OREGON TEMPLARS ADVANCE OFFICERS

PORTLAND, April 14 — (AP)— The Knights Templar of Oregon feted a new grand commander today, Lloyd L. Scott, of Portland, who was elevated at the annual grand commandery Monday.

Other officers advanced and their positions follow:

D. Bruce Stuart, Corvallis, deputy grand commander; Edwin O. Potter, Eugene, grand captain general; J. Alton Thompson, Bend, grand generalissimo; L. L. Snodgrass, La Grande, senior grand warden; Percy R. Kelly, Salem, junior grand warden; Albert H. Trego, Portland, grand treasurer; D. Rufus Cheney, Portland, grand recorder; Orrie B. Nye, Hood River, grand standard bearer; Walter O. Haines, Portland, grand sword bearer; George J. Walton, Klamath Falls, grand warder; Arthur Molesworth, Portland, captain of guard; Dr. David T. Robertson, Marshfield, grand prelate.

The commandery, presided over by Carl W. Evertsen, Marshfield, was attended by 100 members, who heard an address by Robert B. Gaylord, San Francisco, grand master of the grand encampment. The delegates voted to change the date of the annual grand commandery from April to October.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elliott, of Canyonville, were business visitors in town yesterday.

SALLY RAND HITS BACK AT NUDISTS

SAN DIEGO, Calif., April 13.—(AP)—Sally Rand, shocked by the goings-on of members of the exposition nudist colony who picketed her fan dance threatened legal reprisals today.

To sandwich-board demands of the nudist picketers for "the bare truth about nudism and nakedness," Sally retorted through her publicity representative: "An indecent performance of this nature should not be tolerated."

"Flaunting of nakedness under the guise of nudism is not in accord with her principles," the representative, David Lipton, protested. "If this shocking event is repeated, she intends to resort to such legal action as may be necessary to prevent disruption of her performances and maintain the high character of dignity and beauty with which they have always been associated."

Under the leadership of Mary Pomeroy the younger element of the exposition nudist colony disregarded the counsels of their elders against militant action and, eluding exposition guards, sought to dissuade a large throng from patronage of Sally's entertainment.

Striking back at Miss Rand's refusal to recognize the nudists as sisters under the skin, Miss Pomeroy charged the fan dance exponent with wilful ignorance of "nudism's high principles."

The nudist pickets were herded back into their Zoro gardens, and a guard was set to keep them away from Sally's exhibition.

OREGON EVENTS FLASHED FROM WIRE SERVICE

BEND, Ore., April 13 — (AP)— Fires blazed twice in the rapidly-drying Deschutes woods over the week-end, blackening 75 acres each time.

Forest officials, who brought the blazes under control, said they were man-caused.

MEDFORD, April 13 — Wayne Stanard of McMinnville, grand master of Oregon Masonry, will be in attendance at the second annual southern Oregon Masonic meeting here April 18. Northern California clubs also will be represented. An afternoon school of instruction will be followed by a reception and banquet.

SALEM, April 13 — Mrs. Milton R. Mitchell, who appeared at Salem police headquarters Saturday in a confused state of mind and unable to remember her name, has been returned to her home at 1602 Willard street in Eugene, police reported.

Mrs. Mitchell was identified by a distant relative, W. W. Head, of Salem, whose name and address were found on a card in her purse.

Police here were told Mrs. Mitchell disappeared from her home in Eugene last Friday. The cause of her lapse of memory was not learned here.

PORTLAND, April 14.—(AP)— The drive for Red Cross flood funds here passed the $13,000 mark today, $5,000 short of the Portland goal.

PORTLAND, April 14.—(AP)— Police searched today for Raymond A. Westermann, 22, hotel busboy, whose father, Henry, said he failed to keep an appointment Sunday. The father said the boy may have been harmed inasmuch as he had cashed a pay check shortly before he was last seen.

OREGON CITY, April 14.—(AP)—Authorities renewed a search today for Clifford Davis, 37, Portland policeman, who apparently drowned in the Clackamas river, near Clark eddy, when his boat was swamped while he and William A. Garnette were fishing Sunday.

Garnette escaped by seizing some willow branches on a small island and pulling himself to land.

CIVIL SERVICE SETS EXAMS FOR TYPISTS
