THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By BEULAH JEWETT

All contributions to this page, society, women's clubs, and personals, should be telephoned to the society editor by Friday of each week.
Telephone No. 135

Unique Entertainment at Reception to Seniors

A cleverly arranged reception with an unusual number of entertaining features was an event of Saturday evening when the Freshman class of the Roseburg High School entertained the Senior Class. The students were received in two of the upstairs rooms arranged as reception rooms, each a bower of beautiful spring flowers in yellow and pink. In the receiving line were the class officers and adviser, Mrs. Mayhelle Church, and patronesses, Mrs. Foster Butner, Mrs. B. W. Maddox and Mrs. Charles Hagar.

A well worked out program opened with a spring parade, including a fashion show and a number of comedy features; a playlet, "Old Sweethearts"; solo dances by Mary Julia Clark, and Alice Jenkins; games, and in closing, an informal get-together in the reception rooms, filled the pleasant evening. Booster songs of the High School arranged to popular airs by Mrs. Church were sung by the students led by Miss Evelyn Quine, and Miss Edith Starrett gave two musical readings. Refreshments were in green and white, the Senior colors.

❁ ❁ ❁

Mr. and Mrs. Arundel Featured by Radio

A recent edition of the Long Beach Press in their radio section carried pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest I. Arundel who have been presented in several programs, broadcasted by KFON recently. Mr. Arundel is the son of C. H. Arundel of Roseburg, and was prominent in musical circles here before going to California.

In speaking of Mr. and Mrs. Arundel, the Press stated: Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Arundel, recent arrivals in Long Beach, and welcomed as additions to musical circles, will play a duet on piano and violin, Mrs. Arundel at the piano. Mr. Arundel is associated with the Shell Oil company, and Mrs. Arundel with the Municipal Playground System. She is also a teacher of music. Mr. Arundel will be featured on the Black Cats program over KFON next Wednesday night.

❁ ❁ ❁

Mrs. J. Ellen Perkins, who has been at Mercy hospital for the past two weeks with a severe case of neuritis, is improving slowly, and expects to return to her apartments soon.

❁ ❁ ❁

Dance Pupils to Be in Program

An interesting event of the first week of May will be the dance recital in which Miss Flo Adams of the Heinline Conservatory will present a large number of her pupils at the Antlers theatre. The program will be arranged as the dances of the Nations, and will include a wide range of toe dancing, folk dancing, and interpretive dancing. One of the unusual features will be the toe dancing of little Helen Virginia Yount, who is only three years old.

Four dances of America will be given, the Virginia Reel, Negro Jig, Indian Lovers, Ballet dance; Holland, Modern Shoe Dance; Sweden, Klapp Dance; Scotland, Highland Fling; England, Sailors Horn Pipe; Egypt, Cleopatra; Russia, Katinka; Italy, Wine Carriers; Spain, La Paloma; Japan, Lotus Blossoms; Greece, Dianna's Maidens; Norway, Mountaineers Dance; Poland, Boy and Girl Dance; Ireland, Irish Wash Woman; French, Pierrot and Pierret; China, Chop Sticks; Hawaii, Three Ukeleles.

A special orchestra will accompany all of the numbers.

❁ ❁ ❁

Difficult Opera Mastered by High School Cast

Considerable interest is attached to the presentation of "The Bohemian Girl" by the High School at the Antlers theatre on April 24. Following a long established custom the High School glee clubs appear in a musical production each year, usually an operetta especially arranged for amateur work. A departure into the field of opera will be made this year, however, and the opera, which is a favorite, will be presented under the direction of Miss Edna Hasskins, the music supervisor.

The cast and chorus have been rehearsing for several months, and the many difficult solo and ensemble numbers have been perfected far beyond the usual manner of High School productions.

The principals are Paul Trueblood, Harold Benis, Eugene Bowden, Ray Bart, Ferrol Iles, Listen Bowden, Stewart Stephens, Lela Hatfield, Evelyn Quine, Thelma Newhard, Dorothy Cordon, Mary Julia Clark; the minuet dancers Frances Butner, Helen Cole, Mary Julia Clark, Ferrol Iles, Percy Webb, Harold Irwin.

