NOTICE TO ARCHITECTS—THE REGENTS of the University of Idaho desire a general plan to which the buildings required by the future growth of the university shall conform, and also a complete set of plans for a combined armory and gymnasium, to cost not more than $25,000. To obtain the general plans are offered: A first prize of five hundred dollars ($500), a second prize of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150), and a third prize of one hundred dollars ($100), in case the plans submitted are deemed by the Regents worthy of such recognition. If not, no award will be made. The general plans which receive the prizes will become the property of the university without additional cost. For the accepted plans of the armory and gymnasium, the board will pay 2½ per cent of cost of structure if without supervision of building, or 5 per cent if with supervision of building, as may hereafter be determined. All plans must be received at Moscow not later than June 5, 1903. For necessary data and further particulars, address H. T. CONDON, Registrar, Moscow, Idaho.
