BETTING FAVORS SHARKEY TO BEAT MAX SCHMELING

Gob's Condition Considered Better and Victory Is Deemed Certain if Head Is Kept.

By EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, June 9.—The rank and file of fistiana, from the high powered experts down to the two-dollar seat boys who will perch in the bleachers at the Yankee stadium, Thursday night, are hailing Jack Sharkey today as the next heavyweight champion of the world. And Max Schmeling, the German challenger, would not have it otherwise.

Three days before the fifteen-round battle in the big American league ball park, where possibly 70,000 of the faithful will gather to yell for their favorite and pay homage to the new king of the prize ring, the odds are climbing steadily in Sharkey's favor. He was "even money" when the match was made, then a 7 to 5 favorite, then 8 to 5, and now he is becoming a 2 to 1 shot to beat back the bid of the hard-hitting young Teuton.

Gob's Condition O. K.

Sharkey has gained the betting edge, although wagering has been light, because of his trained left hand, sharp right, boxing skill and experience. He punches well to the body, where the German's ability to "take it" is unknown. He is the larger, stronger, more polished of the two.

Any question of condition must seem to be answered in the Boston sailor's favor. He was trained slowly and evenly and is steadily approaching the 196 pounds he hopes to weigh Thursday night. He has restricted himself entirely to boxing both as his business and his pastime.

Teuton "Too Early"

Schmeling has been seriously hampered by fear of going stale, lack of excess weight to work against, and the necessity of keeping a fine edge, reached too early. The German puncher, too, seems to have gone golf crazy and one day, when he should have been resting, shot 36 holes under a feverish sun. At times he acts as though he were training for the national open at Minneapolis. In three weeks he has brought his best scores for 18 holes from 130 strokes to 101.

Yet Sharkey has always had trouble with rushing, puncher fighters of Schmeling's type though he also has displayed marked ability to absorb punishment. Johnny Risko and Tom Heeney charged the Boston sailor out of one chance at the championship and the most aggressive warrior of them all, Jack Dempsey, knocked him out.

Sharkey Lacks "Head"

The fear of the Sharkey wagerers rest in his mental instability. Jack has the "class" the boys rate so highly, but he also has the discouraging habit of tossing aside his boxing ability to fight the other fellow's fight in the heat of a close hard match.

Schmeling is cool and calm, of typically even German temperament. He hits hard enough to take full and lasting advantage of one Sharkey mistake. He has everything to win and nothing to lose.

A former lightweight champion watched Sharkey lose his temper and swing wildly at a sparring partner in training the other day. He nodded wisely and made this sage remark:

"He'll do that just once with Schmeling and they'll be telling him in the dressing room what happened."

A Prince On His Knees

Completely oblivious to the fact that he is heir to the British throne, the Prince of Wales is so absorbed in the golf play of American amateurs competing for the gold vase at Sunningdale that he falls to his knees in order to get a better view of the proceedings. The prince found the match too exciting to take with royal equanimity.

OREGON NATIONAL GUARD CAMP WILL SET NEW RECORD

SALEM, Ore., June 9.—All details have been completed for the annual encampment of Oregon's more than 3000 national guardsmen on Clatsop Plains, beginning next Wednesday.

Advance details are already at Camp Clatsop and Fort Stevens where they are perfecting arrangements for reception of the 82nd infantry, field hospital company company No. 167, the state staff and the state detachment at the former camp of the 249th coast artillery and the 218th field artillery at the latter.

Eight special trains will carry the troops, converging in Portland Wednesday. Southern and eastern Oregon troops will start moving Tuesday night, and all troops will be in camp by 3:30 Wednesday.

Major General George A. White reports that nearly all unit commanders have asked for increased camp quotas, indicating that attendance will be a record breaker. Among dignitaries to be present will be Major General John L. Hines of San Francisco, commander of all United States arm troops in the west, and Major General William G. Everson, head of the national guard bureau at Washington, D. C. General Everson is crossing the continent by airplane.

The annual review and combat demonstration is dated for Saturday afternoon, June 21.

The cost of the two weeks' training will be over $200,000, all paid by the government.

Major William D. Jackson has been promoted to the grade of lieutenant colonel, and Captains Kendal D. Dufur and Herbert W. Smith to the grade of major, says an order by Major General White. All are Portland men.

Jackson takes command of the 218th field artillery which has become a regimental organization as a result of the completion of the second battalion and its federal recognition by the war department.

Major Dufur and Major Smith are assigned to command the First and Second battalions respectively.

The three officers are World war veterans, all having seen service in France.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that all warrants of School District No. 4, Douglas County, Oregon, up to and including No. 12,880, protested for non-payment, November 27th, 1929, and prior thereto, are this date called for payment, and all interest thereon ceases from this date, June 7th, 1930.

DOUGLAS 4-H CLUB MEMBERS ATTEND SUMMER SCHOOL

Fifty 4-H club members left yesterday to enjoy the 16th 4-H club summer school at Corvallis. Every section of the county was represented, this being the largest delegation ever to attend. A special coach was provided by the Southern Pacific railway and attached to the Shasta train, carrying club members from Jackson, Josephine and Coos counties.

The boys and girls will receive instructions along many lines from the college teaching staff. Methods of cooking, sewing, canning, home decoration, care of the home, first aid and physical welfare will be among the subjects studied by the girls. The boys will receive instructions in livestock judging, care and management; poultry and farm crops; practice in machine work, foundry, care of tools and machinery; first aid and health work. In addition to the class room work many prominent speakers will be heard and educational programs attended.

Any boy or girl in 4-H club work in the county may attend, if over 12 years of age. The cost of the two weeks is small, being $15.00 for board and room, and the transportation cost which is under $5.00.

Those leaving yesterday are: Gem Hutchinson, Babe Rachor, Priscilla Worthington, Gail Montgomery, Laverne Rachor, Lawrence Michaels, and Newell Wood of Days Creek; Margaret Stevenson, Violet and Viola Humphreys, Mary Stevenson, Louis Boyce and Bernice Martin of Glendale; Anna May Manley, Roberta Dubell, May and Lois Fenn, Naomi Young and Bennetta Green of Canyonville; Robert Romanini of Glide; Howard Anderson and Gertrude Adams of Umpqua; Wilbur Meredith of Rice creek; Sheila Welsh of Lookingglass; Bernard Fenwick of Elgarose; Rosa Davis, Ruthelma and Raye Daugherty of Yoncalla; Lois Richter, Abbie Lawson, Mildred Dick of Camas Valley; Harrison Winston, Ada Martin, Helen Roser, George Bacher and Richard Eastman of Winston; Freida Watson and Irene Rowell of Tenmile; Joe Moathof, Ores Houser, Dewayne Kight and Mabel Walker of Riddle; Allena Brown of Roseburg; Paul Allen of Drain; Betty Agee, Mildred Frost and Owen Tiller of Green and Archie Kardell of Loon Lake.

Chaperons for the trip were Miss Florence Johnson, Glendale; Miss Jane Irving, Wilbur; Mrs. Thelma Brown, Loon Lake, and J. Roland Parker, county club agent.

The return trip will be made the 21st or 22nd of the month.

LUQUE SHUTS OUT CUBS, INCREASING BROOKLYN'S LEAD

Hoyt, Sold by Yankees to Detroit, Also Blanks Foe; Mackmen Get Lucky Victory.

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Luque and Hellmann are basking in the brightest rays of the baseball limelight today. The veteran Cuban hurler, who has been in the major leagues for nearly a dozen seasons, is at the top of the National league's pitchers with a record of six straight victories. He gave ample proof yesterday that he has earned this post by turning back the Chicago Cubs with four hits while Brooklyn scored a 6 to 0 victory and increased its margin of leadership to three full games.

Hellmann, for whom the American league clubs could find no use last season when Detroit decided to let him go after 14 successive seasons, is close to the top of the batters in the National league. In two games against the Phillies yesterday he improved his latest official average of .402 by several points, hitting five times in nine times at bat and giving Cincinnati a 5 to 4 victory in the first contest with a home run. Hellmann could not offset the Philadelphia slugging in the second game and the Phillies won it by a 9 to 2 count.

Seibold pitched his tenth complete game in a dozen starts to beat Pittsburgh, 10 to 6. Seibold had one bad inning, the seventh, when the Pirates scored all their runs on six of their seven hits, but the Braves had tallied eight times in the second. The youthful Berger contributed his 17th home run of the season to this rally.

Waite Hoyt, another veteran, who seemed to be about through with the New York Yankees, made his first start for Detroit and won out, 1 to 0, in a six-inning game.

Athletics Win

Ted Lyons, one of the season's consistent winners, gave the Philadelphia Athletics four extra base hits in one inning. This was just enough to give the world's champions a 6 to 3 victory over Chicago, producing four runs. Young Wes Ferrell of Cleveland finally passed Lyons in the number of games won by holding Washington in check and finally driving in a run in the ninth inning to win his own game 3 to 2.

Ferrell's victory improved Cleveland's position in the American league standings considerably as the St. Louis Browns subdued the threat of the New York Yankees with a 5 to 4 triumph. The Browns hammered George Pipgras from the mound in the eighth inning to score all their runs.

