Improving Dodge Canyon Road

County Roadmaster Floyd Frear has just returned from the Dodge canyon vicinity where considerable road work is to be done with the bond money apportioned to the district from a former issue. A 5 percent grade from the top of Marvin hill into the canyon is to be laid out while a 5 percent grade will also replace the road into Green valley. A bad hill in Dodge canyon will also be eliminated. The crews are starting work at once. The residents of the district are arranging for the purchase of the bonds.

GLENDALE NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Simmons are spending a month at Los Angeles.

The home talent play, "From Sumpter to Appomattox" the fourth in a series of plays for our memorial fund was successfully presented at our auditorium last Friday and proved to be the most successful of all. It was carefully staged and had several new features that increased the interest and was duly appreciated by the large audience present. It was a success, both socially and financially, and again we note the co-operative spirit of all our people in this beautiful tribute to our heroes whose names are to be inscribed on the monument. It will be in our cemetery on Memorial day and will be celebrated by loyal and appreciative citizens, who may, also join with us from all parts of our state.

W. T. Smith and family who have spent some time in Josephine county visiting, are at home again.

Mrs. J. H. Stewart of this city was looking after her property in Central Point last week.

F. C. McGregor, of Granada, Cal., came over and sold his fine ranch north of this city last week.

C. B. Howard, of Yreka, Calif., has taken possession of his new home, yet, it is with regret that we realize that Mr. and Mrs. McGregor are leaving our locality for a new home. We extend a welcome to the new owner.

A number of our residents were in Roseburg last week, some of them visiting friends and relatives and some of them attending to business matters.

A very rainy Sunday is followed by a pleasant Monday. Much activity is in evidence today, and rumors of a resume of mill work is in circulation.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Garrett will leave about June 1st for an extended eastern visit. We will miss them, but hope they will not stay away too long.

Miss Jack Plotner, who spent the winter at Los Angeles and Oakland Calif., returned to the place of her nativity last week and we are all very much pleased to welcome her home. She will reside with her aunt Mrs. Dewey, at the Fortune farm.

All of our business houses are busy and all carry large stocks of goods in their respective lines.

Glendale is losing several of its leading people, and we shall miss them. F. C. Ladd is leaving today. Mrs. Hickock and little son will go to their new home at Lafayette next week; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Morgan, and son and daughter will go about May 15th, when the splendid faculty of our schools will leave on their annual vacation and many of them may not return to our city. Yet, we are having new arrivals every day and we are pleased to welcome them to homes in our city.

Levi Wood, who has spent the past winter in Harney Valley will return to his fine ranch near Fernvale in the immediate future.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Perkins and family attended the home talent play last Friday, and visited with relatives in this city over Sunday. They report peace and plenty at their home on Coyote Creek.

Mr. Neise Thompson left for Doris, Calif., last Sunday, where he will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Baseel are improving their residence and grounds on 3rd street and Gilbertson Ave.

Hotel Eldon is a very pupular hotel and is enjoying a very liberal patronage.

The Glendale Laundry is doing an excellent business and turns out excellent work. X X
