They are not worrying about how much coffee they can have, or how much butter. Those boys from Wake, Midway and Bataan, that were unfortunate enough to be captured by the Japs.

They're worrying about living—about little things, like a cup of filthy water, and a handful of dirty rice in Jap prison camps.

You bet we Remember Pearl Harboor—Not well eonugh perhaps, but some and we grinning Japs in richshaws through Tokio streets. We remember Amarican boys roasting in burning oil from sinking ships at Pearl Harbor. We remember a man we used to know who fought at Wake or died or worse.
