18 Die, 2 Bail Out When Superfortresses Collide

WEATHERFORD, Tex., Aug. 18.—(AP)—The bodies of 18 airmen were recovered after the crash of two B-29 Superfortresses high above Weatherford.

The planes, on flights from Alamogordo and Clovis, N. M., Army air fields, collided at 15,000 feet last night with a terrific, flaming explosion.

Two surviving crewmen said they were hurled clear of the wreckage and parachuted to safety while blazing parts of the huge ship rained about them.

WANTED

Here is an opportunity to become associated with a lumber company operating on a sustained yield program which promises a continuous operation of many years. A large scale program of housing improvements, fine climate, plus a scenic setting unequalled, should be an inducement to become connected with a concern with over fifty years of sawmill experience. Bring your certificate of availability to any U. S. E. S. office or any of the following offices:
