A Civil War Veteran's Advice

SOMETHING WORTH READING

Plentywood, Mont.—"Over fifty years ago I had an awful bad cough—had it for five years. I was advised by an aunt of mine to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and one bottle and a half cured me entirely. I have used this remedy ever since and have recommended it to many, and it has been a success in every case.

"I am an old Civil War veteran 73 years of age and can truthfully say I don't believe there is a better cough medicine than the 'Discovery' this side of Paradise."—Wm. Pierce, Box 42.

Ask your druggist for this Golden Medical Discovery, which has been sold for over 50 years. It can now be obtained in tablet as well as in liquid form. Write Dr. Pierce, president Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for free medical advice.

The Screen

ANITA STEWART IN "SOWING THE WIND"

In announcing Anita Stewart in her latest First National photoplay, "Sowing the Wind," the management of the Arcade Theatre feels perfectly safe in assuring its patrons of seeing this popular screen actress at her very best. In fact it is agreed among critics that this is one of her most notable contributions to the silent stage and it is regarded as certain to increase her very large following extensively. If Miss Stewart has ever lacked the proper opportunity before to give her talents full scope, she is given this chance in "Sowing the Wind," as she portrays a role requiring the most consummate skill as an all-around interpreter of the dramatic art in its highest form. All fans who like really human stories in which the star delineates character from a purely human standpoint will like Miss Stewart in this excellent picture which will be the attraction at the Arcade Theatre today and Thursday.

Dorothy Dalton in a new Paramount photoplay, "A Romantic Adventuress," will be the chief attraction at the Sherry heatre last day today. The picture was adapted from Charles Belmont Davis' novel, "A Winter City Favorite."

Miss Dalton has the role of Alice Vanni, daughter of a New Orleans dancing master. She has been brought up by her father, the mother, a luxury-loving woman, having deserted them. After Professor Vanni's death, his wife, now known as Mrs. Martyn, reappears and takes Alice to New York to exploit her beauty and her talents as a dancer. Four years later, Alice, now a famous danseuse, is at Monte Carlo with her mother when she meets Maxwell, a poor but worth while engineer. Mrs. Martyn desiring a wealthy match for her daughter, induces her to show interest in a Signor Castelli. After he has been trapped into a proposal, Mrs. Martyn tries to blackmail him. Alice, learning the truth, exposes her mother and seeks happiness with young Maxwell.

An excellent cast is declared to support Miss Dalton in "9 Romantic Adventuress." Charles Meredith is the leading man, and other players are Augusta Anderson and Ivo Dawson. Harley Knoles directed.

Also showing a comedy.

NEWSPAPER UPHELD.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 26.—A verdict in favor of the St. Louis Star was returned by a jury in circuit court here Monday, in a $100,000 libel suit brought by Alexander P. Macauley of Toronto, Ont.

The suit was based on news articles printed on Macauley's arrest here in January of 1917. Suspected of passing forged checks, Macauley later was exonerated.

In instructing the jury Judge Grimm stated a newspaper had a right to print official police reports.
