CORVALLIS TOILER SUES ESTATE FOR MILLION DOLLARS

Driver of Sprinkler Wagon Declares He's Son of Late Sam Lazarus of St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, July 26.—A 48-year-old driver of a sprinkler wagon for the city of Corvallis, Ore., filed suit in federal court here today for $1,000,000 of the $3,000,000 estate of the late Sam Lazarus, asserting that he is an illegitimate son of Lazarus and that during his life Lazarus recognized him as his son.

Lazarus a railroad director and capitalist, died March 5, 1926, leaving a widow and daughter. The man, who uses the name Silas A. Lazarus, was not mentioned in the will.

The claimant, in his petition, recounts he was born in Sherman, Texas, and at all times since his birth has been known to members of his maternal family as the son of Sam Lazarus. Until 1892 he used the name of Downs, the maiden name of his mother, but in that year his mother married and he took the name of his step-father and became Silas A. Samples.

He married in 1911, he asserts, and took the name of Lazarus at his father's request.

"It's a huge joke," said M. N. Sale, Sam Lazarus' personal friend and attorney, "but it's what every rich man may expect when he dies."

J. R. WHARTON TO FILL VACANCY ON SCHOOL BOARD

Jack R. Wharton has been appointed school director to fill the vacancy made through the resignation of A. J. Geddes. Mr. Geddes was re-elected director at the last school election but resigned to take the office of school clerk, which is a salaried position. H. C. Darby was named by the school board to succeed Mr. Geddes, but because he was unable to give the time to the position, Mr. Darby failed to qualify, leaving the vacancy still existing.

The school board after a careful consideration decided upon the appointment of Mr. Wharton, who has agreed to accept the office. Mr. Wharton has always had a great interest in school affairs. His son attends junior high school and both Mr. Wharton and his wife have been active in P. T. A. affairs. He is well qualified in every particular for this office and will doubtless be a valuable member of the school board.

SPORTS CARD TO BE PRESENTED ON TUESDAY NIGHT

Two wrestling and two boxing bouts will be furnished on the card to be presented at the Armory arena Tuesday night, July 31, under the auspices of the Roseburg Boxing Commission. The feature event will be the match between Bull Montana, Hollywood movie star, and Sailor Jack Woods of Grants Pass. Bull Montana, who has had a long career as professional wrestler, recently added to his fame by his appearance in motion pictures, and now is spending his vacation by a wrestling tour along the coast, where he is meeting some of the best men of his class.

Many movie fans, who have seen the wrestler on the screen will doubtless be interested in seeing him in person. Sailor Jack Woods, with whom the movie actor is matched, is known as one of the roughest men in the profession and so the match should furnish some excitement for the fans.

A wrestling preliminary will be staged between Joe Ritter of Gold Hill and Kid Dimmick of Klamath Falls.

In an 8-round boxing contest Pat Padelford, of Medford, formerly of this city, will meet Morris Harris of San Francisco. Padelford, who was always a clever boxer, is now reported to be in far better condition than ever before. Heretofore he fought in six or eight round fights with the rounds each being of two-minutes' duration. His fight Tuesday, however, will be of three-minute rounds.

In addition to these events Promoter Wiard will stage at least one good boxing preliminary, offering what appears to be a very interesting event for sport fans of this locality.

NEUNER REJECTS OFFER OF JOB AS GOV. PROSECUTOR

PORTLAND, Ore. July 27.—Joseph O. Stearns, Jr., Portland attorney and law associate of Sidney J. Graham, has declined an offer made by the department of justice of the United States through Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney-general, to become one of six special assistants to the attorney-general as a prosecutor, it became known here yesterday.

A similar offer was made to George Neuner, United States district attorney, when he was in Washington recently, but was turned down by him. The offer was made again with the concession that he might have the Pacific coast states and headquarters in Portland, but was again declined.