In the chorus are: Marion Ness, Dorothy Ness, Ruth Collins, Margaret Hewitt, Iris McAllister, Cornelia Martin, Hall Seely, Vernon Taylor, Arthur McGhehey, Gladys Velzian, Maud McGaugherty, Audrey Weatherford, Lynn Beckley, Raymond Pawlow, Melvin Hull, Ray Martin, Rudolph Edman, Marian Fisher, Marion Nichols, Louise Dayton, Herbert Groves, Thomas Nibblets, Marie Lane, Pauline Trusty, Iris Kingsley, Paul Geddes, Chas. Dourner, Loas Wright, Richard Horney, Denzel Piercy, Lyle Wisek, James Meredith, Eston Lough, Doreen Hutchings, Opal Noyer, Evelyn Hawn, Edith Long, Mildred Ohman.

Mrs. Hannon Speaks to W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Lottie Hannon, superintendent of the State W. C. T. U. Child Welfare Department, was the featured speaker at the meeting this week of the Roseburg W. C. T. U. at the home of Mrs. Louis Kohlhagen. Mrs. Hannon spoke very entertainingly along the lines of child welfare and Christian Citizenship, and urged that the spiritual life of children be taken into consideration when the education is planned.

The W. C. T. U. as an organization, will send telegrams to the Oregon delegation in Congress asking their support to defeat the 33 beer bills now before congress. A member from each church was also appointed to bring this before the congregations next Sunday.

A vocal number by Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft was appreciated before light refreshments were served.

❁ ❁ ❁

Pretty Home Wedding Solemnized Recently

A pretty home wedding was solemnized recently at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hooper, uniting in marriage Miss Lucy Hooper and Loran Arthur, both of Roseburg. The service was read by Rev. Hammer of the Free Methodist church, at eight o'clock in the presence of a few friends. The bride has been attending Roseburg High School, and Mr. Arthur has been employed here. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur are visiting with relatives in Klamath Falls.

❁ ❁ ❁

Mrs. Lottie Hannon, who is a State W. C. T. U. worker, was a guest this week of Mrs. A. C. Marsters. Mrs. Hannon is returning to her home at Newberg after a two months' stay at Long Beach, California.

❁ ❁ ❁

Thimble Club Has Pleasant Afternoon

Guessing contests, sewing, and conversation amused the Neighbors of Woodcraft Thimble club members on Wednesday afternoon. Prizes for the contests were won by Mrs. Whitney and Mrs. Gilvin. Mrs. J. W. Dowell, and Mrs. Ora Welker were hostesses for the afternoon, and served a dainty luncheon at tables attractive with Easter suggestions. The members present on Wednesday were Mrs. Leona McDonald, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. O. L. Johnson, Mrs. I. T. Whitney, Mrs. Dick Gilvin, Mrs. Walter Kurtz, Mrs. Tillie Hughes, Mrs. Wm. Wetherell, Mrs. Dowell and Mrs. Welker. Mrs. V. O. Brunner was a guest. The club has been invited to the home of Mrs. Gilvin on April 23.

❁ ❁ ❁

Mrs. Schwartz Compliments House Guest Wednesday

An afternoon of bridge to compliment her house guest Mrs. G. Keppler of La Crese, Wisconsin, drew a number of prominent matrons to the Fred Schwartz home on Wednesday. Daffodils and fragrant fruit blossoms adorned the rooms where the card tables were arranged. When the scores were totalled Mrs. C. W. Gilbert was found to have high score, and Mrs. L. H. Malden second.

Invited to meet Mrs. Keppler were Mrs. A. Baum, Mrs. C. W. Gilbert, Mrs. E. H. Malden, Mrs. J. I. Love, Mrs. Fred W. Kellington, Mrs. A. F. Sether, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. V. M. Petterson, Mrs. A. G. Sutherland, Mrs. A. B. Crawford, Mrs. Glenn Wimberly, Mrs. George Wharton, Mrs. Irvin Brunn, Mrs. Harold Fee, and Mrs. Ben Zigler.

