Parade of Oakland Errors Give Portland Beavers Win

PORTLAND EVENS SERIES WITH A 15 TO 7 VICTORY

Sacramento Continues to Lead League With 3 to 1 Win Last Night at Seattle.

By The Associated Press

First division clubs were well ahead today in their battle this week with the four Coast league last-place teams. Although two of the leaders suffered losses Tuesday, all four came through with victories yesterday.

Sacramento headed the parade with a 3-1 win at Seattle last night behind Lefty Stout's 7-hit tossing. Ray French's hoping Texas league hit in the eighth was good for two bases and drove in the second and third Sacramento tallies.

Oakland established something of a record in piling up ten errors to help Portland even the series 15-7. Kimsey contributed five of the boots. Wera saw, and Mathis, Poole and Raimondi the space. Joe Bowman was hit hard by the Oaks, but their fielding generally kept him out of trouble. "Prince" Oana, Beaver centerfielder, poled a homer.

Loose fielding was likewise the cause of the Missions 5-4 defeat by Hollywood at San Francisco last night.

If Hughie McMullen had not forgotten to run around the bases when he drove the ball over the fence in the tenth inning at Los Angeles, the Angels would have beaten San Francisco 7-5. As it was the Wrigley field men won 6-5.

Lewis Wins From Kruse, of Oswego

PORTLAND, Ore., June 29 (AP) — Taking two out of three falls, Ed (Strangler) Lewis of Glendale, Cal., won the main event of last night's wrestling card here from Bob Kruse, of Oswego. Lewis, at 240, had a 28-pound advantage over his opponent.

They Shone in Chicago Track Classics

Here are three of the start who shone individually in the National Intermediate and National Scholastic track and field meets at Chicago Saturday. Left to right, Gus Moor, Stanford hurdler, who tied the world record in winning the high hurdles, and also placed in the low hurdles event. Jesse Owens, Cleveland, O., high school boy, who equaled the world mark in the 100-yard dash. Fleetwood Calhoun, Stanford, easily took the discus throw and came back to place in the shot put.

Ellsworth Vines Defeats Jap Star

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 29 (AP) — Ellsworth Vines, apparently recovered from an ankle injury suffered Tuesday, today defeated the agile little Japanese star, R. Miki, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4 in the third round of the Wimbledon tennis championships to continue successful defense of his title.

Helen Jacobs, United States women's tennis champion, defeated N. Trentham, ninth ranking English player, 6-2, 6-1.

Mrs. Helen Wills Moody, defending her women's singles title, kept pace with her fellow Californian, as she defeated England's ranking player, little Mary Heeley, 6-1, 6-1.

Sport Slants

It is another source of irritation to our old-time baseball friends to see and hear so much agitation over the "iron man" performances of Robert Moses Grove, who at one recent stretch appeared as relief pitcher in nine out of eleven successive games for the Athletics.

"Where do you get that stuff about Grove being such an iron man?" asks the old-timer. "No doubt he is as tough as they come, as durable as any in the business, nowadays, but what he has been doing is child's play by comparison with real exhibitions of stamina by men like Bob Bourne, Walsh, Cheney, Spalding, Johnson, McGinnity and others.

"The real measure of a pitcher's endurance is in the complete games he pitches. Get that one—complete games—not two or three innings a day.

"Why, man, that Old Hoss Radbourne, once pitched 22 consecutive complete games for the Providence team of the old National league. That was in 1884. Nine years before that A. G. Spalding pitched in 39 consecutive games for the Boston club of the National association. He was in the box right along from the latter part of May until the end of July. Iron Man Grove? Don't make me laugh.

Johnson a Work Horse

"Even in the so-called modern ranks, pitchers like Walsh and Johnson outdid anything Grove has achieved to date for real endurance. Walsh pitched in 66 games in 1908 with the White Sox. Johnson was a work horse and demonstrated it on that one celebrated stretch where he beat New York three times in a row—Friday, Saturday and Monday—all complete games.

"The record for complete games pitched is 48 by Jack Chesbro, made in 1904 with the Highlanders, forerunners of the Yankees. The record for games finished, 47, is held by Firpo Fred Marberry, with Washington in 1926. Subsequently, featuring the present Grove process, Marberry was made a starting pitcher and sold this past winter to Detroit.

The Yankees dropped five of their first eight games to Washington and captured the first eight in a row against the Athletics, but—

The Yankees still think the A's are a more dangerous challenger for the championship than the Washington outfit.

"How do you figure that one?" I asked Joe McCarthy and Babe Ruth in a recent joint session.

"Well," said Marse Joe, "Washington doesn't go so well against the rest of the league. They work up a lather against us, apparently, but then it wears off."

Egan and Willing Play Young Stars

VICTORIA, B. C., June 29 (AP) — Two tested veterans of Pacific northwest amateur golf, H. Chandler (Chan) Egan, defending titlist, of Medford, Ore., and Dr. O. P. Willing, of Portland, battled pleasantly today over the links of the Oak Bay course in the annual northwest tournament.

With the field down to eight in the quarter final round, Egan, seeking his sixth title, ran up against the scintillating game of Alan Taylor, son of Phil Taylor, the Victoria golf club pro, while Dr. Willing met Ken Black, of Vancouver, the youthful holder of both the provincial amateur and open titles.

CARNERA TO SEEK SHARKEY'S TITLE IN FIGHT TONIGHT

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, June 29 (AP) — Jack Sharkey, the temperamental ex-sailor from Boston, will defend his heavyweight championship of the world against Italy's "man mountain," Primo Carnera, in a 15-round bout at Madison Square Garden's big bowl on Long Island tonight.

Under the stimulus of hot weather and the impetus given the fistic revival by the successful Max Baer-Max Schmeling setup three weeks ago, a crowd of some 60,000 is expected to cram the bowl and pour more than $250,000 into the coffers of the garden and of the milk fund, which shares in the receipts.

Sharkey started out with an edge in the betting, but the confidence of Carnera's backers pounded the odds down until the fans were faced with the unusual situation of having a champion rated at no better than even money against the challenger.