The New York Giants provided the leading exception to the youth and age rule as they defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 4 to 1, for their eighth successive victory and 12th Cardinal defeat in 13 games. Bill Walker and Bill Terry had the leading roles. Walker held the Cards to two hits and one unearned run while Terry drove in two counters with a home run.

MRS. LUCIA FLORIN OF YONCALLA DIES

Mrs. Lucia Florin, mother of Mrs. G. W. Angst, passed away late Saturday evening at the home of her daughter near Yoncalla. She was born in Switzerland and came to this country about 61 years ago. For the past 18 months she has made her residence with Mrs. Angst, having come from Cochrane, Wis. She was married in Sauge Co., Wis., in 1869 and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mary Angst; one son, John Thomas, and one sister, Mrs. Andrew Kaindschy. Services were held in Stearns chapel at Yoncalla at 10 o'clock this morning, Rev. C. C. Clarke, of the Community church, conducting. Interment took place in the Yoncalla cemetery.

From Melrose—F. S. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Goodman, Mrs. M. Tjomsland, Mrs. Otto Matthews, Mrs W. Stinner, Miss Mildred Criteser, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Williams and Mr. and Mrs. George Barter were among the residents of the Melrose vicinity who were in Roseburg Saturday to visit and transact business.

Attractions AT THE MOVIES

ANTLERS.—Today, Nancy Carroll in "Honey"; Tuesday, Wednesday, Marie Dressler, Polly Moran in "Caught Short"; Thursday, Friday, Saturday, "Montana Moon" with Joan Crawford.

LIBERTY.—John Gilbert in "Redemption," all-talking; Friday, Saturday, Richard Arlen in "Burning Up," with Mary Brian, all-talking.

TWO big audiences saw Nancy Carroll in her new picture "Honey," which opened at the Antlers yesterday. Both of these crowds pronounced the picture better than "Sweetie" in a lot of ways.

In the first place they liked the story featuring Miss Carroll as the Southern girl who is forced by circumstances to assume an Irish brogue and play the role of cook in her own plantation kitchen. Stanley Smith plays the role of the rich young man who falls in love with Nancy during a visit to her plantation. Smith was her college-boy sweetheart in "Sweetie."

Others in the supporting cast include Harry Green of "Kibitzer" fame, Zasu Pitts, Skeets Gallagher who starred in "Fast Company" and Johyna Howland, noted Broadway stage comedienne.

The acting, with this sort of a cast, is naturally good. The story is good, the directing is good, the songs are good—in fact "Honey" is a good picture. It shows again tonight.

Farm Leaders Grow Uneasy Over Bill to Patent New Plants

WASHINGTON, June 8.—After supporting it, agricultural leaders are beginning to wonder whether the Purnell-Townsend bill to patent plants will not cause the benefits of stimulated research to be dissipated in additional seed costs to the farmer.

Sent to the president by unanimous vote of both houses of congress, the bill seeks only to patent the individual plant. However, a question rises whether any organization acquiring patent rights to a newly originated plant might be in position to sell its seeds or other reproductive units at a price prohibitive to the great majority of farmers.

Farms crops today are the result of constant improvements and developments, which for lack of plant patents have come into the hands of the farmer at slight increase in seed costs.

It is the theory of the bill that the surface has only been scratched in plant experimentation, and that remunerative protection for plant breeders is necessary to the stimulation of much important work yet to be done.

By its terms the creator of a new plant would be given 17 years exclusive right to it, the same as the originator of any industrial mechanism is given protection for his invention.

The bill has the endorsement of the commissioner of patents, the secretary of agriculture, all the national farm organizations, the secretary of the American society for the advancement of science and many others.

Thomas A. Edison said of the bill:

"Nothing congress could do to help farming would be of greater value and permanence than to give to the plant breeder the same status as the mechanical and chemical inventors now have through the patent law. There are but few plant breeders. This will, I feel sure, give us many Burbanks."

An excerpt from a manuscript of the late Luther Burbank says:

"I would hesitate to advise a young man, no matter how gifted or devoted, to adopt plant breeding as a life work until America takes some action to protect his unquestioned rights to some benefit from his achievements."

ALBERT E. GIBSON RITES HELD TODAY

Albert Edgar Gibson, who was found dead in his tent on Bogus creek, last Friday, was born in Chalsea, Mass., April 6, 1860, and has been a resident of this state for about 25 years, having spent most of the time in Sutherlin. He was twice married, his last marriage occurring in Ossipee, N. H., on April 28, 1894. He is survived by one son, Ed Gibson, Los Angeles, Cal., and a daughter, Mrs. Addie Paxson, Sutherlin. Services were held in the chapel of the Douglas Funeral home today at 2 p. m., Rev. Perry Smith, conducting. Interment will take place in the Valley View cemetery at Sutherlin. H. C. Stearns is in charge of funeral arrangements.