❁ ❁ ❁

Former Wilbur Girl Elected May Queen

Willamette University, Salem, Or., April 7.—Miss Kathleen La Raut has been elected May queen for the events to be held here May 2 and 3. Miss La Raut is a member of the Delta Phi sorority, an dof the Philodosian literary society. She is a senior and member of the Ladies' Gle eclub.

The queen will be aided in her duties by two royal maidens, Miss Phyllis Palmer and Miss Irene Walker. Miss Palmer is a member of the Beta Chi sorority, and Miss Walker of the Alpha Phi sorority. The May day events will be held during junior week end.—Oregonian.

❁ ❁ ❁

Roseburg Woman Is Hostess at Party

At a garden party given in Portland on Monday evening of last week by the Spanish American War ladies, Mrs. H. C. Waddell of Roseburg was one of the ten hostesses. Mrs. George White of Salem was also a hostess, the majority of the remainder being from Portland. There were about sixty tables of bridge and mah jongg in play, and the garden party drew a large attendance from Portland and the surrounding towns.

❁ ❁ ❁

Birthday Supper on Sunday Evening

Trillium, bleeding hearts, and other pretty wild flowers centered an attractive Easter supper table Sunday evening, when Edward Hagar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hagar, entertained a number of his friends in honor of his fourteenth birthday. Covers were placed for Roy Houser, Ross Bates, William Knight, Howard Shaw, Clyde Kester, Joe Gladwell, Roland Hagar, and Edward Hagar.

Camas Valley Club Is Studying Textiles

The first meeting for the study of textiles which will be taken up in a series of meetings by the Camas Valley Community Circle, was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louise Richter. Interesting facts concerning textiles, prices of goods, values sought and fashions' influence on high prices, were contained in two papers read by Mrs. Belott and Mrs. Richter. The ladies who gathered were Mrs. Bertha Parrott, Mrs. Audrey Smith, Mrs. Doris Belott, Mrs. Helen Mayes., Mrs. Lucy Dick, Mrs. Ruth Lawson, Miss Alice Scranton, and the hostess, Mrs. Richter.

❁ ❁ ❁

Mrs. Love Concludes Series of Parties

Concluding her series of pre-Easter parties, Mrs. J. I. Love invited a number of matrons to her home on Monday for bridge. The season's wild flowers were an unusual decorative note, in attractive combinations and colors. First and second prizes at cards went to Mrs. Fred Schwartz, and Mrs. Ben Zigler. Included in the guest list were Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mrs. Ben Zigler, Mrs. M. B. Green, Mrs. George Bradburn, Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, Mrs. A. Baum, Mrs. G. Keppler, Mrs. Fleischaker, Mrs. George Bolter, Mrs. Louis Melvin, Mrs. Nathan Fullerton, Mrs. W. J. Weaver, Mrs. George Johnson, Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. V. M. Petterson, and Mrs. W. R. Conlee.

❁ ❁ ❁

Choir Will Sing "The Holy City"

An interesting Easter service will be offered in the evening Easter Sunday at the M. E. church, by the choir of 45 trained voices, many of whom are trained soloists. The oratorio "The Holy City" by Gave is to be given.

There are two parts to the oratorio, the first part was suggested by the scripture "Here have we no continuing city," "Thy Kingdom Come." The tenor aria which will be sung by Mr. Walter Fisher, "My Soul is Athirst for God," sets forth the desire for a higher life. The idea of perfection of the higher life is expressed in the aria," "Eye Hath Not Seen," and will be sung by Mr. L. B. Pierce.

The second part of the oratorio was suggested by the words, "I saw a new Heaven and a new Earth," and this theme will be very effectively sung by H. A. Canaday, accompanied by a quartette.

There are other beautiful arias to be sung by Mrs. L. B. Pierce, Mrs. A. N. Orcutt, Mrs. Chester Eedrup, Mr. H. B. Johnson, Mr. Gerald Geddes; also duets, trios, quartettes in which Mrs. L. L. Cover, Mrs. Dawe, Mr. Clare Geddes, Mr. A. J. Geddes, Mr. R. L. Whipple, Miss Lois Geddes, Mrs. R. L. Cooper, Miss Elsie Berg, Mrs. Joseph Knotts, Miss Thelma Mills, Mr. Fred Jenkins, Miss Darby, Mr. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Leeper, Mr. Thomas Niblett, and Mr. Paul Geddes will be featured.

