aids to Gentle Cupid, reap harvests in bringing lonesome folks together through matrimonial agencies.

Many persons who feel the cosmic urge and desire to trip to the altar without going through the preliminaries of courtship, just refer their case to a love broker in a cold and businesslike manner.

It is then up to the broker to find the specified mate. He usually does, too, because in case of failure no commission is forthcoming.

Love brokers charge all the traffic will bear. Twenty-five dollars from each person is the minimum fee, however.

The above information was revealed to the United Press by R. W. Stanley, social investigator.

Stanley said laws aimed at love brokers have had little effect in stopping the business of substituting mail order catalogues for Cupid's darts.

Most brokers, he said, now carry their offices under their hats.

"I found in my investigation, however, many still doing business at the same old stands," he said. "I walked into one office and confided that I was looking for a wife. The broker eagerly plunged his hands into drawer full of photographs and inquired: "'What will you have; a blonde or a brunette?'"

Save the Babies, Is Plea Made

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—(United Press).—Seventy thousand babies in this country and 5000 in New York City died needlessly in 1920 before the expiration of the first month of their lives, said Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, a member of the Advisory Council of the National Organization for Public Health Nursing, today. She continued:

"Public health nursing in 1919-1920 lowered the death rate of mothers at childbirth to 1.3 per thousand as against a general rate of 5.1 announced by the health department. For 4496 infants under one month receiving care under the supervision of the Maternity Center Association, the death rate was lowered to 19 per thousand as contrasted with a prevailing rate of 35 per thousand among those who had had parental care, while the rate in the city in general was 45.

In both classes the saving, due to prenatal and postnatal care, was 37 babies out of every thousand. With that same care in the country's 2,000,000 annual confinement cases, the infant saving would have been 70,000 for the United States and 5,000 for New York City.

"Experience in both Boston and New York indicates that nursing service would save annually nearly 10,000 mothers who die in this country at childbirth, a cause of death among women second only to tuberculosis."

Row Over Barred "Headlock Hold"

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Jack Curley's ban on the "headlock hold" in wrestling bouts in New York has divided the ranks of the grapplers and mat fans.

Mostly effected by the edict of the promoter who has become practically the controller of the sport in America, of course, is the heavyweight champion, Ed "Stranger" Lewis, who worked his way up by the "headlock."

Lewis claims that the prohibition of his pet hold will just about ruin him as the most lucrative matches are staged in New York and as smaller promoters in other states are following the lead of Curley in outlawing the hold.

Many fans claim the head-lock is not more punishing or brutal than the "scissors" of the former champion, Joe Stecher, or the toe hold.

Earl Cadock, judged by many fans the best of the present crop of matmen, is among the grapplers who side with Lewis and claim that the hold is not so dangerous that it should be ruled out.

Lewis is highly wrought up over Curley's action, claiming that no complaint was made about the hold until he won the title.

Curley bases his action on the grounds that the public and the press demanded a ban on the grip after Lewis had injured several opponents.

TO AID MARRIED MEN

DETROIT, Michigan, Feb. 10. (U. P.)—Starting next Monday more men will start to work at the Ford plant it was reported today. The men will replace the 10,000 men who are at work now. In two weeks, the 10,000 going to work Monday will be laid off and those whose places they take next Monday will resume work for two weeks. It is the plan of the company, it is said, to keep as many married employees at work as much of the time as possible.

TO HONOR MOTHERS

SALEM, Feb. 10—In honor of the mothers of our state and nation, Representative J. D. Lee of Multnomah today introduced a joint resolution calling upon the people of Oregon to display the nation's colors on "Mother's Day" the second Sunday in May.:

"We honor ourselves and our mothers of our homes and America as we do anything to give emphasis to the home as the fountainhead of the state," says the resolution and it asks for a general observance of the day as "an inspiration for better homes and closer ties between the home and the common wealth.

FAVORS PRUNE CONTEST

SALEM, Feb. 11—Whether or not he wishes to stage his fruit-eating contest with Governor Ben Olcott under the Marquis of Prunebery rules or desires to make the scuffle a catch na catch can session, is about the only detail overlooked by "Bill" Strandborg, of Portland, vice-president of the asociated advertising clubs of the the world in a letter sent to Mr. Olcott, in which Mr. Strandborg suggests a prune-devouring contest with the governor.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES.

