TWO FOUND GUILTY OF CHILD MURDER

MONTESANO, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Mrs. Hazel Hasty and Burney F. Zimmer, accused of the murder of Mrs. Hasty's three-year-old son Ronald in Hoquiam Armistice day, were found guilty of second degree murder by a superior court jury here this afternoon.

Attorneys representing Mrs. Hasty, and Zimmer indicated they would appeal the verdict. The defendants heard the decision without a show of emotion.

Prosecutor Paul O. Manley had asked the death penalty for both the mother and the man.

LABOR ASKS PROBE OF IOWA DISASTER

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 15.—(AP)—While a new gale ripped at the Oregon and Washington coast lines today, a storm of protest went up from union labor over the loss of 34 lives when the freighter Iowa piled up on Peacock spit at the Columbia river mouth Sunday.

A federal investigation into the disaster was demanded by G. O. Hunter, vice-president of the Portland central labor council, and other union spokesmen.

Hunter assailed the practice of taking steamers over the Columbia river bar without a bar pilot and questioned the judgment of officers in putting to sea in the face of the roaring hurricane which reached a velocity of 76 miles an hour.

"The belief is increasing that the loss of 34 lives was due to first consideration being given to profits," he said.

The boat broke in two, but as long as the rough seas continue it will be too hazardous to probe into the bow of the boat which still rocks in the waves, or to search the spit for the stern which broke loose and dropped from sight.

Captain Vance D. Trout, port supervisor in Portland for the States Line company, owner of the Iowa, said an investigation would be "welcome."

He said Captain Edgar L. Yates was a veteran mariner and took another States steamer over the bar to Seattle only ten days before the disaster. No other boat would have fared better, he said.

BASKETBALL SCORES

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 15.—(AP)—University of Oregon's basketball team strode beside Oregon State and University of Washington today at the top of the coast conference, northern division championship race, and thanked its stars for a second half rally and 45 to 41 win for the second time over University of Idaho last night.

Oregon and Oregon State play here Friday night and the winner will have undisputed leadership in the conference race for a short while at least.

FOREST GROVE, Ore., Jan. 15.—(AP)—The Whitman college basketball team, showing even more power than when it won the northwest conference championship last year, trompled Pacific university 52 to 24 here last night, making it two straight.

SALEM, Jan. 15.—(AP)—Salem high school's basketball team of six-footers won from the Chemawa Indians 40 to 23 here last night.

SILVERTON, Ore., Jan. 15.—(AP)—Silverton high school defeated Canby 31 to 5 in a one-sided basketball game last night.

New Shirley Temple Hit Dated Here

John Boles, Shirley Temple and Karen Morley, principal characters of "The Littlest Rebel," which opens Sunday at Hunt's Indian theater for a 3-day engagement. Shirley sings, dances and brings a radiant portrayal of a sweet little southern miss.

SPINA AND DEMPSEY BATTLE TO DRAW

PORTLAND, Jan. 15.—(AP)—Al Spina, Portland, and Little Dempsey, Filipino bantam from Los Angeles, staged a great 10-round draw here last night. Dempsey led in the early rounds, but Spina came back and evened matters. The ninth and tenth were even, neither battler having an advantage.

The semi-windup was the only disappointment to an otherwise brilliant card. Otto Blackwell, 142 Los Angeles and Billy Lee, 141, Bend, boxed to a draw. Lee's style of grab and hold after landing on his opponent irritated the customers. Other results:

Jack Rainwater, 147, Albany, lost by a technical knockout to "Midnight" Bell, 147, Dallas, Tex., in the six-round special. Referee Tom Loutit stopped the bout when Rainwater developed a badly cut eye.

Wes Hayes, 170, Portland, took a slam-bang four-rounder from Red Rader, 171, Tacoma.
