Canyonville Organizations Plan Centennial Celebration Events

By VIRGINIA PROCTOR

At a recent meeting of the Canyonville J. C. Jills, preliminary plans were made to sponsor children's contests and games at the Canyonville Centennial celebration to be held Aug. 9 and 10. The group also planned their parade entry.

In other business, the J. C. Jills made arrangements to place a large trash receptical outside Canyonville High School. Mrs. Blake Hardy was hostess at the meeting.

Breakfast Planned

An old-time pancake breakfast to be held from 7 to 9 a.m. Aug. 10, Canyonville Centennial Sunday, was planned at the last meeting of the Wesleyan Guild of the Methodist Church held at the home of Mrs. Norman Graham.

Canyonville volunteer firemen are sending a letter to each organization in the area inviting participation in the Canyonville Centennial parade.

Plans to sponsor one or two bowling teams were also discussed at the recent meeting. Instruction on the operation of the pumper was given to members of Ed Oaks.

People Injured

Injuries and operations have taken their toll of Canyonville residents recently.

Mrs. William Preston entered St. Vincent's hospital in Portland for surgery; Mrs. Carl Moodie and Mrs. Gordon Harry are both convalescing at home following surgery at Mercy Hospital, Roseburg and Forest Glen hospital in Canyonville respectively. Mrs. Harry's mother, Mrs. Hoffbuhr of Medford, is caring for her daughter during her convalescence.

Mrs. George Sears is still confined to Myrtle Creek Hospital following an accident at home which resulted in a broken knee cap. Mike Rasmussen is back in school after having broken his arm in an accident near his home.

Young Man Kills Self In Front Of Girl Friend

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A 23-year-old man shot himself fatally Friday on a downtown sidewalk in view of the 19-year-old girl who stopped him from leaping from a hotel roof a month ago.

Theater cashier Bonnie La Ross, whom he had unsuccessfully tried to date, saw Delmer Dobbs standing in front of a department store across the street from her ticket window on Broadway near 8th St. He had a pistol in his hand.

She called the theater manager, who called police. Meanwhile, traffic officer Joseph F. Scanlon approached him.

"If you come any closer, I'll shoot you," Dobbs yelled.

Afternoon shoppers scattered. Then, as other police converged, Dobbs shot himself in the abdomen. He died in General Hospital.

On Jan. 22 Dobbs had stood on a 12-story hotel roof for more than two hours while a jeering crowd below dared him to jump. Miss La Ross pleaded with him for an hour not to jump. Finally she grabbed him, and two detectives hauled both to safety.

Dobbs then was held two days in General Hospital's psychopathic ward.

Weinberger Baby Killer Wins Stay Of Execution

NEW YORK (AP) — Angelo LaMarca who was scheduled for electrocution next Thursday for the kidnap-murder of baby Peter Weinberger, has won his fifth stay of execution.

In granting an indefinite stay Friday Federal Judge Edward J. Dimock said he was giving LaMarca's lawyers a chance to test in the courts a constitutional issue.

La Marca has contended that his constitutional rights were violated because the Nassau County trial judge denied a change of venue. Widespread publicity, LaMarca said, made a fair trial impossible in the county.

Dimock asked for prompt action by state courts in reviewing LaMarca's latest plea.

Langley To Run Again For Multnomah Co. DA

PORTLAND (AP) — William M. Langley said Thursday he will seek election as district attorney of Multnomah County — the job from which he was ousted after being found guilty of failure to prosecute gambling.

The former district attorney has appealed the May, 1957, circuit court conviction, in the first major trial stemming from Portland's year-long vice investigation.

Langley, a Democrat, said he "definitely will file" for the Democratic nomination for the office. The primary election will be May 16.

Holmes Blames Parents, Teachers For Courses Lag

PORTLAND (AP) — Parents and teachers must share the blame for the disappearance of vital courses from the nation's schools, Gov. Holmes said Friday.

"It is easy," he told an Oregon Education Assn. conference, "to put the blame on educators for the fact that foreign languages have almost entirely disappeared as subjects in our high school curriculum.

"We have too often substituted something called general science for physics and chemistry. We don't require enough mathematics."

Parents, he continued, are to be blamed for not insisting that broader language, science and mathematics courses be taught. And, he added:

"Some of the very people who now cry in anguish against the schools have been the very ones to cheer at football games and neglect to be present when Phi Beta Kappa pins are passed out."

Holmes called on educators to "evolve a sober concept of the purpose of education." He said piecemeal reforms would lack permanence and vitality.

Washington's Birthday Bargain Day In Capital

WASHINGTON (AP) — This is the one place where you won't find anyone who doesn't know that Feb 22 is George Washington's birthday.

