Havana, Cuba—About the only Americans seen on the streets of Havana who show symptoms of over indulgence in intoxicants are Americans. This does not mean, however, that all the Americans who come here drink to excess. Beer and light wines are so much of the staff of life that it has no intoxicating effect. They drink moderately. But some visitors from the dry land begin to drink constantly, once they find a bar.

To Americans, however, the most disagreeable and sickening picture is the hobo from home: a hopeless, worthless figure that infests hotel lobbies. His panhandling is brazen. They pick out people speaking their own tongue, and without shame boldly announce that they want money for drinks. They long ago discarded the appeal for help to get the other shirt from the laundry.

Most of these unfortunates did not follow the flag; they followed the whiskey trail, generally as stowaways or in ship crews they desert within swimming distance of the docks. But for passport regulations, Havana police authorities say there would be hundreds here from the states with a thirst and no visible means of support. Cuba happens to be the nearest "foreign country" to the states, and government officials here declare that much of the increasing travel is due to the fact that the island isn't dry. It is a big item for revenue, and has helped to put up prices for everything.

Grants Pass, Nov. 23—The body of a man identified as Geo. Tyron of Crescent City, was found under a house on Sixth street, the main business street of this city, Sunday. There were no marks of violence and death evidently was due to natural causes.

The body of Roy Leed, of Leland was found in a shed at that place, and Dr. Loughbridge, coroner, decided death was the result of drink of moonshine, this being indicated by one empty bottle and one as yet unfinished lying near the body. Leed was 28 years of age.

A report came to the forestry office here that the body of a man was seen by a mailcarrier floating in Rogue River about ten miles above Gravelda. As far as known, no one is missing along the river.

A somewhat new, rather young government official was lunching with Secretary of State W. J. Bryan during that gentleman's recess as head of the department. Very promptly the eternal internal topic of winebibbing came up.

The young gentleman squirmed a bit, and said:

"Mr. Bryan, its just this way with me: When I have finished my work I drink as much as I want, and get away with it very comfortably. It is the mixing with brother officials and treating that makes trouble for me."

"Well," replied Mr. Bryan, placidly "when you feel that you have had enough and are asked to drink more, why don't you order sarsaparilla?"

"Can't do it—can't possibly do it," was the answer, "for when I feel that I have had enough I can't say 'sarsaparilla.'"

Notice.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Willis T. White, Sr., of Port Orford, has been appointed by me as my agent to take possession of the north half of the Donation Claim of William and Elizabeth Tichenor, situated in the town of Port Orford, Curry County, Oregon, which property is now owned by me. Said Willis T. White has authority from me to contract to cut and sell any or all trees or timber on said property for any purpose whatever, whether for ties, matchwood, shingles, cordwood or lumber; to make such sales, and to authorize persons to cut such timber and trees for such price and on such terms as to said White shall seem proper. Also to collect from former trespassers on said property the value of all wood, trees, timber, ties, matchwood, shingles or wood used for any other purposes cut or removed from said property by such trespassers without my authority or consent.

Dated: San Francisco, California, November 15, 1920.

EDWARD W. McGRAW.

NOTICE.

All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic.

"I was afflicted with catarrh. I took medicines of different kinds, giving each a fair trial; but gradually grew worse until I could hardly hear, taste or smell. I then concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since." EUGENE FORNEY, Lebanon, Kan.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cures catarrh—it soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane and builds up the whole system.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common water bottle with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.
