Some time since Frank Flemming and James Brown of Bakeoven took 38 head of horses and mules to Portland for sale, and have succeeded in disposing of 30 of them at prices ranging from $50 to $100 a head. Mr. Brown returned from Portland Wednesday, but Mr. Flemming is still in that city suffering from the effects of a broken leg, caused by his horse falling with him on the day of their arrival in Portland. It is feared that he will have to submit to an operation and amputation of the injured limb may become necessary.—Dalles Mountaineer.

Sheriff's Sale on Execution.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Benton county.

B. Woldt, Plaintiff, vs. William Mackay, defendant.

Notice is hereby given, that under and by virtue of an execution issued out of the above entitled court and cause, and to me directed and delivered, upon a judgment rendered and entered in said court and cause, on the 15th day of June, 1898, in favor of B, Woldt, plamtiff, and against William Mackay, defendant, for the sum of $241.85, and interest thereon at 10 per cent per annum, and the further sum of $35.25 with interest thereon at 8 per cent per annum, and the further sum of $25 attorney fees, and the further sum of $10 damages and costs. Said judgments being duly assigned by B. Woldt, plaintiff, to J. N. Brandeberry, and thereafter duly assigned by said J. N. Brandeberry to W. A. Wells, and whereas, by said execution it was ordered that out of the personal property of said defendant William Mackay, I make the sum of $241.85, and interest thereon at 10 per cent from June 7th, 1898, less the sum of $170.40, paid Nov. 18, 1898, and the sum of $49.20 paid June 7, 1898; and the further sum (judgment) of $35.25 with interest thereon at 8 per cent from June 7, 1898, and the further sum of $25 attorney fees, and the further sum of $10 costs and disbursements now due on said judgments, together with accruing costs by levy and sale of such personal property according to law, and if sufficient personal property cannot be found then out of the real property belonging to the said defendant, William Mackay, in Crook county, on or after the said 15th day of June, 1898; and not having found any personal property in said county wherewith to satisfy said execution, I have levied upon all the right, title and interest of the defendant, William Mackay, in and to the following described real property, to-wit:

An undivided 5-32 of the south half of the south west quarter of section 30, and the north half of the north west quarter of section 31, Township 16 S, R. 12 E., W. M,

Also an undivided 1-12 of the east half of the north east quarter, and the east half the south east quarter of section 31, and the west half of the south west quarter of section 29, and the south half of the south east quarter of section 30, all in Tp, 16 S. R, 12. E, W, M,

Said described undivided interest in the lands belonging to said defendant Wm, Mackay, I will on Saturday, the 11th day of May, 1901. at 1 o'clock, p, m, of said day, in front of the court house on the steps leading thereto inthe city of Prineville, Crook county, Oregon, sell all the said right, title and interest the said William Mackay had in and to the above described real property on or after June 15, 1898, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand, the proceeds to be applied in satisfaction of said judgment and all costs.

W. C. CONGLETON, Sheriff, Crook county, Oregon.