Washingtonians look forward to this date because it's a time when they can hunt through stores for 99 cent sewing machines, 77 cent television sets and 22 cent typewriters.

Of course, there are the usual speeches, wreath layings and recitations to mark the anniversary of Washington's birth in 1732.

But to people hereabouts the Big Event has come to be the Washington Birthday sales. Some folks pitch camp in front of stores long before the 8 a.m. sendoff signal.

Besides goodies to be picked up for pennies customers seek late model used cars for $29 and pastel mink coats at $59.

If the going gets a little rough, there's always a 5 cent beer to be had for a refresher.

PLAIN TRUTH

By Glen W. Lundy: Gospel Evangelist

As the sincere mind investigates the "Acts of the Apostles," found in the New Testament it soon becomes apparent that the command of Jesus, "Repentance and remission of sins should be preached in all the world beginning at Jerusalem," was being carried out. In Acts 2: Those who heard and believed were commanded to repent and be baptized for the remission of their sins.

We turn our attention then to further records of conversion to see if the same pattern is followed. In Acts 8: we find Philip, a disciple of Christ, traveling to Samaria. Verses 5 through 12 present the following pattern: Philip preached Jesus — the people heard — gave heed — turned from their former practices — believed the things concerning the Kingdom of God and the name of Jesus — and were baptized both men and women. Here we find the same simple pattern followed as before, they believed, repented and were baptized. Thus Philip taught and thus they believed.

There is nothing in this simple pattern, as given by God and proclaimed by Spirit inspired man, to confuse or give rise to the multitude of theories proclaimed by men today. It is only when we through willfulness or pride begin to add to what God has required or delete from the simple pattern that confusion and chaos results.

Study for yourself each incident of conversion in the New Testament and see if the same pattern is followed. Tune in KYES at 9 O'clock Lord's Day morning. Drop us a card or call OR 3-3313 if you have a question or desire to enroll in the free Bible correspondence course. Come and study where the pattern of God is held as supreme.

Benson Decides To Hold Line On Price Supports

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Benson has decided to hold the line on price support rates for four 1958 feed grain crops.

Under his flexible price support system, he could have justified a reduction in the rates.

He did not explain his decision. But it may have reflected a desire to avert a possible overexpansion in livestock production which might have followed lower feed prices.

Benson announced Friday that oats, rye, barley and sorghum grains will be supported at 70 per cent of parity, the same as last year. The dollars-and-cents rates differed a little, reflecting changes in the parity prices.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to their costs.

The actual rates will be 61 cents a bushel for oats, the same as last year; 93 cents a bushel for barley compared with 95 cents last year; $1.10 a bushel for rye compared with $1.18 last year; and $1.83 a hundred pounds for sorghum grains compared with $1.86 last year.

The 1958 rate for soybeans will be unchanged from last year's $2.09 a bushel. But the flaxseed rate will be $2.78 a bushel compared with $2.92 last year.

The rate for dry beans was put at $6.18 a hundred pounds compared with $6.31 last year. The honey rate will be 9.6 cents a pound compared with 9.7 cents in 1957.

Federal Grand Jury Indicts 4

SPOKANE (AP) — A federal grand jury Friday indicted four men for the $16,846 armed robbery of the North Richland branch of the Seattle-First National Bank on Jan. 17.

Charged with bank robbery were Alexander J. Hill, 31, Pomona, Calif.; Willie E. Hughes, 31, Chicago; Bobby E. Washington, 24, Pacoima, Calif., and Thurman L. Cheeks, 28, Dallas, Tex.

Washington, Cheeks and Hill are being held in the Yakima County jail. Hughes is undergoing treatment for tuberculosis at the McNeil Island federal prison. All are Negroes.

The four men and two women companions were arrested in Yakima a few hours after the bank holdup. All but a few dollars of the money was recovered.

Auto Makers Cut Back Production To Halt Surplus

DETROIT (AP)—The nation's auto makers, faced with growing signs of the largest stockpile of new cars in history are launching a campaign of production cutbacks to slash inventories.

An industry source says General Motors reportedly is preparing to put many of its plants on a four-day week. Ford Motor Co. is mapping week-long shutdowns — a move reported to be dictated by its union contract limiting the use of four - day work weeks. Chrysler Corp. faces much the same curtailment.

Ford announced Friday it will lay off 14,000 workers all next week at its huge River Rouge plant here and another 1,500 at its Louisville, Ky., facility in an adjustment of production schedules.

Ford also said an additional 4,000 Roughe production workers will be laid off next Thursday and Friday.

Chrysler announced it will lay off 2,000 workers at its DeSoto plant here and a like number at Kokomo, Ind., next week.

