HEAVY TAXATION RAISING HOB

Heavy taxation is raising hob with British landowners. Every day the London Times has an entire page, with illustrations, advertising old estates for sale at prices which seem almost inconsequent in American eyes. "An unspoiled Tudor dower house," dating from the reign of Henry VIII, with 10 acres and a valuable collection of antique furnitures, tapestries, and armor, goes under the hammer and is knocked down for a song. A magnificent freehold in Surrey is offered for less than $10,000; a beautiful residence and 121 acres well timbered is offered for between fifty and sixty thousand dollars. The pride of England in times past has been its estates, but "the white man's burden," taxes, has broken that pride. In America home-owning is on the increase, our prosperity being such that we can meet taxes and still build the homes. And the best insurance against the Russian idea of government is the freehold. Compared with other countries America is in pretty fine shape. Bundle us into the broils of Europe and our freeholders would in the not distant future be throwing their possessions on the market because of the unbearable taxation which entangling alliances had brought about.

During the eight months ending February 28, 1923, our exports of chemicals totaled $82,000,000, compared with $69,000,000 during the similar eight months ended February 28, 1922, when the Democratic tariff law was in force. Five of the eight months, 1922-3 were under the Fordney-McCumber tariff law. Shipments abroad for the months of January and February, respectively over the first two months of 1922. It does not appear that the American chemical industry has been injured by other industries of the United States. We are exporting more and importing more under the new tariff than we were under the old.

The musical comedy to be given this evening at the Antlers theatre, the proceeds of which goes to the High School lawn improvement, is deserving of a big patronage. And you will miss a fine show if you fail to attend.

Something doing in this old city every minute. For an after dinner pastime a one-round bout was staged on Jackson street last night with the usual woman in the case as the bone of contention.

We are glad to note that work will start on patching the chuck holes in the pavement throughout the city. It's been pretty rough riding the past winter.

It may be hard to give, but if Roseburg ever intends establishing a real library the only way to get it is for the people to "loosen up" and put her over for good.

It's a good thing we had a little wet weather last evening. Early in May is no time for real summer weather.

This is wonderful vacation weather, but we can't all buy just now.

Dear Folks:—

Ten fingers black and grimy from their playing in the dirt, and my neck came stealing with no thought of harm or hurt to collars white and starchy, yet I knew they'd leave behind their marks upon my collar and that I would surely find the smudge of dirty fingers when they stopped a playing there. I knew before they finished, they'd be running thru my hair.

But still I smiled with pleasure for a collar can be changed, a brush will quickly straighten any hair that's disarranged. But Kiddie's hands are priceless when they're filled with love and joy, and what's the use of saying to a happy little boy: "Look out, you'll soil my collar" or "Go way, you'll muss my hair." The dirt that children scatter is an easy thing to share.

The things that grown-ups scatter are not always white as snow. The marks they leave behind them are for keeps and will not go or pass away by washing, and the muss they sometimes make, no comb or brush can straighten, tho they leave a throbbing ache.

So take the grime of Kiddies with a smile upon your face. It's brought in childish innocence and never brings disgrace. But keep your hands and actions free and clear of soil or stain. By doing so you'll always find a pleasure in your gain.

HUBBY WALLOPS RIVAL ON JAW

E. Meyers, local laborer was fined $15 in the police court this morning for his part in a recent encounter with W. E. Anderson, which occurred on the corner of Jackson and Oak streets last night. The "battle royal" was witnessed by several hundred people and provided a regular "thriller" for the lovers of the "manly art of self defense." Meyers was jealous to Anderson's wife when Anderson approached and delivered a right uppercut which upset Meyers from his motorcycle. The pair clinched and went to the curbs, both struggling for a half nelson. Councilman Powell finally intervened and halted the pugilists. Much abusive language was used during the affray and sentiment prevails for some little time. This is the second fight the two have had in the last month.