The chorus is highly dramatic, depicting the vision of St. John. The choir has been well organized for some time, and their ensemble is enjoyed because of its keen attack, and release as well as good tone production.

❁ ❁ ❁

U. of O. Alumni to Gather May 9

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, April 12.—May 9 is the date set for the greatest University of Oregon dinner ever held, when the alumni all over the United States will gather in their home towns to make final plans for their part in the University's $5,000,000 gift campaign. Scores of Oregon alumni dinners will be held in the towns of this state and dozens of others will be held in other parts of the country wherever five or more University of Oregon alumni reside in one community.

The occasion has been designated as "Camp Fire Night" and it marks the beginning of the intensive part of the alumni campaign. After completing their plans at this meeting the alumni will begin the effort by which they expect to raise $1,000,000 during the month of May. The slogan for the celebration of "Camp Fire Night" is "Every Old Oregon man and woman at an Old Oregon camp fire on the evening of May 8." It is estimated that several thousand of the alumni will be seated at the University dinners in their home towns on that evening.

"Throughout the country the University of Oregon alumni are rallying to the support of the gift campaign," said Robert Kuykendall, national chairman of the alumni organization.

"The alumni have a strong sense of gratitude for the education that the University gave them and they intend to show their feelings of responsibility to the University and the state by their response in this campaign. They have undertaken to raise $1,000,000, one-fifth of the total of the gift campaign. Hundreds of students who came to the University could never have received an education unless the state had helped them by providing it at a nominal cost. I remember one chap who came to Eugene with a capital of $25. He worked his way through the University and is today a successful Portland business man. He is typical of hundreds, even thousands, of poor boys who get their preparation at the University of Oregon for successful lives.

"All the alumni, whatever their financial standing, feel that they owe a debt of gratitude to their University and they intend to give liberally and to work loyally so that this fund may be speedily raised.

"We would like to bring all the alumni of the University back to the campus at Eugene for a grand get-together dinner on the night of May 9 when the final plans for the campaign are to be made. We can't do that, so we are doing the next best thing on the 'Camp Fire Night.' We are going to stage this big dinner in groups so that the alumni in New York and Chicago and Boston and Kansas City and Seattle will feel that they are a part of the nation-wide alumni gathering that has its center in the state of Oregon."

Alumni will seek to raise funds for a new library, a new men's gymnasium, and the Memorial Court, dedicated to the 47 University of Oregon men who died in the war and as a lasting mark of recognition of the war services of the University.

❁ ❁ ❁

Informal Dinner at Lockwood's Friday

On Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lockwood invited a number of intimate friends to an informal dinner, seating their guests at a table centered with fragrant hyacinths in delicate shades. Covers were placed for Dr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allan., Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Petterson, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernie West. Two tables of bridge followed the dinner.

❁ ❁ ❁

D. A. R. Will Meet at Stewart Home

Mrs. Flora L. Stewart, and Mrs. E. B. Stewart will be hostesses on Monday afternoon at 2:30 to the Daughters of the American Revolution. The regular business meeting will be held, and Mrs. W. R. Willis will read an interesting paper she has prepared on distinguished men of the south during the Revolutionary War. Mrs. R. J. Grinsted will also read a paper on Conservation and Thrift, two subjects which are receiving much attention by woman's clubs at the present time.

❁ ❁ ❁

Mrs. Gilbert Entertains for Mrs. Kellington

Three tables of bridge were in play on Tuesday afternoon at the Howell Apartments, when Mrs. C. W. Gilbert entertained a number of intimate friends of Mrs. Fred Kellington, to compliment Mrs. Kellington. High score was held by Mrs. Fred Schwartz, and guest prize went to Mrs. Kellington. Gathered about the card tables were Mrs. Fred Kellington, Mrs. Ben Zigler, Mrs. John Enger, Mrs. V. M. Petterson, Mrs. W. R. Conlee, Mrs. A. F. McKenzie, Mrs. J. I. Love, Mrs. Fred Schwartz, Mrs. G. Keppler, Mrs. S. N. Young, Mrs. Morris Allan, and Mrs. R. L. Devaney.

