PIRATES LOOK LIKE PENNANT VICTORS

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

There's still a possibility of one of those traditionally close National league races this season but right now it begins to look like a shoo-in for the Pittsburgh unless they run into the kind of luck that has been plaguing their rivals.

There's no doubt the Buccaneers are a tired crew right now. They played that way against the Cincinnati Reds yesterday and took a 6-2 beating as a result. But they're still going along with the same team that rushed from fourth place to the top in late June and early July.

The second-place New York Giants hardly have had a whole team all season. Now, either in a desperate effort to pull themselves together for a final drive or possibly looking towards next season, they have summoned Young George Myatt from Jersey City to play third base while Melvin Ott returns to his old right field post.

The Chicago Cubs, also victims of numerous crackups, took another severe blow yesterday when Manager Hartnett cracked a thumb trying to handle a foul tip. He won't be able to catch for three weeks. To make it tougher, the Cubs lost the game, 8-4, to the Cards and dropped into a third-place tie with Cincinnati.

The only other game yesterday saw the Boston Bees trim the Phillies, 5-3. That gave Boston a 1½ game margin over the Brooklyn Dodgers, who, like the Giants, were idle. The eight American league clubs also had the day off.

ARMSTRONG 3 TO 1 TO WHIP AMBERS

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(AP)—The public suddenly has realized Henry Armstrong and Lou Ambers will punch it out for Lou's lightweight title in Madison Square garden Wednesday night, and the result is gratifying boom in box office business.

All day yesterday fans stood in line outside the box office while Promoter Mike Jacobs beamed and predicted "a sellout sure."

The odds favor Henry by as much as 3 to 1 to beat Lou and add the lightweight crown to his featherweight and welterweight honors. Nevertheless the man on the street apparently thinks Lou will make a fight of it.

Unless he does it will not be a thriller. For Lou in his last two outings of major importance, his defeats of Tony Canzoneri and Pedro Montanez, was far from being a crowd pleaser. He retained his title both times but few of the fans were awake at the finish to see it.

He slapped and he dodged and occasionally he punched. If he does this against Armstrong, who can take all the slaps in the world, it will be no fun. But if he lives up to his often quoted prediction of taking the sting out of little "Perpetual Motion" with left hooks and uppercuts, it will be one of those fights they talk about for 20 years.
