"I hope they don't give my little boy any naughty nicknames in school?"

"Yes, ma, they call me 'Corn'."

"How dreadful! And why do they call you that?"

"'Cause in our class, you know, I'm always at the foot."

POOR FELLOW!

T'was the night before Christmas,
Thru the stores about town
A figure was slinking
He was pale and run down.
His form was all stooped,
He was ashen of face
Yet he couldn't go home
Till he matched that darn lace.

NEW INVENTION SAVES MILLIONS

A Lamp that Burns 94% Air

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, V. M. Johnson, 167 North Union ave., Portland, Ore., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

AT THE THEATERS

Tom Mix Picture Opens Run at Star

Tom Mix, the ace of cowboys, breezed into the Star theater on Tony, the ace of horses, last night for a three day engagement in "The Great K & A Train Robbery." The writer advises everyone to see the picture except those who don't like thrills. The film is packed to the brim with cyclonic action and is the best thing that Tom Mix has ever turned out.

Mix has donned his blue togs to play the part of Tom Gordon, a hard-riding, fast-shooting railroad detective. Tom has never appeared more handsome or as virile. And it is doubtful if he has ever urged Tony over the ground as he does in his latest effort.

Tht secretary alone is worth a trip to the Star theater. Lew Seiler, the director, took the company to Royal Gorge on the Arkansas river, one of Colorado's noted beauty spots, and filmed most of the action there. This is in line with Mix's plan to have popular locations as backgrounds for his future productions.

Dorothy Dwan plays opposite Tom as the daughter of the president of the railroad. Miss Dwan is recognized as one of the most daring horse-woman in pictures and she proves why she has won a reputation by her work in "The Great K & A Train Robbery."

A two reel comedy is also on the program.

Rin-Tin-Tin In Picture At Sherrys

"A Hero of the Big Snows," the new Rin-Tin-Tin picture directed by Herman Raymaker, will open today at the Sherry theater. Rinty's mate, Nanette, makes her appearance in this new Warner production, and the cast of humans includes Alice Calhoun, Don Alvarado, Leo Willis and Mary Jane Milliken.

The story, by Ewart Adamson, has the Canadian woods as its locale, and deals with a young wastrel, Ed Nolan, who saves Rin-Tin-Tin from the brutality of a trapper. Rinty strikes up a friendship with a dog belonging to Mary Mallory, a pretty and plucky Canadian girl, and Ed finds the girl a good influence in his unhappy existence.

When Mary's baby sister falls ill and she starts out in a severe snow storm for the doctor, Rinty aids her, and, in a thrilling fight with a wolf pack, brings the girl safely to her destination.

Rinty had been suspected of injuring the child, but in reality had rescued her from the attack of a wolf. His loyalty and bravery vindicates him of the suspicion, he saves the child, and brings together the two young lovers after a series of thrilling incidents and encounters with a starving pack of wolves.

This is said to be the most exciting as well as most beautiful of Rin-Tin-Tin's pictures, and those who saw him in "Below the Line," "The Clash of the Wolves," and "The Night Cry," his recent Warner productions, will realize that he has a high standard of entertainment to surpass.

Comedy showing "Dummy Love."

Neilan Film Playing at Arcade Today

"Everybody's Acting," Marshall Neilan's current Paramount picture, featuring Betty Bronson, Ford Sterling, Louise Dresser, Lawrence Gray, Henry Walthall and Raymond Hitchcock, which is playing at the Arcade theater today and Saturday is heralded as being a highly dramatic tale well flavored with typical Neilan comedy touches. And, if advance notices be true, "Everybody's Acting," runs a gauntlet from dynamic drama to scintillating comedy and succeeds in running it well, keeping the tempo at the right pitch all the way.

The story, starts at a time when the leading lady of a theatrical stock company is killed by her husband, leaving an infant daughter, and follows the child through life with its five adopted guardians.

Betty Bronson hasn't had a role since the never-to-be-forgotten "Peter Pan" which can compare with her present part as Doris Poole.

Ford Sterling appears at his funniest as one of Betty's "fathers". Louise Dresser, distinguished character actress, as an example of the successful career-seeking woman, will not disappoint her many admirers. Raymond Hitchcock gives a good account of himself in his return to the silver screen. Henry B. Walthall, the "little colonel" of "The Birth of a Nation", needs no introduction, nor does Gloria Swanson's former leading man, Lawrence Gray.

Heading the supporting cast are Stuart Holmes, Edward Martindel, Philo McCullough, Jocelyn Lee and Jed Prouty. If that isn't an "A-1" company, there'll never be one!
