The Screen

SUPER WESTERN FILM COMING TO STAR THEATRE

"The Fox," Harry Carey's first big Universal-Jewel super feature and which is the first super-western picture ever screened, is coming to the Star Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The concluding scenes were made at Universal City at night, where a picturesque stretch of country was illuminated by a flaring brush fire around which dramatic action was filmed.

Graphic shots of the regulars going into action with Harry Carey's own flying squadron of cowpunchers riding on the flanks, breath-snatching views of an explosion that churned up the earth. A tender love story and some of the most magnificient scenery ever captured by the camera, will add to the appeal of the story.

Harry Carey was supported by Betty Ross Clark in the leading feminine role, and by such popular screen favorites as Alan Hale, George Nichols, John Harron, Gertrude Claire, George Cooper, Breezy Eason, Jr., Charles LeMoyne, Capt. C. E. Anderson, Harley Chambers and others.

CONWAY TEARLE STARRED EXCITING STORY AT ARCADE

"After Midnight," A Ralph Ince Production released by Selznick, in which Conway Tearle is the star, will be the featured attraction at the Arcade theatre Sunda yonly. "After Midnight" is a production in which the star is said to score one of his best performances, and according to the advance information the story is unusually strong and exciting throughout.

They do not meet again until one day, in a Chinese restaurant. Warren Black, observing the striking resemblance between the wanderer and the man in the back room who was slowly poisoning himself to death with opium, suggested that he take his place for the purpose of obtaining the family riches. The wanderer consents and becomes the master of his brother's house and from that moment on the story progresses rapidly toward a startling climax that reveals many exciting episodes.

Jena Keefe, who scored successfully opposite Mr. Tearle in "Marooned Hearts," again is the star's leading lady and Mary Harlan a convincing heavy role.

A comedy will also be showr.

POLA NEGRI TRIUMPHS AGAIN IN "GYPSY BLOOD"

What may be rightly termed one of the most finished and artistic productions yet seen on the screen is the foreign film, "Gypsy Blood,' adapted from Prosper Merimee's immortal "Carmen," which is being shown todayan d Sunday at the Star Theatre.

Pola Negri is seen in the role of La Carmencita, and this latest vehicle demonstrates that this wonderful star from across the ocean is an artist of the first rank.

This triumph of the motion picture is shared by Ernst Lubitsch, a wizard of production, who also directed Pola Negri in her previous success, and by the members of the cast supporting the star. Henry Liedtke gives a splendid characterization of the Spanish dragoon who falls a victim to the charms of the alluring Carmencita.

The photography is magnificient, as is the general technique of the production. American producers can learn a big lesson from it.

Re-edited and re-titled by Myron M. Stearns, "Gypsy Blood" is released by Associated First National Pictures, Inc. If First National has anything more like it, let's have it.

Dorothy Dalton is back again in the role of a daughter of the great Canadian Northwest, a similar character to that in which she made such a success in "The Flame of the Yukon" several years ago. It was in such a role as she has in "The Idol of the North," J. Clarkson Miller's story, which will be seen at the Sherry Theatre that Miss Dalton gained her reputation as a screen star.

In the dance hall she meets Martin Bates, a young engineer who has come from New York after a series of financial difficulties, and who fast becomes a worthless drunkard. In order to get even with the way she has treated them the miners force her to marry Bates. After the first shock Colette decides to make the best of it and determines to make a man of him. After many incidents of dramatic interest she succeeds not only in regenerating Bates but also in winning his love.

Also showing a comedy.

The circulation books from the Umatilla county library this year averaged 1000 volumes per month more than in 1920, a total of 68,590 volumes being taken into the homes of the county.