❁ ❁ ❁

Mrs. Allan Entertains New Bridge Club

Fragrant clusters of lilacs were effective in the rooms of the M. S. Allan home on Friday, when Mrs. Allan entertained the new bridge club, recently formed, which has not yet received a name. The ladies who gathered to play were Mrs. R. L. Devaney, Mrs. S. N. Young, Mrs. Harold Fee, Mrs. T. E. Singleton, Mrs. H. F. Ogden, and as a guest, Mrs. Jack Ponsler. Honors fell to Mrs. Ponsler.

❁ ❁ ❁

Bridge Party Compliments Mrs. F. W. Kellington

The birthday anniversary of Mrs. Fred Kellington was the occasion for a surprise bridge party in her honor on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Young, who invited in a number of Mrs. Kellington's intimate friends. After cards, a lovely gift was presented to Mrs. Kellington, and the hostess served a dainty luncheon at the card tables. Effective clusters of Oregon Grape and marigolds were used about the rooms.

Invited for the pleasure of Mrs. Kellington were: Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Love, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Devaney, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Allan, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Zigler, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Conlee, Mrs. C. W. Gilbert, Mrs. A. F. McKenzie.

❁ ❁ ❁

Mrs. Lockwood Is Hostess to Bridge Club

The Friday Bridge Club, and a number of invited guests met for play on Friday afternoon with Mrs. C. A. Lockwood. Bowls and baskets of lilies and the season wild flowers adorned the roms where the card tables were placed. Mrs. Fred Schwartz held high score. The members playing were Mrs. V. M. Petterson, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. Louis Melvin, Mrs. Fred Shewartz, Mrs. Irvin Brunn and Mrs. A. J. Hochradel; the guests, Mrs. G. Keppler, Mrs. Fleischaker, Mrs. George Johnson, Mrs. Glenn Wimberly and Mrs. Ben Zigler.

❁ ❁ ❁

Bellview Club Has Interesting Meeting

Delegates to the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs were elected at the meeting held Thursday of the Bellview club, at the home of Mrs. C. W. Wolcott. The president, Mrs. J. B. Hughes was elected to attend the convention, with Mrs. Asher Agee, and Mrs. W. A. Pearce as alternates. The ladies also spent some time planning fancy work which they will do for the bazaar which they will hold this spring in connection with a food sale. A fifteen minute study of Americanization preceded the serving of a delicious luncheon by Mrs. Wolcott assisted by her daughter Mrs. Hanford of St. Louis, who is her guest.

Enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. Will Robinson, Mrs. W. A. Pearce, Mrs. Vera Lovelace, Mrs. Dieck, Mrs. Fred Boyer, Mrs. E. E. Boyer, Mrs. P. W. Beckley, Mrs. Weaver, Mrs. L. W. Parker, Mrs. J. J. Kester, Mrs. Asher Agee, Mrs. J. B. Hughes, Mrs. Wolcott, and Mrs. Hanford.

Roland Schwartz Host To Bachelors Club

Roland Schwartz, O. A. C. student, who is spending the week end in Roseburg was host on Friday evening to the Bachelors club. Five tables of cards, musical numbers by the club orchestra the "Melody Boys," and unique stunts entertained the boys, and refreshments were served by the host.

The members present were: Ferroll Iles, Listen Bowden, Adelbert Young, Bernard Young, Harold Bemis, George Hunt, Cyril Nichols, Earl Patterson, Ray Jost, Guy Perrin, Eugene Bowden, Orville McCulloch, Bill Burr, Bill Moffit, Dick Horney, Joe Ward Young, Gordon Hibbs, Bill Thrall, Loas Wright, Glenn Reymers, and the host, Roland Schwartz.

❁ ❁ ❁

Friends Surprise Orville Lindsay

About twenty friends of Orville Lindsay went to his home on Friday, evening to compliment his seventeenth birthday anniversary, and enjoyed several merry hours with games and music. Surprising him were Carol Doyle, Evelyn Hawn, Lucille Sharp, Ruth Ritter, Lucy Grimm, Leone Staley, Lois Byrd, Opal Hull, Vesta Beckley, Georgiane Sinclair, Lenore Helliwell, Myron Hull, Melvin Hull, Stanley Pierce, Denzil Piercy, Harold Robertson, Redmond Sharp, Odyne Mathews, Laurence Sharp, Thomas Niblett.

