RUFFIAN TRIBESMEN TAKE OUTPOST

FEZ, MORROCCO, May 4.—Riffian tribesmen invasion of the French zone of Morocco is assuming serious proportions and Marshal Lyautey, governor of the territory has come here to be nearer the active operations.

The Riffians have already captured one French outpost and have had a successful action with a French detachment which attempted to throw a pontoon bridge across the Ouergha river. The French were forced back but managed to destroy the boats before withdrawing.

Abd-El-Krim, the rebel leader, is thought to be at Fez, confident that its capture would create such enthusiasm among the tribesmen that they would rally to him and enable him to overthrow the sultan.

Marshal Lyautey and his aides, it is expected here were fully aware that attacks would occur and the marshal predicted to the day the beginning of the Riffian offensive.

If the French reinforcements have not yet reached the scene, it is said, it is because the region along the Ouergha river is flooded and the rainy season which has not yet ended has made it impossible to transport material and troops under proper conditions.

Although the attacks by Abd-El-Krim's forces are regarded as determined and serious there is no apprehension as to the result. The French forces, military experts point out, got through to Fez 20 years ago, when all Morocco was against them. Today all Morocco is pacified except the territory of the Aiff and when the time comes for Marshal Lyautey to order his columns across the Ouergha river, the French authorities predict that Abd-El-Krim will find it convenient to retreat as fast as he he can.

The plan of the Riffians seem to be to invade these tribes to rebel or else to pillage their country. In most cases, these tribes will have no other course than to join the rebels, it is believed.

It is admitted that while Abd-El-Krim has no apparent chance of ever reaching Fez he will be able to give the French considerable trouble, necessitating strengthening of French forces throughout Northern Morocco at heavy expense in order to master the revolt.

PARIS, May 4.—Official reports from Rabat, French Morocco say the French forces have had several successes over the Riffs, in one of which the tribesmen lost 50 killed, considerable war materials and some prisoners.

BUSINESS ON SATURDAY BROKE ALL PAST RECORDS

Saturday was the biggest day from a business standpoint which the merchants of this city have enjoyed for more than a year, according to the business men of the city. During the entire day the streets were crowded, and traffic was congested particularly during the late afternoon and early part of the evening. Practically every store in the city did a record business, their sales reports indicating a larger volume of business than any single day for over a year. Grocery stores, clothing stores, and other lines of business alike were unanimous in the statement that the business of the day was a record breaker. Merchants have been feeling much more optimistic recently than for many months past. Indications for the future are good, and there is a feeling that the big business of last Saturday is only a forerunner of the good times that are coming.

NATIONAL AIM IS OUTLINED IN TALK

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

WASHINGTON, May 4.—To go forward on the same "broadening lines", that have marked its development thus far with its emphasis on equal opportunity and treatment for all its peoples must be the national aim, President Coolidge declared yesterday at the laying of the corner-stone of the Jewish community center.

Made up of so many diverse elements, the president said, the nation, in steering its future course, "must cling to those fundamentals that have been tried and proved as bust stresses of national solidarity."

From whatever part of the world the Jewish community of the United States has drawn for its increase, the president continued, its members have always been "eager to adapt themselves to our institutions" and to take "their full part as citizens in building and sustaining the nation."

Louis Marshall of New York City who spoke prior to the president defended the Jewish race against charges of "internationalism," made by Professor Philip Marshall Brown of Princeton at a recent meeting of the American Society of International Law.

LEGION AUXILIARY

The American Legion Auxiliary will hold its regular business meeting Tuesday, evening, May 5th. Several matters of importance will be brought up. A good attendance is desired. Everyone eligible is cordially invited.

LEGION DEFEATS THE ODD FELLOWS

The American Leg on baseball team, organized overnight, yesterday defeated the I. O. O. F. nine by the score of 11 to 8. The Odd Fellows were leading in the early part of the game by one point, but their pitcher took a balloon ride and allowed the legionnaires a substantial lead. In the last few innings both teams yanked their pitchers. Quite a large crowd witnessed the contest. With yesterday's victory to their credit, the legion boys are now planning on the organization of a permanent team. It is hoped to bring in a few outside teams to play.

If you miss the May Day dance at the Armory Wednesday night, May 6, you will miss a good time. Sponsored by the Business Women's Club.
