PORTLAND LANDMARK WILL BE REMOVED

PORTLAND, Jan. 26.—The old Marquam-Grand theater, on Alder street adjoining the Selling building on the west, famed in its day as one of the most splendid show houses in the country, is to be torn down to make room for a modern structure.

Announcement of the plan to erect a new building this year on the site of the famous old theater was made yesterday by Ben Selling, president of the Emanual May Investment company, owner of the structure. Mr. Selling said that a 30-year lease on the proposed structure had been taken by Nicholas M. Ungar, Portland furrier. The rental will aggregate more than $700,000.

Definite plans relative to the size and type of building have not yet been determined, Mr. Phillips said. Following the signing of the lease Mr. Ungar left for San Francisco to make certain arrangements in connection with the new project.

The work of wrecking the old Marquam-Grand building will be started in the near future, Mr. Selling said.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all the dear kind friends and Fraternal organizations for their many expressions and acts of kindness and sympathy during the days of our great sorrow, in the death of our beloved wife and daughter. Also for the beautiful flowers.

W. R. WARNER,
MRS. C. E. ROBINETT.

OFFICER DID NOT RESIGN

F. P. Hardy, former city night officer, called at this office today to correct the impression in regard to an item appearing in these columns a few days ago in which it was stated that he had resigned as night officer. Mr. Hardy states this is a mistake, that he did not resign, but on the contrary was discharged from further service with the city administration for reasons unknown to him.

EDDY'S HIGHWAY BILL GETS CONSIDERATION

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 26.—Senator Eddy's bill that throws liability for damage to highways upon farmers who move heavy farm machinery over the roads has at last been whipped into such shape that it is satisfactory to all members of the roads and highways committee and was reported out favorably.

As brought back to the committee in amended form by Senator Eddy, the bill provided that the farmer might, if he desired, obtain permission from the highway department or the county court to move such machinery and if he complied with regulations placed upon him he would not be liable for damage. Otherwise, under the bill, he might go ahead without permission, and in event of damage would be subject to double liability, or both the amount of the damage and the expense of instituting the case.

In this form the bill was approved. Senator Brown of Marion, however, did not come in until after the vote, and when he appeared, objected to the double damage provision. He declared that so far it had been proved that the highway commission has absolutely no regard for the farmer.

Senator Robertson said he represented a farm community and did not object to the bill. Senator Tooze sided with Brown.

Eddy said he would not make a fight if the committee wanted to change the clause. Ritner moved for reconsideration and the double damage provision was stricken out.

BIDS WANTED

Bids will be received by the clerk of the Melrose school, for fifteen tiers of oak wood and five tiers of old growth fir wood. Same to be twenty inches in length and not over ten inches in diameter. To be delivered and tiered in basement of the Melrose school house not later than Sept. 15th, 1923. Bids will be received up to, and including Feb. 10th, 1923.

GEO. A. CRANE,
Clerk.

LOOKING GLASS HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Miss Alice Bastle and mother, Mrs. C. Arnold, of Roseburg, spent several days visiting with friends in the valley last week.

Miss Luella Brown of Roseburg visited with us Friday morning. Miss Brown, who is a senior in the Roseburg high, succeeded in getting exemptions in her studies, so spent her vacation out here.

The Looking Glass grange gave a box social at their hall last Friday evening, January 19. The people enjoyed the four rounds of boxing and an address by Mr. Perkins of Roseburg. Following the sale of the boxes and the supper, the young people spent the remaining part of the evening in dancing. The amount of $108.75 was taken in.

H. B. Jacoby and sons have purchased a Ford touring car. Mr. Jacoby also purchased a Fordson tractor. Both machines were delivered at the Jacoby ranch Wednesday morning.

We hear that Gary Swan and his bride are going to spend their honeymoon trip in California.

Quite a number of people are ill with colds. Several students have been absent from school on this account.

