Stone Don't Grow.

Natural agencies operate to form beds of rock such as limestone, just the same as beds of rock now in existence were formed at earlier periods in the earth's history. But the rocks and boulders scattered about the surface of the earth do not grow, notwithstanding the popular belief to the contrary. Instead, they actually diminish in size, owing to the action of frost, wind and other disintegrating agencies.

Senile Marriages.

Some bygone lawmakers would have been in sympathy with the Brooklyn millionaire who maintains that at 86 he was too old to be legally married. In Rome, under the Emperor Augustus, a law was passed forbidding men to marry when they were over 60, and women when they were over 50. Peter the Great, also disapproved of senile marriage and enacted that no marriage age contract should hold good if either of the contracting parties was over 90 at the time it was entered upon.

He Was Supplied.

Bill had just been going to school a short time, and considered a lot of use in the day of schoolboys. One day while playing with his younger brother he said, "Jean, when you start to school you want to pick you out a girl. I've got me one."

Tattoo Marks.

It is usually impossible to remove tattoo marks without leaving a permanent scar. One method is to tattoo the skin with a concentrated solution of tannin, following the original design. Then apply a crayon of silver nitrate until the skin turns black. Wipe off the excess of nitrate and allow the caustic to eat into the skin. There will be pain and reddish sores will form, which may gradually disappear.

Trefz in London Bread Line

Member of American Food Mission to Europe Lecturer at Chautauqua on Second Night

That the bread lines of England were a very real and a very serious problem was one of the things reported to the Food Administration by the American Food Mission, of which Edward F. Trefz was one of the leading members. His lectures throughout Canada and the United States upon his return, under the direction of the Food Administration, gave a tremendous impetus to the food conservation campaign. Throughout the entire war period he was one of Herbert Hoover's chief assistants.

But perhaps better known than Trefz' war work is the great record he achieved as Field Secretary of the National Chamber of Commerce.

Now Trefz comes to the Chautauqua platform—unquestionably one of the biggest men and most forceful speakers ever presented before Western Chautauqua audiences. He comes to talk on Reconstruction from the business man's standpoint. It is a subject very close to his heart.

Membership tickets cost $10.00 and call for four $3.00 adult season tickets or their equivalent in children's tickets.

The high cost of living has not hit the chautauqua membership season tickets. They are the same old price. General admission for one day—they alone are higher.

"WORLDS IN THE MAKING"

Doctor Carpenter Unfolds Wonders of Universe in Absorbing Lecture.

Dr. A. D. Carpenter, scientist and astronomer, interprets the marvels of science in terms of the popular mind. And he does it without putting a "dry" minute in his lecture. He makes the wonders of the universe an absorbing subject, telling his audiences just what they have always wanted to know but have but vaguely understood. To illustrate his lecture, "World in the Making," he uses a Marlick Tellurian machine a revolving miniature of the universe.

"PASTOR OF PETROGRAD"

Chautauqua Lecturer Unfolds Great Story of Russia.

Dr. Joseph Clare was pastor of the British American Church in Petrograd for several years and as an eye-witness to the tragic part Russia played in the world war he has a story at once the most fascinating and enlightening that has yet come from that half mysterious and wholly interesting land.

Few persons and the opportunity to gain the inside intimate knowledge of the Russian Revolution that the "Pastor of Petrograd" possessed. The toppling of the revolutionary red flag, the downfall of Kerensky and the chaotic days which followed were all parts of the great drama which he witnessed.

Didn't Expect Too Much.

The Sucker—I hope, sir, that you will consider me in the office of an investment, even if I may not pay big near dividends. The Girl's Father—My dear boy, don't talk of dividends. I shall be glad if you don't leave regular payments on me."—Life.

Mexicans Think Rebel Chief Burst His Coffin

Chautla, Mexico.—Legends already are beginning to spring up among the superstitious and ignorant regarding Emiliano Zapata, the rebel chief who met death here on April 10. In an attempt to preserve the bandit's body as long as possible to give the greatest number of his followers a chance to see it, it was packed in ice, in the absence of embalming fluids. The ice burst the sides and top of the flimsy coffin and gave rise to superstitious tales that the "Attila of the South," as Zapata was called, was not really dead, but had burst his coffin and escaped.
