WASHINGTON GETS REVENGE, 7 TO 1, ON THE MACKMEN

Hadley Puzzles Athletics While Earnshaw Meets Barrage; New Ball Full of Life.

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Fans who haven't already forgotten the pre-season huliabaloo over the new baseball used in the major leagues this year may well wonder after two days of big time play what effect the altered sphere is having.

It seems evident that the ball still is lively as the home runs are made at their usual rate, but good pitching performances appear on the increase as well. Eight pitchers went the full route in the two major leagues yesterday, and an unusual number for the second day of the season.

Earnshaw Doesn't Last

"Bump" Hadley of Washington and Burleigh Grimes, veteran spitballer of the St. Louis Cardinals, shared the topmost hurling honors. Hadley limited the world champion Philadelphia Athletics to four hits while the Senators fell on Big George Earnshaw for five runs in the fourth inning and a 7 to 1 victory. Grimes pitched the year's first shutout, setting the Cincinnati Reds down with seven blows as the Cardinals won 4-0. Red Lucas went the route for Cincinnati.

Bob Smith of the Chicago Cubs and Claude Willoughby of Pittsburgh staged a full length duel, the Cubs winning their second straight 6 to 5. Manager Rogers Hornsby provided the winning run with a homer.

Surprises Continue

Continuing the surprises of the opening day the Boston Braves and St. Louis Browns each won a second successive game and joined the Cubs, Cardinals and New York Yankees in the top positions of the two leagues. Effective pitching with good hitting behind it told the tale in each case.

Although both were hit rather freely, Sammy Gray of St. Louis bested Waite Hoyt of Detroit to gain a 6-4 triumph. Both hurled the full game. Seibold held the Brooklyn Robins to eight hits to give the Braves a 9 to 3 triumph. The Braves hit safely 17 times and the Robins contributed seven errors. Their infield work, with Thompson and Wright both on the sick list, was especially weak.

Homers Are Decisive

The two New York teams figured in the leading slugging contests. With Lou Gehrig's first home run as the big blow, the Yanks scored five runs in the first inning then barely outlasted the Boston Red Sox, putting over a run in the ninth to win 8-7. Henry Johnson failed to last after fanning 12 Boston batters. The Phillies slammed five giant pitchers and scored eight runs in the second inning to triumph 10-7. Chuck Klein's third homer in two days was the feature.

In the remaining game the Chicago White Sox squared their series with Cleveland by a 7-6 ten inning victory. The Sox were outhit 16-10.

FATHER KILLS TWO CHILDREN AND SELF

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

JASPAR, Ala., April 15 — Almer Bachelor, a farmer, led his three children into the woods near his home late Monday and a searching party later found his body and those of two of his children shot to death. His hand clutched a note reading "I shot them because I loved them."

Painful Piles

Go Quick—No Cutting—No Salves

It takes only one bottle of Dr. J. S. Leonhardt's prescription—HEM-ROID—to end itching, bleeding, protruding piles. This internal remedy acts quickly even in old, stubborn cases. HEM-ROID succeeds because it heals and restores the affected parts and removes blood congestion in the lower bowel—the cause of piles. Only an internal medicine can do this, that's why salves and cutting fail. Chapman's drug store says HEM-ROID Tablets must end your Pile misery or money back.—(Adv.)

Charged With Gordon Murder

With the arrest of Harry Stein (above), alleged drug peddler and ex-convict, New York police declare that the much-discussed Vivian Gorden, vice witness, mystery has been solved. The suspected man was apprehended after he had attempted to pawn a diamond-studded watch, identified as the property of the victim. Grilled by police, Stein admitted that he had once been sentenced to ten years for an attempt to strangle a woman.

BIG SCORES MARK GAMES ON COAST

Angels and Beavers Pound Out Victories Over the Stars and Acorns.

(By the Associated Press)

Three Pacific Coast league baseball teams had it two straight over their opponents in the second week's series today as the outcome of yesterday's games. Los Angeles rode Hollywood 15 to 6 to even their series at one all.

Portland rolled up 19 runs to 6 for Oakland. Sacramento beat Seattle 9 to 8 and the San Francisco Missions beat the Seals 4 to 2.

Portland pounded a quartet of Oak pitchers for 21 hits which they converted into their 19 runs. The Beavers fattened their batting averages even more than they did in Tuesday's encounter.

In evening the series with Hollywood, the Angels socked five Star pitchers for 21 hits to chalk up their 15 to 6 win. The Angels scored in every inning but the sixth.

Held scoreless until their last two trips to the bat, the Missions put over four runs to double the number obtained by the Seals in the fifth, the only inning in which they scored. "Red" Killefer, president of the Missions, saw his team work for the first time. He has undergone extensive repairs recently at the hands of surgeons.

Sacramento pulled its victory out of the flames. Dutch Reuther, who relieved Hugh McQuillan, in the eighth, helped by hitting a batsman, walked two and allowing a single, all of which enabled the Senators to score four runs and gain an uphill victory.

THYE DEFEATED BY JOE MALCEWICZ

Body Slam Decides Rough Bout in Portland; Reed Pins Vic Potter.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 16.—Despite the efforts made to eliminate some of the rough tactics featuring wrestling matches here, Joe Macewicz, Utica, N. Y., heavyweight and Ted Thye, Portland used everything but the ring posts in their match last night, in which the New Yorker defeated Thye two out of three falls.

Thye took the first fall in 25 minutes, 15 seconds with wristlocks, in which he used his shoulder butt freely and had Malcewicz bleeding from nose and mouth. Thye was still the aggressor in the second period until he walked into one of Malcewicz's body slams, from which he was so stunned it was several minutes before he could be assisted from the ring. Time seven minutes.

Thye asked for additional time, but was refused and was wobby when he returned for the final fall. With the aid of hand and fist the New Yorker finished the match in less than two minutes. Thye weighed 192 pounds, Malcewicz 198.

Robin Reed, former Olympic champion, took two straight falls from Vic Potter, Vancouver, Wash., in the five ten-minute round match, featured by fast, clean wrestling. Reed used the whip wristlock in both falls.