The young people of the Young People's class met at the Klore home Thursday evening to practice songs for church. After singing, a dainty luncheon was served. L. G. H. S.

TRACK CALL ISSUED

EUGENE, Jan. 27. (Special).—Issuing the earliest track call in the history of the University of Oregon, Bill Hayward, veteran track coach, is engaged in forming the foundations for this year's varsity track team. More than 50 aspirants for the varsity and frosh squads are reporting each evening. Dressed warmly in outdoor training togs, "Bill" keeps his proteges outside except on evenings when the weather is so disagreeable as to force the squad to retire to the gymnasium for a work-out.

Prospects for both the varsity and frosh teams are bright this year. Half a dozen varsity lettermen have reported for early practice and an unusually large number of prep-school stars are working for the freshman squad.

For the first time in many years Oregon will meet California on the track and field this spring. The two teams will vie in Eugene, by 12.

More interest than usual is being displayed in the annual inter-class and inter-fraternity meets which will be held shortly after the opening of the varsity season.

Following is the varsity schedule: April 28 Washington Relay, Carnival, Seattle; May 5, University of Washington dual meet, Seattle; May 12, University of California, Eugene; May 19, Dual meet with O. A. C., Eugene; Pacific and northwest conference meet, Pullman.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

EXPRESS THANKS

Umpqua Lodge, No. 314, B. of R. T.,
January 29, 1923.

Roseburg News-Review,
Roseburg, Oregon.

Gentlemen: Wish you would publish the following at your earliest convenience:

Umpqua Lodge, No. 314, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, take the pleasure, even though at this late date, to express their harmony with The American Federation of Labor Shopcrafts of Roseburg, Oregon, relative to their vote of thanks to the two merchants of Roseburg who were stalwart enough "to back up" their true opinion regarding the recent derailment at Winchester, Oregon.

Further, wish to congratulate The shopcraft organization for their message of thanks to these two merchants at the earliest date possible.

Thanking you, I am,

Yours truly,
GEORGE H. DAUDEL,
Secretary-Treasurer, No. 314.

NOTICE of sale of government timber, General Land Office, Washington, D. C., Jan. 9, 1923. Notice is hereby given that subject to the conditions and limitations of the Act of June 9, 1916 (39 Stat., 218), and the instructions of the Secretary of the Interior of September 15, 1917 (46 L. D., 447), the timber on the following lands will be sold Feb. 23, 1923, at 10 o'clock a. m. at public auction, at the United States land office at Roseburg, Oregon, to the highest bidder at not less than the appraiser value as shown by this notice, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. The purchase price, with an additional sum of one-fifth of one per cent thereof, being commissions allowed, must be deposited at time of sale, money to be returned if sale is not approved, otherwise patent will issue for the timber which must be removed within ten years. Bids will be received from citizens of the United States, associations of such citizens and corporations organized under the laws of the United States or any State, Territory or District thereof only. Upon application of a qualified purchaser, the timber on any legal subdivision will be offered separately before being included in any offer of a larger unit. BOND EMBEZZLEMENT CASE SET FOR TRIAL

PORTLAND, Jan. 26.—In circuit court yesterday Presiding Judge Hewitt dismissed the appeal action on behalf of John L. Etheridge, indicted on charges of larceny by embezzlement in 1921 in connection with his conduct of affairs of Morris Brothers, Inc., bond house, and date for the trial of Mr. Etheridge was set for February 6.

The temporary collapse of the Morris Brothers, Inc., of which Mr. Etheridge was president, and his arrest just following the crash, were sensations that deeply stirred the community in February of 1921, and some months succeeding. The late Fred S. Morris, formerly head of the firm; Mrs. Stella M. Etheridge, wife of Mr. Etheridge, and F. R. Pratt, who was a director in the corporation Mr. Etheridge formed to take over the business, were all indicted at that time. None of the cases have been tried and Mr. Morris died recently.