❁ ❁ ❁

Marie Goux Entertains Friends This Afternoon

Eight little friends of Marie Goux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Goux, were invited to her home this afternoon to compliment her fourth birthday. Games entertained the little folks, and a dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Goux. The guest list included Virginia Yount, Joe Denn Jr., Francel Fream, Bobby Harris, Ella Hennigh, Margaret May Long, Barbara King, Dorothy Hunt.

❁ ❁ ❁

List of Patrons And Patronesses Announced

Plans are rapidly nearing completion for the Tulip Ball, the blossom frolic to be an event of Easter Monday at the armory, and the Legion auxiliary which has the dance in charge is arranging for one of the most entertaining affairs of the season. The ball will not be formal, the auxiliary desiring rather that the spirit or spring and informality hold sway, and that all come who wish an evening of amusement and who wish to help them in their worthy work of assisting the neddy ex-service men. The proceeds from the ball will go entirely to the fund maintained by the auxiliary to help sick and needy ex-service men and their families.

The list of patrons and patronesses has been completed, and includes the following prominent people who are sanctioning the event: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Waddell, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Rice, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hume, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stapleton, Mr. and Mrs. George Bolter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mrs. Arthur Baum, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. George Bradburn, Mr. and Mrs. William Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Conlee, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Cordon, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bellows, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. James Sawyers, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kidder, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Brunn, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McElhiney, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wimberly, Miss Rosa B. Parrott.

❁ ❁ ❁

Woman's Club Will Elect Delegates

Delegates to the State Federation convention to be held at Oregon City, will be elected at the next regular meeting of the Roseburg Woman's Club, on Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. Helen Smick. An interesting program is being arranged for the meeting by Mrs. Charles Rusho, Mrs. Wm. Cobb, and Mrs. Smick.

❁ ❁ ❁

A pie social will be held by the Presbyterian Ladies Society in the church parlors on Thursday afternoon, April seventeenth. The ladies wish to urge all members of the society to be present, and to bring their friends.

❁ ❁ ❁

Missionary Society Has Interesting Meeting

Thursday afternoon the Presbyterian Missionary Society met in the church parlors.

The president, Mrs. Chamberlain, gave a very interesting report of the Presbyterial, which recently met in Phoenix, Oregon. Mrs. C. W. Williams, the executive secretary, of Portland, led the devotional exercises the first afternoon, and she took as her text, "Psalms 121.1, "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help." She said that from 11:45 to 12:00 every day prayer is offered up by every one in her office, for the work of missions, and she wished each society represented would adopt a similar plan among the members. She said, in the foreign field there are 1600 missionaries and 9000 native workers. Last year 237 more missionaries were needed; but we sent only 55.

The next speaker at Presbyterial was Mrs. Angell, who spoke on Missionary Literature. She said that next in importance after dues, is the taking of some missionary magazine.

Miss Roberta Barr, of the Home Missionary society stated that four old boards are now combined under one head; and that the apportionments for the societies are not made in the office in New York, or in the Portland office, but on the field. She suggested that the prayer calendar be brought to each meeting. There are now thirty negro students in Ashville, N. C., who have offered to go to the foreign field. At that school the girls (negroes) take turns at being housekeeper, for a week at a time. Everything is nicely served. The allowance she has for each student is 6 cents a day. In the evening the housekeeper conducts the Devotional Exercises.

Mrs. Seeley, a worker for Albany College, led the Devotional Exercises the first evening of the convention. She said "Take time to study and to pray, but not to dream."

Dr. Greene of Albany college gave an interesting talk on the value of Christian education.

Mrs. Blackburn, in "Better Methods" took as her text, 11 Timothy 2:15, "Study to show thyself approved unto God," with the emphasis on the "Study."

The second morning Mrs. Edgar led the devotional exercises and took as her text, "Colossians 1:27, "To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you."

Miss Roberta Barr spoke on the 17th chapter of John.