PRUNE PICKIN'S

BY BERT G BATES

GOOD EVENING FOLKS—

Fightin' in public
Provides darn good
Entertainment for
The populace and
A lot of us had
Ringside seats for
A fistic encounter
Last eve between
An enraged hubby and
A bird who had been
Courtin' a married woman
And things were quite
Excitin' for a time
Until the strong arm
Of the law had to
Butt in an spoil
Some honest to gosh
Amusement for we folks
Who get a kick out
Of a dog fight.

DUMBELL DORA THINKS—

You have to go to the ocean to see a Marcel wave.

And now they're going to broadcast some of the gags out of this colyum in the east and we'll bet the radio fans will get an earful of static.

To have friends
In this old world
Is the desire
Of most of us
But sometimes we
Treat those selfsame
Friends so as to
Make them cuss.

A ROSEBURG PRIMER

O see the pretty cluster lamps.
The cluster lamps are not here.
When will the cluster lamps be here?
I'll be darned if we know.

An operetta is pointer be put on tonight named "In the Garden of the Shah" and we suppose they'll borry a lot of cut flowers from The Fern.

A feller told us today that since we've been harping on Saturday night baths that he's absolutely refused to take one on that day. All we've got to say is that this is a heck of a time of the year to lay off.

The strawberry season is with us at two bits per box.

Since skirts have become longer it takes quite a lot of thinking to write these paragraphs.

Nap Rice is purchasing his official summer attire which consists of a silk hat, frock coat, Palm Beach trousers and a pair of pearl gray spats. Nap says his position as mayor demands originality.

A small boys idea of the devil is the bird who invented arithmetic.

The rattle of lawnmowers continues to disturb the villagers and steps are being taken to put a throttle on those who persist in clattering the old mill over the dandelions at four a. m. each day.

A feller was in our sanctum passing around some dried prunes this a. m. and visions of the army days flitted before our eyes with such clearness that we absolutely refused to partake—the real reason being that he didn't offer us any.

After a sultry day the drenching old Jupe handed us late in the afternoon was gratefully received and we hope he repeats this evening.

"Where do you get all your strength."
"From corn flakes."
"Corn flakes?"
"Yep, in liquid form."

Another difference between Death and taxes is that you can do all your dying at one time and get through with it.

'Twas at a wedding yesternight,
A young man sat sedately,
I asked him if he'd kissed the bride,
He answered me, "not lately."

"Oxfordizing the U. of O." reads a headline in the Sunday Emerald. Guess that means they're all going to wear oxfords down at the skilledge.

Quite a few of the high schoolers are going down to O. A. C. for the Junior Week End exercises and watch some of them slick haired college sheiks and she-kisses paddle a canoe around in an irrigation ditch.

One store girl to another: "My gall friend is workin' in Men's Underwear on the fourth floor."

Now that forest fire prevention week is almost over suppose the firebugs can hardly wait to go out and burn down a few thousand feet of timber.

SUBMITTED FOR CONSIDERATION

It is always advisable to remember that your prejudice against a man doesn't necessarily make him contemptible.

"Pro" stands for professional, except in the case of the professional politician.

Never encourage a feller with a prominent wishbone to wear a low-necked sport shirt."

PRUNE PICKIN'S BEING BROADCASTED

For some months humorous quips from Prune Pickin's the humor column of the Roseburg News-Review have been appearing on the movie screen throughout this country and Canada and today word was received from the "Topics of the Day" Timely Films corporation in New York City to the effect that a squib from the column has been selected to be broadcasted by radio. Our film ally "Topics of the Day" is cooperating with some of the large broadcasting stations by selecting humorous stories for radio audiences.

Here is the story selected from our columns by the editors of "Topics of the Day" for this week's radio program:

The preacher was in his garden, working in his shirt sleeves. He was making a fence. A small boy was watching him over the wall.

"Ah, Johnny," said the preacher, "trying to pick up a few hints so as to become a carpenter?"

"No," said Johnny, "waiting to hear what a preacher says when he hits his thumb a smack with a hammer."