M. E. Church, South. Rev. J. C. Jones, pastor.—Sunday school at 9:45, W. L. Cobb, Supt. Any present for church membership will be received at that hour. All other services will be in the revival campaign as announced at the tabernacle. Prayer meeting on Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. On next Sunday we have our second quarterly conference with W. J. Fenton, presiding elder, present. We invite you to worship with us.

* * *

Presbyterian, Jackson and Lane streets, Rev. E. W. Warrington, Minister.—Next Sunday is the closing day of the revival meetings. We have had five weeks of "mountain top" experience. Look forward to the closing day with anticipation and prayer. At 9:45 a. m., Sunday school. Be on time. It will be a short period. At 10:15 a. m. the Session will meet in the auditorium of the church. All persons planning to unite with the church on confession of faith or by letter are asked to meet the Session at this time. At 10:30 a. m., 2:30 and 7:30 p. m., the services will be held at the tabernacle and Dr. Bulgin will preach. A free will offering will be taken to compensate Dr. Bulgin for the splendid services he has rendered during these meetings. At 5 p. m. the closing young people's lunch-fellowship service will be held with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis. The kitchen and parlors of the church will be open at noon for the use of the country people who wish to have their basket dinner there.

* * *

Christian, Corner Pine and Woodward streets, Rev. C. H. Hilton, Minister—Sunday school will be held at 9:30. Communion service at 10. Baptismal services at 10:15. All those wish to unite with the church are asked to be present at 10 o'clock and an opportunity will be given. All those ready for baptism are urged to be present. Tabernacle services at 10:30, 2:30 and 7 o'clock.

* * *

Methodist Church. Guy Fitch Phelps, pastor.—The First Methodist church will have Sunday school at the usual hour, 9:45, next Sunday, followed by reception of members. There will be no 11 o'clock services, but all the churches will unite at the tabernacle, where Dr. Bulgin will speak three times. This is the closing day of the union meetings. Let everyone be there to make it a great finish. On Feb. 27th special meetings will begin in the Methodist church. Joe Ronsedy has been secured to conduct the music for two weeks. He is said to be one of the very best singers and chorus leaders in America, and the Methodist church is very fortunate in securing him at this time. Mr. Phelps will do the speaking for the two weeks. Let all the members of the church and all those friendly to the work plan to have a part in these special meetings. A special invitation is extended to the other religious bodies to participate as far as possible. Immediately after the close of Dr. Bulgin's meetings the Methodist church will perfect some special organizations and committees looking to the preservation of the fine spirit of religious interest and community fellowship which has been created. The basement of the church is to be arranged for young people's affairs and a Methodist open forum, where there will be debates between different bodies of young people, as may be arranged for, and other such discussions as have to do with things interesting to all. Put the church where heaven put it, first.

NO WORK IN PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Feb. 11—A warning to unemployed men throughout Oregon not to come to Portland seeking jobs was sent broadcast throughout the state today by the publicity bureau of the American Legion's unemployment commission.

News stories of the situation here were dispatched to 175 daily and weekly newspapers throughout the state and contiguous parts of Washington and Idaho are to be similarly "covered" by the publicity bureau.

"It is expected that the situation in Portland will improve within 30 days" the information supplied the country press says in part. "Right now, however, things are at a most serious stage, and there is absolutely no work for the outsider. Every job is taken and there is a surplus of 2500 men, fully half of whom are without funds."

Movie Closeups

William Gillette's famous farce, "Too Much Johnson," has reached the screen and will be seen at the Antlers theatre tonight with Bryant Washburn in the stellar role. The play was originally produced some twenty-five years ago with Mr. Gillette playing the lead and was hailed as the best American farce of the day. It is said to be even more entertaining as a motion picture.

The hero is Augustus Billings, who has a fondness for yachting, a pretty wife and an irascible mother in law. The first named failing leads him to accept the invitation of a flirtatious dowager to accompany her on a yacht party to Mexico. The mother in law gets on his trail. Complications over a mix-up in names, a jealous husband, and other mirth provoking details involves Billings into a mess out of which he extricates himself by a pretty trick.

Lois Wilson is again Mr. Washburn's leading woman and the supporting cast includes Adele Farrington, and Monte Blue and C. H. Geldart. The picture, which is a Paramount Artcraft was directed by Donald Crisp.
