What God Says about—PERISHING

"They shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand."*

It all depends upon who "they" are. They are "my sheep" and "my" means Jesus Christ. But are not all men His sheep? Didn't He die for all? "No" to the first question and "Yes" to the second. He died for all, but not all have been willing to accept that death of the Shepherd; and those that do not accept it are not His sheep and they will perish.

"My sheep" will never perish because, as Jesus said of them at one time, "I give unto them eternal life." He gives and they take, and therefore they shall never perish. But His sheep have certain characteristics. What are they? He says that they know His voice and follow Him and He knows them. Yes, you can tell one of His sheep by the knowing and the following. Oh, yes, you may be of the world, you know the real Christian from the counterfeit.

But say, brother Christian, do you hear those two words, "Never perish?" Surely, "hear them" for it is the Holy Spirit who is whispering those words to you right now. "Eternal life," do you hear those two words, too, and you and I have got it because we have taken it when His wounded hand held it out to us. Say, worldly-wise man, quit wisdom and take Christ by faith.

CHURCHES

M. E. Church, South. Main and Lane, J. B. Needham, pastor. The Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a. m., W. L. Cole, superintendent. At 11 a. m. the Columbia College quartet will have charge of the services. They are touring southern Oregon in the interests of Columbia College at Milton, Oregon. I am reliably informed that they put on a splendid service. It will consist of vocal numbers and short addresses. The young people who are contemplating going away to college in the near future are especially invited to be present. The union services will be held in this church at 8 p. m., with Rev. L. H. Quick as the preacher. The Epworth League will meet at 7:00 p. m. The college quartet will give an entertainment at the Calapooia church on Saturday night at 8 o'clock. No admission charge. Come and bring your friends.

The Church of Christ, in South Roseburg has enjoyed visits by members from Looking, Grants Pass and Gold Hill and had some excellent lessons delivered by visiting brethren and also members from here have visited and enjoyed the associations of the members at Looking and Grants Pass and Gold Hill in the near future. Our attendance is on the increase and the interest excellent. Services at 10:30 and 8 each Lord's day, and Wednesday at 8:00 p. m.

First Methodist Episcopal church, S. Main street at Lane. William Steward Gerlach, pastor. The Sunday school will hold its regular session at 9:45. J. H. McClintock, superintendent. The pastor's subject at eleven o'clock will be "Regeneration." By illustration and examples he will try to make the teaching of Jesus to Nicodemus so simple that any child can understand all that is necessary about it. Mrs. L. H. Pierce will furnish a special musical number. The Epworth League is at 7:00; Clair Geddes, president. Union services at the M. E. church, South, in the evening. There will be an old fashioned class meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30. Come "at earlie candle light," and "God bless you are prospering in the fullness of God." No ticket will be required as in the olden days.

The Presbyterian Church, corner Lane and Jackson streets; L. Bearing Quick, pastor. 9:45 a. m., Bible school. The most neglected part of education is the spiritual. The bible school corrects this. 11:00 morning worship. A lesser sermon, Sermon topic, "A Vision of Duty." 7:00, Junior and Intermediate Endeavor societies meet. 7:30, senior Endeavor. Topic, "The Inner and the Outer." 8:00, union service at the Methodist Episcopal church, South. You will be welcomed at these services.

The Salvation Army, 211 North Jackson street. There will be a meeting on Saturday evening at 8 p. m., conducted by the Charlotteers. A fine musical program will be arranged and good speaking. The Charlotteers will appear on the street at 7:30. Sunday morning meeting 11 a. m., conducted by Commandant Barnes. Company meeting for children 2:15 p. m. Young people's legion, 6:15. Salvation meeting 8 p. m., conducted by Commandant Barnes, assisted by the Charlotteers brigade. A real old time salvation meeting with plenty of music and singing. Be sure and come.

The First Baptist Church, corner of Lane and Rose streets; H. L. Caldwell, minister. 9:45 a. m. the church school, O. F. Cochran, superintendent. A good school and good interest. La Iglesia missionaries throughout these summer months.

If you are not in such a school you are cordially invited to enroll with us. 11:00 a. m. Morning worship, sermon by the pastor. Whether you are a member of the church or not you are cordially invited to be at this service. This service will be of special interest to the members inasmuch as by vote of the church this Sunday is to be designated as "Pay-Up" day. The other churches of the Northern Baptist convention are observing some day this month that they make special effort to pay up to date benevolent and current expense pledges in order that the summer time will not deplete the funds. This church is following this plan and this Sunday all who can without too great inconvenience, will pay their pledges up to date. 7:00 p. m., young people's meeting, Louise Jennings, president; Andy Carlson, leader. Splendid meetings are being held this summer. All young people are invited to come. 8:00 p. m., union services at the Methodist church, South. Rev. L. H. Quick will be the preacher.

First Church of Christ Scientist, 312 East Douglas street. Regular services are held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, this meeting includes testimonies of healing.