Realizing that humor is an essential part of entertainment and having made an exhaustive search for honest-to-goodness funny material, several of the large radio broadcasting stations prevailed upon the producers of "Topics of the Day" to select special gems of humor for radio audiences.

At first the radio stations were provided with one five-minute program per week. The short program was so successful and popular that now Timely Films, Inc., the producers of "Topics of the Day" are providing three special ten-minute programs weekly.

The humor provided for the radio fans is of narrative style. This material does not lend itself to being condensed for the screen program, which is composed of short snappy, quickly-read, paragraphs.

Commenting upon the broadcasting of selections of humor made by "Topics of the Day" Rollo Hager, of Broadcasting Station WGY of the General Electric Company says: "We are desirous of giving the radio audience some humor of the highest quality, such as you have been putting on the screen, and it is a pleasure indeed to have your cooperation in this work."

Kidney Trouble Disturbed His Rest

Is Now Able to Lie Down and Sleep Soundly—His Kidney and Bladder Trouble All Gone. Read His Statement.

"I was a sufferer for several years from kidney and bladder trouble and had to get up many times each night on account of the condition that I was in. I was induced to try Dr. Carey's Marshroot Prescription No. 777 and to my great surprise and satisfaction I was able to lie down and sleep undisturbed. I can truthfully say that I am entirely cured and would advise any who are suffering from this terrible disease to try Dr. Carey's Marshroot." Signed C. H. Ritchie, Elmira.

What is Dr. Carey's Marshroot? It is Dr. Carey's own prescription known as No. 777, for many years used by him with remarkable success in the treatment of kidney and bladder troubles. It consists of roots and herbs that have a direct and specific action only on the kidneys and urinary organs. It can always be obtained at Nathan Fullerton's, The Rexall Store, Roseburg, Ore.

THURSDAY NIGHT IS BASEBALL NIGHT

Okey Tegtart will have his baseball team lined up in close formation Thursday night for the big baseball benefit dance to be given at the Armory. The ball team is boosting the dance to the skies and it is hoped that a large crowd attends to make it a social as well as financial success. It will be remembered that last year's baseball dances were the finest of the entire season and the team hopes to "repeat" this year.

The Umpqua Five orchestra will provide the music. Thursday night, starting promptly at 8:30 o'clock. Jitney dancing will take place until 12.

OUT OF THE GLOOM

A bad back makes you gloomy,
Can't be happy with continual backache.

The aches and pains of a bad back
Are frequently due to weak kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills are recommended for weak kidneys.

So Roseburg citizens testify. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. J. D. Bishop, 318 Fullerton St., Roseburg, says: "My kidneys bothered me a lot and I felt tired and run down. I had a continual dull ache across the small of my back and had no energy and could hardly keep going. My kidneys acted irregularly, too. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they helped me wonderfully. The backache and tired, worn out feeling left and my kidneys were regulated."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Bishop had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN

by MRS. ELLSBURY

(Address all communications to Mrs. Ellsbury, care of News-Review.)

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury: I am puzzled over a problem. I am a woman of 25 and have received the best education that is possible to get, in eastern finishing schools, and colleges. I am here visiting, and have fallen in love with a man my exact opposite in almost every respect. He has never had any education to speak of, aside from a few years in the grade schools, although he is anything but uncouth or ignorant as he is smart enough to have picked up a surface culture from others. Do you think I would be happy if I married him? My relatives say I would not, that my education has fitted me for better things than that. EDUCATED.

EDUCATED—If you love each other you will be happy despite the educational differences. Do not marry him with any idea that you are his superior in any way, because in the eyes of most people you are not. You had the advantages given you that he has not. The fact that he has learned things for himself, and fought out his own battle without any help makes him worthy of more respect and commendation than anyone who has had an education offered them for the taking. Remember that a knowledge of Browning and Shakespeare, or the ability to play the piano well, does not necessarily constitute a man or a woman. I do not like the words "surface culture" that you used. If a man is naturally fine it will show, and may not be "surface culture."