Ward's automotive reports said the stock of new cars will approach 900,000 by Feb. 28. At the prevailing selling rate, the agency said this is equal to a 69-day supply and the highest point ever reached in automotive history.

President To Fly Mamie To Arizona For Visit

It is about 730 miles from Washington to this area.

Hagerty became incensed when reporters asked "justification" for use of the President's Air Force plane to take Mrs. Eisenhower and the other two ladies to Phoenix for a vacation.

Asked whether Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Slater would be billed by the government for the plane trip, he replied:

"Of course they don't get billed. This is the President's plane and the President's guests."

Secretary Angry

Another reporter wanted to know why the President had decided to go to Phoenix instead of traveling directly back to Washington and letting his wife go on to Arizona. Clearly angry, Hagerty snapped:

"I think when the President of the United States wants to go anyplace with his wife, that is his business and nobody else's."

The reporter, Laurence Burd of the Chicago Tribune, said he thought he had a right to ask the question.

"Well, there's the answer," Hagerty retorted. "And when he (Eisenhower) has to account for that, I think you are getting a little out of bounds on your questions."

Reporter Retorts

"I don't think I am out of bounds at all," said Burd.

"I do — asking for an explanation of why the President wants to take Mrs. Eisenhower to Phoenix," Hagerty replied.

A reporter for the Washington Post and Times Herald said his paper's society staff had described the Elizabeth Arden Maine Chance Farm as a beauty resort at which visitors pay $400 and up a week "to go there and rest and be slimmed down."

"I haven't anything on that at all," Hagerty said.

He made the same reply when asked whether Mrs. Eisenhower and her friends would be the guests of the Arden establishment, or pay for their stay.

Meanwhile, the President got out quail hunting again on the last full day of his vacation as Humphrey's guest.

Code Of Ethics On Government Agencies Asked

WASHINGTON (AP) — A code of ethics for government regulatory agencies was proposed today following testimony about the use of wire-pulling in an effort to land Richard A. Mack on the Federal Communications Commission.

Jerry W. Carter, Democratic national committeeman for Florida, told a House Investigating subcommittee Friday he pulled "under cover, all the wires I could" to get Mack the job on the bipartisan commission.

Mack, an Eisenhower Democrat, was appointed to the FCC in 1955 by President Eisenhower. At the time, Mack headed the Florida Railroad and Public Utilities Commission, of which Carter is a member.

The 70-year-old Carter, a free-wheeling witness with cracker barrel wit, was asked to testify in connection with charges that undue influence was exerted on the FCC in granting a Miami TV license. The hearing was in recess until Monday.

Rep. Bennett (R-Mich) said he feels the evidence so far "has indicated a positive need for legislation which would set up a code of ethics for all regulatory agencies."

Rep John Bell Williams (D-Miss) said in a separate interview it is "pretty obvious" there is a need for either a code of ethics or legislation.

Woman Accused Of Extortion Try In Washington

SPOKANE, (AP) — A 31-year-old woman was indicted by a federal grand jury Friday on charges of using the mails in a fraudulent attempt to get $19,000 from a Gretna, La. man.

Mrs. Lynn Sharon McCommons is accused in the indictment of sending letters to George Rayner in Gretna asking the money for information on his missing son-in-law and grandson.

The son-in-law, Walter K. Hurtt Sr., 29, and his 4-year-old son, Walter Hurtt Jr., disappeared from their Gretna home last Dec. 7.

Hurtt was arrested here last week and charged with a violation of the Mann Act in allegedly transporting Mrs. McCommons from New Orleans, La. to Florida. He was later released on $2,000 bond.

Mailed Letters

The indictment charged that Mrs. McCommons mailed letters to Rayner asking that a $19,000 cashier's check be sent for deposit to a Spokane bank and advising he would learn the whereabout of Hurtt and the boy if he did so.

Rayner notified the FBI.

The secret indictment was made public after Mrs. McCommons was arrested Friday night. She was released on $1,000 bond.

The boy was with Hurtt when he was picked up and then was turned over to the custody of his mother who came here for him from Louisiana.

Carl Maxey, Hurtt's attorney here, said Mrs. Hurtt had interceded on her husband's behalf with the United States attorney in Spokane and would do so with the U.S. attorney in New Orleans.

William Bantz, U. S. attorney here, said she has started divorce proceedings against Hurtt, however in Louisiana.

SEOUL (AP) — The Military Armistice Commission will meet Monday at Panmunjom at the request of Communist North Korea, the U.N. Command said today. Presumably it will discuss the fate of 34 persons on a captured South Korean airliner.

The Communist government said Friday the two U. S. pilots and 32 passengers would be allowed to return if South Korea would negotiate for their release.

