"I Appreciate Lucky Strike" Says George M. Cohan,

America's Stage Favorite

"Good old Luckies! We've been pals for years. And like an old friend they treat me well. No irritation to my throat and no coughing. And I appreciate Lucky Strike—the full body tobacco with the toasted flavor that's been the same since that day we met."

The Cream of the Tobacco Crop

"Discriminating smokers know the excellence of Lucky Strike Cigarettes by their distinctive taste, flavor and lack of bad after-effects. We buyers know why Lucky Strikes possess these superlative qualities; because we buy the 'Cream of the Crop' for their manufacture."

WASHINGTON AND OREGON GRANGES TO MEET JOINTLY

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Bailey of South Deer Creek have returned home following a trip to the northern part of the state and to Longview, Washington, where Dr. Bailey, who is editor of the Oregon State Grange Bulletin and a member of the state grange executive committee, attended with others a joint meeting of the executive committees of the Oregon and Washington state granges on March 24.

The meeting was called for the purpose of perfecting details for the joint session of the two state granges to be held in Longview on June 6. The state session for the Oregon grange will be in Rainier, just across the Columbia river from Longview, while the Washington state grange convenes the same week at Chehalis. For the first time in the history of the Patrons of Husbandry, two state granges will hold a joint session on one day of the state meetings this year. At the meeting of the two committees it was decided to call a meeting of the executive committees of the state granges of California, Oregon, Washington and Idaho on Saturday, June 9. While at Longview the members of the two committees were guests of the Chamber of Commerce. In Portland Dr. Bailey attended a meeting of the state committee and details were worked out for the convention.

FLYING YACHT IS DESTROYED IN FIRE

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

PORT WASHINGTON, N. Y., Mar. 29.—Harold Vanderbilt's luxurious flying boat, valued at $50,000, was destroyed in a fire which swept the Vanderbilt hangar and ty-boat house of the Purdy Corporation late last night.

More than a dozen speed boats, belonging to wealthy persons and stored for the winter in the Purdy boat house, also were destroyed. The total loss was estimated at $200,000.

The fire for a time threatened much of the water front property along Long Island Sound.

The Vanderbilt flying boat was a monoplane of Fokker design made last April for commuting to New York. It was capable of cruising on the water and in air at a speed of 115 miles an hour with six persons on board. It had a wing spread of 59 feet and a 450 horsepower motor. The cabin was glass enclosed and cowled in like a speed boat.

POSTMASTER WHO KILLED GIRL IS TAKEN PRISONER

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

NEWBURGH, N. Y., Mar. 29.—Harry McHugh, postmaster at Wallkill, who is wanted for the killing of Marie Terwilliger on Tuesday, was captured in a lumber yard at Wallkill today by two state troopers. McHugh tried to kill himself with a revolver as the state officers seized him, but the wound he inflicted was not dangerous.

Since the tragedy of Tuesday, noon McHugh had been hiding in the lumber yard within a few hundred feet of the scene of the crime. Police had dragged the river in the belief that he had killed himself after the slaying of Miss Terwilliger.

State troopers said that McHugh admitted having killed Miss Terwilliger, who was the sweetheart of his younger brother, Jesse McHugh.

Late last night McHugh appeared at the home of Mrs. Sarah Lawson and asked for something to eat. According to Mrs. McLawson, McHugh said he did not know he had shot Miss Terwilliger and that he was sorry he had done it. When he left the house Mrs. Lawson notified the state troopers who trailed the fugitive to the lumber yard.

BERLENBACH DIVORCED

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