Mr. Neuner recommended Mr. Stearns to Mrs. Willebrandt and the position was offered to Mr. Stearns. At a conference in Seattle Wednesday, attended by Mr. Stearns, Mr. Neuner and Mrs. Willebrandt, Mr. Stearns was advised that he would have to have his headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Stearns had been of the opinion from previous correspondence, it was said here, that he would be assigned to the west coast and could still retain his Portland connections. After consideration of the offer as outlined in Seattle by Mrs. Willebrandt, which called for him to establish his headquarters in Washington, D. C., and to be subject to assignment in any part of the United States, Mr Stearns is understood to have definitely declined yesterday.

Mr. Stearns was for several years an assistant federal district attorney here and prosecuted some of the largest cases in the local court during his tenure of office.

ILLICIT HEART AFFAIR TOLD IN CHURCH DISPUTE

LOS ANGELES, July 26.—The fight for leadership of the Wilshire Boulevard church in superior court here was enlivened today by attempts of counsel for Dr. Frank Dyer, pastor, to impeach the testimony of Mrs. Elsie Watkins-Mills, 34-year-old organist.

Mrs. Mills, who accused Dr. Dyer of making ardent love to her while she was acting as organist at the church, underwent a grilling examination regarding her past life by counsel for the pastor. The attorney in an attempt to cast doubt upon her creditability as a witness brought the crowded court room to sharp attention as he questioned Mrs. Mills about her past life. The faction supporting Dr. Dyer in his fight for control of the fashionable church tried to bring out that during the occasions that Mrs. Mills claimed the pastor was making love to her, she in reality, was telling him of a clandestine love affair she had had with a Toronto, Can., man.

Further charges were made that Mrs. Mills told Dr. Dyer that she would commit suicide if she could not have the man and that the pastor had counseled her to be true to her husband.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS PASS DIFFICULT SWIMMING TESTS

All Are Able to Swim and Only Three Remain to Pass Into Second Class.

Mrs. H. E. Cully, director of the Campfire Girls' camp at Wolf Creek, was in the city today and will remain until Saturday, making arrangements for the second camp which starts next Monday. The first two weeks of the annual summer outing have been most successful. Special emphasis has been placed on swimming instruction, and most excellent results have been secured. When the girls went to camp there were 9 of the group who were entirely unable to swim. Up to the present time all have graduated from the "polywog" class except three and these are now ready for their tests and will complete them before coming back home.

In order to graduate from the "polywog" to the "frog" class a girl must be able to swim 25 yards, using two different strokes, must float for 15 seconds, must pick up some designated object from 4 feet of water and must be able to jump into water over her head in depth and swim out. Considering the fact that six of the girls, never before able to swim, have passed this difficult test, is a proof of the efficiency of the swimming instruction. The other three girls have qualified in all particulars except that of going into deep water, and will complete this as soon as the official test can be arranged.

Four girls, formerly of the "frog" class have already passed into the "fish" division, and others are expected to do so. To become a fish a girl must swim 25 yards with one stroke, and this must be repeated twice. She must then recover an object from 6 feet of water and must complete a kneeling dive.

In addition to swimming the girls have been taught woodcraft, handiwork, dramatics, and other such subjects.

Mrs. Cully is camp director and is assisted by Mrs. Madora McMullin of Powers. Each of the members of the faculty bear some special appellation, so Mrs. Cully is known as "Tortoise" and Miss McMullin as "Burro." Mrs. Carl B. Neal, "Squirrel," is camp inspector and is in charge of dramatics. Miss Marsaret Pepoon, "Beaver," of Bend, is swimming instructor. Mrs. Carlos Page is "Cookie" and is assisted in the kitchen by Mrs. L. C. Smith, "Snow." Victor Arundel, the only boy in camp, is woodcutter and errand boy, and is known as "Woodchuck."

Miss Pepoon will not be able to remain for the second camp and Miss Pauline Kidwell, of Prineville, is coming to take charge of the swimming classes. She will be known as "Otter." Mrs. Claytie Osborne is to relieve Mrs. Neal at the end of this week and will be in charge of dramatics during the last two weeks of the camp.
