

Holidays In Sisters Country 2015

It's beginning to feel a lot like Christmas.

Yeah, the weather's been a little on the drippy side, but here's hoping for a little of the white stuff by the Big Day.

Sisters is fully in the spirit of the season — and you know it because we raise our voices in song. There are many holiday concerts on the bill in coming weeks, where local talent offers up classic Christmas carols and holiday-themed dance to please all ages.

Whether you live here year-round, have a second home here, or are just visiting for the holidays, Sisters is your hometown at Christmastime. Put aside the hustle and bustle and take time to smell the cider. There are places where you can slow down, take a moment to enjoy a hot cup of winter cheer in front of a roaring fire; places where strangers become friends and friends become family.

Sisters also works hard to help those in need. Donate to the Sisters Kiwanis Food Bank or buy See's Candies from the Kiwanis and help support their many outreach programs.