Russians Claim Rockets Can Hit Any Point On Globe

LONDON (AP) — Soviet Defense Minister Rodio Malinovsky Saturday said Soviet armed forces already are equipped with rockets of long range operational flight "capable of carrying hydrogen charges to any point on earth."

He made the statement in a speech marking the 40th anniversary of the Soviet armed forces. It was carried by Moscow Radio.

Marshal Malinovsky said tremendous Soviet achievements in industrial, scientific and technical fields made it possible to equip the armed forces with "all kinds of modern arms and military technical means."

He said these included "the atomic and hydrogen weapon, rocket technical means and complex electronic devices insuring the control of the new means of warfare."

He said Soviet land forces were capable of solving all tasks likely to confront them in war.

The Navy, he said, was capable of defending sea frontiers, destroying naval forces of the enemy on the seas and oceans "as well as dealing mighty blows against objectives situated on other continents."

Priest Charges Navy Pressured Hong Kong Firms

HONG KONG (AP) — An American priest charged Saturday that the U.S. Navy squeezed $30,000 from Hong Kong merchants to help build a football stadium at the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md.

The Rev. George N. Gilligan said pressure was applied to merchants doing business among Navy personnel.

"While churches and welfare societies are pouring hundreds of thousands of dollars into Hong Kong to feed and clothe refugees," the 58-year-old Roman Catholic priest said, "the United States Navy takes thousands out to build a football stadium for the wealthiest nation in the world."

Father Gilligan, director of an interdenominational organization which helps servicemen in Hong Kong, said he has complained to Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York and Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine).

Navy officials confirmed that funds were raised for a Navy and Marine memorial stadium at Annapolis but denied applying pressure to the merchants.

A press release said representatives of 24 contributing firms Saturday were luncheon guests of Vice Adm. W.M. Beakley, commander of the 7th Fleet, aboard the aircraft carrier Kearsarge. But the amount of their contributions was not listed. One officer said unofficially total collections were close to $20,000.

General Warmup Seen East Of Mississippi

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rain or drizzle dampened scattered sections of the country today, but a general warmup east of the Mississippi River was the most significant weather development.

A new chill slipped into the northern plains, dropping temperatures to just below zero in parts of Minnesota and North Dakota, but it lacked the bitter arctic flavor of previous cold waves.

The eastern warming trend brought the mildest weather since early February, and the Weather Bureau said any rapid thaw of the heavy snow cover in the Northeast could pose flood threats for many sections.

Heaviest rainfall was recorded along the Gulf Coast where Corpus Christi, Tex., measured one inch of rain overnight — bringing its 48-hour accumulation to four inches.

Bizarre Plot Bared In Attempt To Free Scott

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A bizarre plot to bury and "discover" a human arm in an attempt to free L. Ewing Scott, convicted of murdering his missing wife, was reported Friday by the district attorney's office.

Two men have been arrested.

Police Capt. Arthur Hertel said he was told that the idea back of the plot was that the arm would constitute new evidence. Scott, 61, under a life sentence, is in the county jail pending appeal.

Dep. Dist. Atty. Manley J. Bowler identified one man arrested as Frank Massad, whom he described as an investigator for Scott's former attorney, P. Basil Lambres.

The other man being questioned, Bowler added, is Richard Mowrey, who described himself as a private investigator.

Massad, arrested in Lambros' office, was booked on suspicion of falsifying evidence. Late last night he was released on $2,500 bail.

Then, at the end of his 1,500 word address, Hoover handed a surprise to his audience.

Argentina Sets Presidential Vote

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Argentina votes Sunday in the first free presidential election in more than a decade, which pits provisional government supporters against backers of ousted dictator Juan Peron.

All campaigning ended last night in the presidential race and contests for legislative and provincial posts. Provisional President Pedro Aramburu planned a midday message to the nation.

Because of Argentina's complicated ballot system, which guarantees minority parties a legislative voice, results of anything less than a landslide might not be known for days.

The big question is whether Arturo Frondizi has attracted enough Peronist support to defeat moderate Ricardo Balbin, who has the provisional government's tactit support.

Egyptians And Syrians Vote To Merge Nations

Egyptians approved, also 99.99 per cent.

On union, out of 1,313,789 Syrian voters, 1,312,759 approved, 99.98 per cent. On Nasser 1,312,808 Syrians approved, 99.98 per cent.

The vote was taken peacefully as Egypt's border dispute with the Sudan was put into deep freeze, probably until at least March 9, by an agreement to continue negotiations after that date.

Announcement of the plebiscite results turned Egypt and Syria, which are more than 100 miles apart, into two provinces of one nation of some 29 million people.

The formal creation of the state was proclaimed Feb. 1.
