Proposals Invited.

PROPOSALS—U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGriculture, Office of the Secretary, Washington, D. C., December 4, 1901.—Sealed proposals will be received by the Secretary of Agriculture until noon, Wednesday, January 15, 1902, for the erection of buildings for the Weather Bureau, U. S. Department of Agriculture, at each of the following places, viz.: North Head, Port Crescent, and Tatoosh Island, Wash., in accordance with plans and specifications which may be obtained at the Weather Bureau office at Portland, Or., and at the office of the Chief of the Weather Bureau, Washington, D. C. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids, or to waive any defect or informality in any bid, should it be deemed in the interest of the Government to do so. Separate proposals for each building must be submitted, and must be inclosed in envelopes, sealed and marked "Proposal for the erection of a Weather Bureau building at one of the points named," and addressed to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. All proposals received after the time stated for opening will be returned to the bidders. Bidders are, therefore, requested to allow ample time for the transmission of their bids by mail. JAMES WILSON, Secretary.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS—SEALED BIDS will be received for the taking down, assorting and piling of lumber and other materials, the cleaning of brick and removal of debris of the old Central School building, situate on East 14th and Alder sts. Bids will also be received for the moving of the building to school block in Sunnyside, and setting up the same on a substantial timber foundation. Bids will also be received to purchase the building and removal from site. Bids to be handed in the office of Jos. Jacobberger, architect, 58 McKay building, Saturday, Dec. 20, 1901, 11 A. M. The right to reject any or all bids is reserved. Bids must be accompanied by a certified check of 10 per cent of the amount of
