LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, Principle.
MRS. DAY, Assistant

This is one of the best musical Institutions in the state, and the people of this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantages of this school. The system used is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners, from 5 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour every day. This is no Kindergarten system but far superior. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.

Complimentary Notice

The following is taken from the Portland Oregonian of a recent date. "A Biblical story of intense, religious interest, depicting love, hatred, oppression, and then retribution was unfolded last night at the Marquam theater before a large audience in the presentation, under the direction of Martin E Robinson, of Chicago, of Bradbury's sacred opera "Queen Esther." There are many beautiful stage pictures formed of pretty girls dressed in glowing, rich Oriental costumes, and the chorus singing was distinguished by its uniform good quality. Better chorus work, with plenty of volume and strength, has not been heard anywhere in and around Portland this season. The singing was exclusively by Portland talent, and it is interesting to note that every solo singer in the cast, with the possible exception of Miss Lytle, is new and untried here, but all made good. It is an easy matter to give an opera with veteran singers, but in this instance the singers had their honors to win and they have succeeded." "The scarf-dance of the maidens, artistically led by Miss Shard is one of the really bright, welcome events of the opera. Mr Robinson deserves credit for his work in staging the production."

This beautiful opera will be put on in Seaward's Opera house by local talent under the direction of Prof Martin E Robinson, for the benefit of the La Grande Commercial Club, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, October 24th and 25th. It will be the musical event of the season.