Mrs. Kenneth Campbell and wife of Washington, who have been in China, told of a Chinese deaf-mute who was given a Christian education in this country, and is now teaching a class of 40 similar unfortunates in her native land.

Miss Sylvia Hurd, a missionary returned from India, says we now have the second generation of Christians in foreign lands, and many of these

(Continued on page six.)

Interesting Oatmeal Recipes

Oatmeal Nut Bread.

Two cups oatmeal, 2 cups boiling water, ½ cup luke warm water, 2 yeast cakes, 1½ teaspoons salt, ½ cup brown sugar, 2 tablespoons melted fat, 4 cups flour, 2 cups chopped nuts.

Pour the boiling water over the oats, cover and let stand until lukewarm. Dissolve yeast cakes in the warm water, add sugar and fat and stir into the oatmeal. Add 4½ cups of flour, beat well, cover and set aside to rise for one hour or until light. Then add the salt, the nuts and the rest of the flour or enough to make a dough. Turn out on a floured board and knead until smooth; then place in a greased bowl, cover and let stand again in a warm place until doubled in bulk or for about 1½ hours. Shape into two small loaves, put into well greased pans, filling them [illegible] more than half full. Let rise [illegible] top of the pan and bake [illegible] a hot oven—400 degrees.

Scotch Porridge.

One cup quick-cooking [illegible] cups water, 2 cups milk, 2 [illegible] salt.

Mix oats, water and milk [illegible] and let stand over night. In the [illegible] ing heat to the boiling point [illegible] constantly and boil directly over [illegible] fire for 10 to 15 minutes, or [illegible] a double boiler half an hour.

Oatmeal Cream Pudding.

Two cups cooked oatmeal, [illegible] sugar, 1 teaspoon grated lemon [illegible] 1½ tablespoons gelatine, 1 cup [illegible] cup cream or evaporated milk.

Soak the gelatine in the [illegible] for five to ten minutes. Add [illegible] oatmeal if left-over porridge is [illegible] and stir the soaked gelatine [illegible] sugar into the hot oatmeal [illegible] til the sugar is dissolved. [illegible] through a strainer. Add the [illegible] rind and fold in the cream of [illegible] ated milk whipped stiff. Pour [illegible] serving dish or shallow mold [illegible] thoroughly. Serve cold, garnished [illegible] any crushed fruit.

Baked Apples With Oatmeal.

Two cups quick-cooking oatmeal, [illegible] cups boiling water, 1 to 2 [illegible] salt, 6 tart cooking apples [illegible] used instead of freshly cooked.

Mix salt with boiling water [illegible] oats and cook for 3 minutes. [illegible] and core apples and place them [illegible] greased baking dish. Fill the [illegible] with the cooked oatmeal, and [illegible] the remainder fill in the spaces [illegible] tween the apples. Sprinkle [illegible] over the top, cover and bake [illegible] moderate oven—350 degrees [illegible] minutes. Then uncover and [illegible] minutes longer. Serve with [illegible] milk for breakfast, or cold for [illegible] or supper. This is an excellent [illegible] to tempt children to eat oatmeal [illegible] over porridge of any kind [illegible] used instead if freshly cooked.

Italian Oatmeal Chowder.

Three tablespoons bacon [illegible] fat or drippings, 1 large onion [illegible] 1 carrot, cut in dice, 2 cups [illegible] 1 cup peas or string beans [illegible] water, 1 tablespoon salt, pepper [illegible] season, 2 cups Quaker Quick [illegible] Oats.

Melt the fat, add onion and [illegible] and cook slowly until [illegible] brown. Add tomatoes, water [illegible] and seasoning and bring to the boiling point. Boil slowly for 20 [illegible] then add oats and boil from 5 to [illegible] minutes longer.

Oatmeal Hermits a La [illegible]

Two cups oatmeal, 1 cup [illegible] ing, 1 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1 [illegible] 1½ cups flour, 2 teaspoons [illegible] powder, ½ teaspoon salt, [illegible] cinnamon, 1 cup [illegible]

Work the shortening in to [illegible] cream, and gradually add the [illegible] Then beat in the eggs and the [illegible] oats and the milk. Sift and [illegible] the flour, salt, cinnamon and [illegible] powder and add to the mixture. [illegible] ture. Drop from a teaspoon [illegible] well greased bakes pan and bake [illegible] a hot oven—400 degrees—[illegible] utes. Recipe makes about [illegible] cookies.

