FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.

FOR SALE—TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN—Take notice, that Highland Place, better known as Haight's Orchard, on Union ave., this side of the stores, fire engine house, etc., is now platted. These lots have large, choice bearing fruit trees, and every one of these beautiful lots are going to be sold for $175 and up. Every investor, homeseeker or speculator, in fact, everybody, is cordially invited to see this property. Do not despise the day of small things. True, our prices are small, but this property ranks with the very best. It has all of the requisites for healthful and beautiful home sites, among which are ventilation, drainage and view. The Highland School, with the view it affords its scholars, ought to produce some great artists. This property is close to fire protection and plenty of water. It is in a choice neighborhood, and situated only 16 minutes from Third and Washington sts. It is on Union-avenue car line; also 2½ blocks from Williams-avenue cars. The title is perfect; a general warranty deed given and an abstract will be furnished every purchaser. For further particulars see E. J. Haight & Co., 212 Abington building, Third st., between Washington and Stark sts.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS—SEALED BIDS will be received at the office of Chas. H. Burggraf, architect, Albany, Or., by the building committee of the Board of Regents of the State Agricultural College of the State of Oregon until 1 P. M., Oct. 25, 1901, for the erection and completion of the Agricultural Hall building to be erected at Corvallis, Or., according to plans and specifications prepared by Chas. H. Burggraf, architect. All bids must be made out upon blank forms of proposals furnished by the architect, and all bids must be accompanied by a certified check to the amount of five hundred dollars ($500), payable to J. K. Weatherford, President of the Board of Regents, this check to be a guarantee that in the event the bid is accepted the bidder will give an approved bond to the amount of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), within 10 days after the awarding of the contract. Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of the architect and John D. Daly, Secretary of the Board of Regents, Corvallis, Or. The committee reserves the right to reject any or all bids.