The first move made on behalf of Mr. Etheridge in connection with the four indictments returned against him in Multnomah county was the filing of a demurrer and motion for dismissal of the charges on the ground that he was not brought to trial at the term of court next following that in which he was indicted. Circuit Judge Tucker, before whom the motion was argued, denied it.

KLANSMEN GETS APPOINTMENT

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 26.—Joseph Minton of Salem has been appointed assistant state corporation commissioner by W. E. Crews, the new commissioner.

Mr. Minton is a Salem man. He is a veteran of the World war, having served overseas and is a past commander of Capital post No. 9 American Legion. For some time he held a clerical position in the office at the state penitentiary, but was relieved early in the gubernatorial campaign because of his affiliation with the Ku Klux Klan, which was antagonistic to Governor Olcott.

After leaving the position at the state prison, Minton became an organizer for the klan in Salem. Mr. Minton is a law student at Willamette university, and will be a member of the graduating class of this year.

End Your Gate Troubles with "Can't-Sag" Gates

Cost Less Last Longer Look Better

No more heavy, tumble-down, sagging wooden gates. No more bent and twisted gas-pipe gates. Put up "Can't-Sags"—made of an ideal combination of iron and steel bolted securely together—no screws or nails to pull out. When closed and latched, the "Can't Sag" gate is securely locked at both ends—stock can't break through to destroy growing crops.

Can't-Sag a Fraction of an Inch

In order to sag even a quarter of an inch, 65 bolts and 8 pieces of angle steel would have to bend. You know that is impossible. Yet, this ideal gate costs less than the old-fashioned kind. Thousands are in use on large and small farms everywhere. Drop in and see these gates when you are in town.

MOVIES

"CAPTAIN FLY-BY-NIGHT" AT LIBERTY

With the slogan "Bigger and Better Pictures" sweeping the nation the producers of motion pictures are straining their purses and their imaginations in efforts to outstrip one another in the race to please the dear old public.

Johnie Walker's first great starring vehicle "Captain Fly-by-Night," presented at the Liberty Theater under the auspices of the Film Booking Offices of America, is a timely illustration of the success with which many producers are pushing their campaign for better productions. It is obvious that "Captain Fly-by-Night" was brought to the screen only after a lavish outlay of money and a generous expenditure of thought and planning.

"ON THE HIGH SEAS" FEATURES DOROTHY DALTON, JACK HOLT

Dorothy Dalton and Jack Holt, supported by Mitchell Lewis, are the featured players in the Paramount picture, "On the High Seas" which comes to the Antlers Theatre last time tonight. Leone Devereux, society girl, is among the last to leave a liner burning at sea. She is saved by two sailors, Jim and Polack. They float for days in an open boat before sighting a derelict, which files the plague warning. Once aboard, Polack becomes unmanageable. The derelict sails into a terrific storm. Polack is killed by a falling mast after a fight in which Jim defends Leone, and she discovers that she loves him. Just then a battleship comes to the rescue. Once more among her own kind Leone ignores Jim. On landing she makes preparations for her marriage to the man to whom she was previously engaged. Jim kidnaps her on her wedding day and carries her away to his fraternity house. What follows makes an admirable picture. Irvin Willat directed.

SHIRLEY MASON DUE IN NEW PHOTOPLAY

Shirley Mason, winsome and pretty, will be the attraction at the Majestic Theatre beginning tonight, in "Little Miss Smiles," a William Fox production based on a story by Myra Kelly and directed by Jack Ford. Miss Mason is seen as the eldest daughter of a typical family living in New York's east side, upon whose young and will shoulders falls an undue share of the family troubles, which include a shiftless father, a mother whose sight is failing by reason of long night hours of sewing, and a scrapegrace brother, who aspires to become a champion boxer.

The family is not far from poverty, but the father, in spite of his indolence, loves his family; so there is really much happiness in their lives. There are opportunities for some delicious bits of comedy, with, of course, touches of pathos.