Tips for the Easter Gown Maker

By HEDDA HOYT,
Fashion Editor of the United Press.

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 26, (United Press.)—This article is written for the woman who intends to make her own Easter frock and for those who depend upon the efforts of the home dressmaker, rather than the department store for their Easter "chic."

In the first place, let me say that dresses have never been so alluring and so inexpensive as they are this year in the ready-made departments of our shops. Unless one attempts to copy a very unusual and costly frock, it is foolish to try to compete with the readymade garment of medium prices. I should therefore advise the home dressmaker to confine her attempts to copying costly imports or high-priced American models, which she could not otherwise afford.

I might also suggest that it is often disastrous to try to copy gowns of similar fabrics. Therefore, I shall confine my attempts at describing imports ot those which have simple lines and materials which can be duplicated in American department stores.

Chance to Save Money.

In looking over the imports of several New York shops with the home dressmaker in view, I discovered numerous models which cost into the hundreds of dollars which could be reproduced at the cost of an inexpensive, ready-made frock. One particularly effective model, costing $250, was made of black triple crepe. It was designed on straight, beltless lines, above the knees three scalloped bands of the material were placed to form the flounce. These were cut on the straight of the material and acted as a trimming, rather than a flare. They were lined in deep blue georgette and pecoted about the scalloped edges were appliqued onto this frock was rounding-and there were no sleeves.

Attached at the top of the armhole a circular panel of self-material began in a narrow point and broadened out until it was about three-quarters of a yard wide at the bottom. This panel was cut V-shaped with the point of the V attached at the shoulder and its straight selvedged edge attached from shoulder to hem in a straight line at the back of the frock. Three blue georgette bands with wide-scalloped edges were appliqued onto this winged panel. As the arms were lifted the winged panel spread outwards giving a butterfly effect with its scalloped bands outlined in blue crepe.

This frock, though simple, is [illegible] the ordinary run of spring [illegible] would be lovely for the young [illegible] lines are a hit too austere [illegible] beltless frock without a [illegible] verting from its plainness.

A Simple Frock.

Another simple frock which would be suitable for the young miss is a black crepe de chene. Its [illegible] lines are broken at the [illegible] flounce effect formed by [illegible] ting rows of red and black [illegible] ruffles. These ruffles are [illegible] straight, double folds at the [illegible] shirred very full. The first [illegible] black and this overlaps a [illegible] red, then black, etc. The [illegible] ruffle terminating at the [illegible] narrow band of red ribbon [illegible] at the shoulder hangs from the [illegible] sleeve effect. A girdle of black [illegible] de chene lined in red ribbon [illegible] huge bow at the side front [illegible] dle is placed low on the hips [illegible] set on so loosely that it [illegible] away from the straight [illegible] This is a very youthful [illegible] can be easily made.

Another extremely beautiful [illegible] on a more dressy order, is [illegible] heavy brown satin. The [illegible] tight-fitting and long-waisted [illegible] tiny puffed sleeves which [illegible] over the shoulders. The [illegible] very full and circular and [illegible] scallope about the hem [illegible] edged with a narrow band [illegible] dyed ermine.

This is one of the [illegible] have seen among the [illegible] would make an adorable [illegible] frock for spring. Devil [illegible] some of the inexpensive [illegible] for summer similar [illegible] outline the scallope [illegible] ermine.

Beige colored lace over [illegible] black foundation has a [illegible] of black satin flung in [illegible] satin which terminates in [illegible] pompom at one side. Beige [illegible] beige laces are prevalent [illegible] dressy imports and these [illegible] simply made with long [illegible] es and silver slipper [illegible] ruffled fichu at the [illegible] godets of pleated [illegible] give fullness at the [illegible]

Where sleeves are [illegible] frocks they are long [illegible] black and brown [illegible] somewhat shorter than [illegible] laces than pastel or [illegible]