Probation in Theft Case Given Would-Be Minister

PORTLAND, May 16.—(AP)—A three-year probationary sentence has been given Ansell Durell, 24, who pleaded guilty in federal court of stealing $1,000 from the mails to finance his studies for the ministry.

Postal inspectors charged Durell had taken the money from mails here while he was employed during the Christmas season. Durell told the court he hid the money in a cigar box and did not tell his wife of the fund. Durell is the father of two children.

It is said that old cookbooks, kept in use from one generation to another, are apt to preserve out of date cooking methods and prevent more modern food practices in the home.
